

The Daily Tar Heel

76 Years of Editorial Freedom

CHAPEL HILL, NORTH CAROLINA, TUESDAY, APRIL 9, 1968

Scattered Showers

Scattered showers or thundershowers today with highs in the 70s. A little cooler Wednesday.

NROTC Drill

Naval ROTC drill for today has been cancelled.

Volume 75, Number 146

Founded February 23, 1893

Two Students Return Draft Cards At Joan Baez Anti-War Meeting

By MIKE COZZA
of The Daily Tar Heel Staff
Two UNC students handed their draft cards to folksinger Joan Baez yesterday afternoon following an anti-war, anti-draft meeting in Memorial Hall.

Miss Baez was one of three speakers at the meeting. She would not release the students' names, although one identified himself as Robert Bottomly, a sophomore from Marblehead, Mass.

The meeting was sponsored jointly by SDS, SSOC and The Resistance. It was attended by an estimated 700 persons.

Miss Baez told the group that "we have all been raised from birth to become schizophrenics."

"We have been told by everyone to be kind and decent and to love our neighbor," she explained. "But now we're being told that there's something more important—the nation-state. Now 'Big Daddy' will make all the decisions."

DTH Staff Photo by Gene Wang

Students Decide Today In Nine Ballot Election

By RICK GRAY
of The Daily Tar Heel Staff
Nine ballots will be facing the students who go to the polls today.

The ballots will carry the names of candidates for offices ranging from President of the Student Body to Social Chairman of the Senior Class.

Not counting legislative and honor court hopefuls, there will be 33 names on the ballots.

Mr. Harris said his philosophy was based on the idea of the brotherhood of man and that the war in Vietnam was standing in the way of that brotherhood.

Half Day Off

Chancellor Sitterson has approved a request that all University non-academic employees who wish to do so be authorized to take a half-day off duty Tuesday.

Mr. Harris urged students to think about the draft and to consider resistance.

Mr. Harris said he presently has a case pending against him in San Francisco for returning his draft card and refusing induction. He said he was not afraid to go to jail for five years.

STUDENTS LIVING in Residence halls will vote in their residences; those living off campus will vote as follows:

MDI—all men residing in area outside the corporate limits of Chapel Hill and Carrboro and all men residing in Victory Village vote at Y Court and the Victory Village Housing Office.

SANDPEARL

BAEZ

HARRIS

Drug Interviews Set

By FRANK BALLARD
of The Daily Tar Heel Staff
Interviews for the Eastern Regional Conference on Student Drug Involvement, sponsored by the National Student Drug Association, will be held Wednesday and Thursday 3-5 p.m. on the second floor of Graham Memorial.

Charles Jeffress, NSA campus coordinator, said the conference is open to anyone interested in college drug policies. It is scheduled for April 19-21 at the Penn Garden Hotel in New York City and will be held under a grant from the National Institute of Mental Health.

Similar NSA drug conferences have been held in the West and Mid-West and this one arose partially because of the February drug raids on the Stony Brook campus of the State University of New York.

Black Students, Workers Boycott Campus Today

By BILL AMLONG
of The Daily Tar Heel Staff
Black students and workers will boycott campus today in mourning for the late Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King.

THE BOYCOTT WILL follow two days of memorial services held by the University and the Chapel Hill Ministerial Association.

The first memorial service, held Sunday afternoon in the First Baptist Church, was preceded by a march from Y Court by some 600 persons.

Washington, and what he said in Memphis before his death.

A SECOND MEMORIAL service, James R. Wagoner, a RTVMP graduate student who was supposed to lead a litany, "Martin Luther King's Vision," scrapped his script and began speaking to the 2,000 or so students and faculty members there.

Rooms Available At Housing Office

James E. Wadsworth, Director of Housing, announced Monday that students may now come by the Housing Office in the basement of Bynum Hall to secure their room and roommate assignment for the Fall Semester, 1968.

Marathon Broadcast Attempted On WILD

By NANCY STANCILL
of The Daily Tar Heel Staff
A freshman deejay on Granville's radio WILD, interviewed after 51 hours of continuous broadcasting, smiled and said cheerfully "I feel fine."

At this stage, Shannon has not used coffee, No-Doz, or any other type of stimulant to help him remain awake. He says he will probably resort to stimulant use Wednesday.

DTH Staff Photo by Gene Wang

Marinda McPherson leads the singing ... in Monday's memorial service for Dr. Martin Luther King.

Ugly Man Standings Place Pi Lam First

Today's Ugly Man on Campus standings in the Fraternity Division are: No. 1 Pi Lambda Phi, No. 2 DU, No. 3 Phi Sigma Kappa, No. 4 DKE, No. 5 SAE, No. 6 Phi Delta Theta, No. 7 Chi Psi, No. 8 Kappa Psi, No. 9 Sigma Phi Epsilon, No. 10 Delta Sigma Pi, No. 11 Pi Kappa Alpha, No. 12 Sigma Chi, No. 13 Lambda Chi Alpha, No. 14 Sigma Nu, No. 15 Phi Gam, No. 16 Beta, No. 17 ATO.

Enthusiastic Ugly Men are canvassing the dorms this week. They are putting special concentration on the women's residences.

Guard Watches Memphis March

By DUREN CHEEK
Mrs. Martin Luther King Jr., dressed in black and accompanied by her children, led thousands of marchers Monday through this heavily guarded city where her husband was slain. She challenged her followers to see that her husband's spirit "never dies."

Those of you who believe in what Dr. Martin Luther King stood for, I would challenge you today to see that his spirit never dies and that we will go forward from this experience—which to me represents the crucifixion—on toward the resurrection and redemption of his spirit," Mrs. King said.

National Guardsmen, their rifles tipped with bayonets, lined the route of the somber, peaceful march and police helicopters hovered overhead while she spoke.