

Golfers Edge Cats For First Victory

By RICK BREWER
of The Daily Tar Heel Staff

The North Carolina golf team captured its first victory of the season Monday, defeating Davidson 12 1-2 to 8 1-2 at Finley Golf Course.

Carolina won the last three individual matches to clinch the win. The Tar Heels dropped their first dual match to Ohio University last week. The Tar Heels finished second to powerful Wake Forest in the Red Fox Invitational at Tryon over the weekend.

Jim Hickman, Buzzy Tolbert, and Lance Richards took the three final matches for Carolina by identical 2 1-2 to 1-2 scores. Hickman defeated Doug Clark, Tolbert defeated Danny White, and Richards topped Tucker Dalton.

Charles Lynch of Carolina tied Davidson's Mike Spann in the battle of the top-flight players, 1 1-2 to 1 1-2. The Wildcats' George Light fell to UNC's Jimmy Barnes 2 1-2 to 1-2.

The two clubs then exchanged shutouts. John Giles of Davidson blanked the Tar Heels' Bill Brackett 3-0 and Glen Staropoly of Carolina topped the Cats' Cary Hite by the same score.

Coach Ed Kinney's linksmen will face the Wildcats again next Monday at Davidson. The Heels will compete in the Palmetto Intercollegiate Invitational at Orangeburg, S.C. this weekend.

... In Tennis Match With MIT Here Yesterday

Sixth Straight Win Netmen Trounce MIT, 9-0

By ART CHANSKY
of The Daily Tar Heel Staff

The University of North Carolina tennis team trounced MIT, 9-0, here yesterday. This marked the Tar Heels' 700th match since the sport started at UNC in 1909.

The netters ran this year's record to 6-0.

Gene Hamilton got back on the winning track by downing MIT's Carl Weissgerber, 6-3, 6-1, in first singles.

After a sluggish start, Hamilton came on strong to outclass Weissgerber in winning his fourth match of the season.

In second singles, Bob Davis remained unbeaten by virtue of his victory over MIT's Steve Deneroff, 6-2, 6-1.

Lee Langstroth also returned to his familiar winning ways as he dominated his match with Tech's Bob McKinley, 6-1, 6-0.

Fourth singles saw Billy Trot, playing alone for the first time this year, defeat Bob Metcalfe of MIT, 6-2, 6-3.

Sophomores Fred Rawlings and Joe Dorn, playing fifth and sixth singles, respectively, won their matches decisively with Rawlings blasting MIT's Manny Weiss, 6-0, 6-0, and Dorn besting Skip Brookfield, 6-1, 6-4.

In doubles competition, Rawlings and Davis continued their fantastic string by whipping MIT's McKinley and Weiss, 6-1, 6-3, 6-3. They have now won six straight matches.

Hamilton and Trot teamed up again to defeat Tech's Metcalfe and Stewart, 7-5, 6-1.

In third doubles, Alan Lassiter and Billy Shivar defeated MIT's Weissgerber and Deneroff, 8-10, 6-1, 6-3.

UNC's 700 wins over the past 59 years is even more amazing when it is considered that the team has only lost 77 times, for an incredible won-lost percentage of .890, better than any other varsity sport in Tar Heel history.

Coach Don Skakle, in his 10th year as Carolina tennis mentor, owns 162 of those 700 victories.

In his 10 years at the helm, Skakle has coached the likes of George Sokol, three-time ACC Champion, O.H. Parrish and Betsy Harrison but still calls this year's Heels "as good in depth and balance as any team I've ever had. The spirit and togetherness has always been good, but the unity that this team shows is something special. That's what helped them win the ACC Championship last year."

The only coach to win more matches than Skakle was John Kenfield who headed Carolina tennis from 1923-1954.

During that time he led the Tar Heels to 457 wins against only 40 losses.

Skakle, who played Carolina tennis with Vic Sexias and Betsy Grant, says it's "a little too early to tell whether this team ranks as the best I've ever had, but it certainly may be."

"I'm delighted with their desire to play the game. Against Northwestern on Saturday they knew, after the singles matches, that they had a job to do, and they simply went out and did it."

Did the universe just happen, or was it created?

Brian Sullivan To Appear

The final concert of the 1967-68 season sponsored by the Chapel Hill Concert Series and Graham Memorial will present Brian Sullivan in recital at Memorial Hall, Tuesday evening, March 26th, at eight o'clock.

As any singer knows, this outlay not only is a musical task but an athletic one. Mr. Sullivan looked and sounded fit and strong, his intensity and dynamic drive were sustained throughout and his tone was clear, often opulent, and in excellent focus.

Groups of Schubert, Richard Strauss, Cimara and Irish folk songs rounded out the program, an excellent display of versatility, settings in three languages and a number of lyric styles.

The Schubert "Die Post," a private domain of soprano Lotte Lehmann for a generation, would not be attempted by a tenor with less sureness in the lieder feeling and his own poetic response. Mr. Sullivan made it a moment of lyric art, and went on to further musically episodes. It was received most appreciatively. This was Mr. Sullivan's second appearance on the Orchard Park series in two seasons. A poll of the audience doubtless would register a heavy vote for his third appearance before too long.

Tickets are on sale at the Graham Memorial Information Desk, students have tickets available in the balcony for the performance.

UNC Seeks Second Win Against State Cindermen

North Carolina's track team gets its second test of the afternoon when the Tar Heels travel to Raleigh to face North Carolina State.

First event of the meet will begin at 1:30.

Coach Joe Hilton's thinclads braved blustery weather Saturday in trouncing Clemson 98-36 in the season's opener.

Hilton said he will use "basically the same lineup" against State, with some change in the quarter-mile aggregation.

The Wolfpack lack depth, but springer Dick Trichter is one of the Atlantic Coast Conference's best.

Trichter is the defending ACC outdoor champion in the 100 and 200 yard dashes.

Hilton also rates State strong in the mile, triple jump, shot put and 440-yard dash.

Top race of the meet should be the 440, Hilton feels. Terry Sellers of Carolina and State's Ed Prather are two of the fastest in the area.

Sellers won the quarter-mile Saturday in a good 49.5 timing.

"I anticipate a close meet," said Hilton. "It should be tough. I think we can win, however, if we are as ready as we were against Clemson."

The UNC coach said he was pleased with his team's first meet performance.

"We did very well, especially under the weather conditions," he said. "It looks like we have the boys who can take pressure and competition.

"They are showing a lot of progress so far and several boys are considerably improved."

Carolina, of course, has the best middle distance runner in the conference history in Mike Williams. The Coral Gables, Fla., junior will probably run the mile and 880-yard run, both events in which he is the conference champ.

Versatile Gary Iverson is coming off the best meet of his career. Iverson won the intermediate hurdles and the broad jump against Clemson, breaking the school record in the hurdles.

He also placed third in the triple jump and ran a leg on the winning 440 quartet.

Archer Nips Jacklin For Pensacola Title

PENSACOLA, Fla. (UPI)—Towering George Archer came down the stretch with a string of birdies Monday to nip England's Tony Jacklin and Dave Marr by a single stroke to win the Pensacola Open.

The 6-foot-6 archer, tallest man on the tour, trailed Jacklin by a stroke with two holes to play but finished with a pair of birdies while the 23-year-old Englishman was taking a bogey on the next to last hole.

Archer, who had predicted it would take a final-round 67 to win this $80,000 tournament, had a 7-under-par 65 to wind up at 20-under-par 268. That won him $16,000 and shot his earnings for the year above the $36,000 mark.

Jacklin, called by Gary Player the best young golfer England has produced in recent years, had a tough putt for his par on the final hole after hitting a tree, but made it for a 66. That tied him with former PGA champion Marr at 19-under-par 269. Marr had a 65 Monday.

Tom Shaw, who set a record-equaling pace through the first two rounds, closed with a day's best 63 for 271 and third-round leader Ray Floyd had a 70-272.

Archer and Jacklin started the final round of the rain-delayed tournament tied for second place, one stroke behind Floyd.

Jacklin was out in front midway through the last round as he shot a 32 on the front nine while Archer had a 34, but Archer got it back on the back side.

Archer, 28, was 16-under and a stroke back when he started making his bid with a birdie on the 66th hole of the tournament. He added another on 68 and then ran off a string of three in a row to give him five birdies on the last seven holes.
