

TR Would Like UNC's Kramer

He Walks Softly And Carries A Big Stick

BY RICK BREWER
of The Daily Tar Heel Staff

Teddy Roosevelt would like Pete Kramer.

He walks softly and carries a big stick. A very big stick. Kramer is the goalie for the Carolina lacrosse team, a squad which has won six of its first nine games. This 6-3 record is even more impressive when it is considered that last season UNC posted an 0-7-1 mark.

Obviously, there must be a reason for this sudden turn of fortunes for the Tar Heel stickmen. There is Pete Kramer.

While better play from returning lettermen and a fine crew of sophomores also have been factors in the rise of the Heels the goalkeeping of Kramer stands out.

The 5-11, 185-pound sophomore has come up with 158 saves in the first nine games. Kramer has been especially efficient in the nets in the last four contests.

However, Pete has not been overly pleased with his play.

"Actually, I've been pretty spotty so far," said the soft-spoken netminder. "I play well for a couple of games, then have a bad outing."

In reality, though, the bad games have come very seldom for Kramer.

"I was a hockey goalie in high school when I first became interested in lacrosse," Pete explained. The coach asked me to come out for the team to keep my eye sharp for hockey.

"Lacrosse is the big spring sport in Massachusetts," the goalie went on. "I enjoyed the game and have been playing ever since."

Pete rates lacrosse as a tougher sport for a goalie than hockey.

"There are more things the goalie is responsible for in lacrosse," Kramer noted. "You have to clear the ball, run the defense, and tell the other players what is happening."

"The goalie is the only player who can see the whole field. Because of this, he has to tell his teammates where the ball is and what is going on."

Kramer is especially adept at stopping the ball as it comes off the ground. His good reflexes enable him to scoop the ball before it can bounce by him.

Pete feels the toughest plays for a lacrosse goalie are one-on-ones and fast breaks.

"However, a goalie is not faced with too many one-on-one situations," Pete pointed out. "There are always defensemen back to help protect the goal."

Kramer was quick to give credit to his defensemen for their help.

"The defensive players make the goalie," he said. The goal is too big for one man to adequately defend. There are so many ways that the ball can come at the net that it is impossible to defend without help.

"The brand of lacrosse is improving vastly here," Kramer declared. "The team has been playing great lately. By next year, we could crack the national top ten."

Commodore's May In Unusual Predicament

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (UPI)—Roger May, Vanderbilt quarterback for the past three seasons, said Wednesday he has an "unusual opportunity" to remain at the university but will go with the Denver Broncos if he and the club can agree on salary.

May said he planned to confer by telephone with Lou Saban, General Manager of the American Football League Broncos.

"I couldn't play for the original offer," said May, who completed 82 of 149 passes for 929 yards and nine touchdowns in 1967. "I realize my bargaining power in professional football is limited, but I would have to be satisfied financially before I could go to Denver."

May has an offer here of a three-year scholarship to attend Vanderbilt Law School while helping the coaching staff as a graduate assistant.

Vanderbilt is scheduled to play North Carolina in Nashville this year, October 5.

"I have an unusual opportunity at Vanderbilt," said May, but added he wanted to prove to himself whether he could play pro ball.

UNC Wins Consolidated Intramural Championships

By BOB COLEMAN

Carolina copped the first annual Consolidated University Co-Rec Playday Tuesday hands down.

UNC captured six firsts, a second and a third to score 35 points in outdistancing UNC-G (21), State (17) and UNC-Charlotte (14).

Beta great Steve Dobson and Don Fisher teamed with Sandra Schenk and Margo Brinkley to take the golf title, while Nancy Aycock, Ginny Webb, Brad Bant and Richard Holderness out-pointed everyone in table tennis.

The winning tennis team included Margie Massie, Bee Forrester, John Egbert and Murry Mitchell. The best in badminton was displaced by Edie Wright, Cynne Parker, Dick Badcock and Tom Sartain.

Volleyball victors were Joanna Everett, Doug Saunders, Henry Kock, Rita Barnes, Rachael Gidney and Danny Hughes.

Bringing back a runnerup spot in bowling were Jan Raymond Ace Kellogg, Jim Cavaloris and Nancy Warner, while Bob Wheeler, Patsy Milstead and Bruce Mansfield took third in archery. An unknown UNC squad took fencing.

The Ruffin Rebels downed the Everett Rogah, 3-0, before Easter break to annex the residence hall badminton crown.

Rogers won by forfeit but Yount was forced to three games to win the other singles, 15-13, 11-15, 18-16. Grote and Carhart teamed to down Snavely and Robinson in two games to wrap up the doubles.

DU Blue won an exciting 2-1 match from Phi Delt Blue to become the fraternity blue badminton kings. Dorn won 15-0, 15-3 to give Phi Delt first singles, but Tom Sartain and the doubles duo of Terry Henry and Jim Cutting each triumphed in three games to give DU Blue the win.

The DKE Red Raiders took smashing singles victories and roared back after dropping the first doubles game to whitewash the Pi Lambda Tornados for the White Greek title, 3-0.

Sawyer won 15-1, 15-4 and Harris got 15-5 wins. Rhodes and Fast outlasted Spying and Galloway in the doubles.

Stu Miller Gets Release

ATLANTA—(UPI)—Atlanta Braves officials said Wednesday they have released 40-year-old veteran pitcher Stu Miller, leaving the Braves with one empty spot on its 25-man roster.

Miller, who has been in the majors for 15 years, was purchased by the Braves this spring from the Baltimore Orioles.

A Braves spokesman said Miller has pitched in only one game for the Braves—against the Chicago Cubs Tuesday night. He gave up four earned runs in two-thirds of an in-

Courville Outlasts Siegel In Tourney

PINEHURST (UPI)—Jerry Courville of South Norwalk, Conn., defeated Jay Siegel 1-up in the third round of the 68th annual Men's Amateur Golf Tournament here Wednesday.

Siegel defeated defending champion Bill Campbell of Huntington, W. Va., in the second round Tuesday.

Courville and Siegel played see-saw golf with neither man shooting par. Courville, a past Connecticut state champion, had been considered a dark horse in the tournament.

Rain fell off and on during the third round, raining hard in spurts and making it difficult for the players to grip their clubs.

Other third round winners:

Bill Harvey, Greensboro, defeated Bob Bourne, Jr., Lorain, Ohio, 2 up.

David King, Bethesda, Md., defeated Gus Blair Willowdale, Ontario, 1 up.

James St. Germain, Northville, Mich., 1 up over Pat Foy Grady, Reidsville.

Jack Lewis Jr., Florence, S.C., defeated Phil Antibus, Ft.

Wayne, Ind., 6-5.

Allen Heedt, Peoria, Ill., defeated David Cameron, Detroit, Mich., 3-2.

Dale Morey, High Point, 3-2, over Allen Sussel, Villanova, Pa.

Jim Balch, Little Rock, Ark., defeated Raymond Kimpel, Urbana, Ill., 4-3.

Bill Hyndmann III of Huntingdon Valley, Pa., defeated Stan Thompson, Chapel Hill, 7-6.

Robert Ludwig Jr., North Miami, Fla., defeated Morris Beecroft Jr., Newport News, Va., 5-4.

James Gabrielson, Atlanta, defeated Roger McManus, Hartsville, Ohio, 4-3.

Leonard Thompson, Lauringburg, defeated John Birmingham, Pittsburgh, 4-2.

Dr. Ed Updegraff, Tucson, Ariz., defeated Harry Welch, Salisbury, 1 up.

Charles Lynch Jr., Bennettsville, S.C., defeated John Miller, Edina, Minn., 6-5.

Dick Siderowf, Westport, Conn., defeated Bobby Edgerton, Raleigh 1 up.
