

Terrapins Favored In ACC Track Tournament

If the 15th Annual ACC Outdoor Track and Field Championship at Fetzer Field had a team song, it would probably be the same as the Preakness the following week — "Maryland, My Maryland."

The Terrapin trackmen are the defending champs in this meet and this year set the ACC Indoor Game point total record with 106 points. This total was 20 more than the combined total of the other seven schools.

The qualifying events begin Friday afternoon at 3 p.m. with the finals getting underway Saturday at 2 p.m.

Maryland's biggest strength is its depth, but it also has some outstanding stars. Roland Merritt is a 9.5, 100-yard man who anchored the 440 relay and one mile relay teams to wins two weeks ago on this same track in the Carolina Relays. Other top performers for the Terps are 880-yard man Don Donahue, John Baker with a 4:06.5 mile to his credit this season and John Hanley who puts the shot 54'-7".

Battling for the runnerup spot at the Outdoor Games should be North Carolina, Duke, and South Carolina. UNC will be depending on Olympic hopeful and defending champ in the mile and 880, Mike Williams. He'll run the 880 and anchor the one-mile relay or two-mile relay team. Gary Iverson, who last week set the ACC record in the 440 yard Intermediate Hurdles at 32.2, is a good bet for UNC and its relay squads in the one and two mile and 440 yard events as strong.

Duke has Ed Stenberg, the three mile king, Jeff Howser in the 220 and 440 yard hurdles and Clint Brown, who pole vaults in the 14 - 6 range. Howser is undefeated in the ACC this season at the 220 distance but was beaten in the 440 for the first time the past two weeks by UNC's Iverson.

South Carolina upset UNC in a dual meet last month and could be a dark horse. The USC 440 relay team with a clocking of 41.7 is tops this year in the ACC. Dave Smith in the high jump could upset Maryland's highly touted Frank Costello. Smith has gone over the bar this spring at 6 - 6 1/2. Also in the field events, Leonard Harvey a 23-2 long jumper could get a five point award.

Johnson Renews Tax Hike Appeal

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson appealed anew Tuesday for congressional approval of a $10 billion-a-year tax increase as the measure advanced to crucial meetings of House and Senate negotiators.

Rep. Wilbur Mills, D-Ark., chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, carried to the afternoon session of a House-Senate conference committee a compromise plan that would tie the tax boost to mandatory cuts totaling $4 billion in the President's spending plans for the next fiscal year starting July 2. There would be additional reductions in future years.

The conferees already are considering a Senate-approved tax package involving a $6 billion spending cut. Even if they agree on a single plan, the full House and Senate still must vote on it.

Johnson signed legislation removing the 6 per cent interest rate ceiling on home mortgage loans underwritten by the Federal Housing Administration and the said, without a tax boost, he said, the interest rates could climb to 10 per cent.

"Only responsible fiscal policy can prevent another disaster," he said at a bill-signing ceremony in the White House cabinet room.

A little later in the day, acting under their new authority to fix interest rate ceilings to match commercial money market conditions, Secretary Robert C. Weaver of Housing and Urban Development, and William J. Driver, veterans affairs administrator, raised the legal upper limit on FHA and VA insured home mortgages to 6.75 per cent.

The President said that while he had refused to pass a tax increase, Congress had permitted mortgage interest rates to rise from 5.5 per cent to as much as 8 per cent, the highest point in 50 years.

Johnson noted that the legislation he signed was required because commercial mortgage rates were higher than the 5 per cent ceiling on FHA and VA-insured loans which consequently attracted insufficient lending funds. "We could have voiced this if we could have passed a tax increase," he said.

The President said he had asked Democratic congressional leaders Tuesday to urge House and Senate conferees to support the compromise tax plan approved Monday by the Mills committee on a bipartisan, 17-6 vote.

Johnson said the compromise was acceptable to him, and the committee's action "gives us some hope that we can have a tax bill."

Peace Hopes High

PARIS (UPI) — A North Vietnamese delegation spokesman said Tuesday he was "very optimistic" about the outcome of Washington-Hanoi talks now expected to begin Monday. But diplomatic sources warned Hanoi does not intend to scale down fighting in return for a total halt in American bombing of North Vietnam.

Col. Ha Van Lao headed a vanguard of 20 members of the North Vietnamese entourage which arrived in Paris from Hanoi to prepare technical groundwork for the discussions.

U.S. Embassy sources said a now appeared the talk would begin Monday instead of Friday as expected. One snag was that Hanoi had yet to officially accept designation of a building in which to hold talks.

Asked about the talks' potential for success, Lao replied with a large smile: "I am very optimistic about the outcome."

The talks were expected to be held in the French Foreign Ministry's International Conference Center near the Arc de Triomphe. The center, once the luxury hotel Majestic, served as Nazi Gestapo headquarters during World War II.

Diplomatic sources said Monday that both sides had agreed on the site, but an official announcement was still awaited Tuesday.

Lao, who holds the rank of ambassador and is chief of a North Vietnamese liaison mission with the International Control Commission (ICC) for Vietnam, was expected to be press spokesman for the Hanoi delegation.

North Vietnam' chief negotiator, Xuan Thuy left Hanoi Tuesday for Paris, the Soviet news agency Tass reported from the North Vietnamese capital. Hanoi diplomats in Paris said Thuy was to arrive Thursday.

The talks approached under a cloud of quarrels from diplomatic sources who said Hanoi has served notice by stepping up bloodshed in the war that it has no intention of scaling down the intensity of fighting in return for a total bombing halt.

Lemons

Gallison advanced to third when Bobby Elliott dropped the ball on the tag. Bergman then singled in Callison for the final 6-2 score.

Buskey didn't allow another hit and retired 11 of the final 12 batters.

Carolina blew a potential rally in the fifth. Carr walked and Hill and Elliott singled, but a fine throw from left fielder Bergman sent Carr scrambling back to third. With the bases loaded and one away, Botick grounded into a double play to end the inning.

Carolina begins its four-game road trip Friday with a single game against Virginia. The Heels meet Maryland in a twinbill Saturday and complete the excursion against Virginia Tech Monday.

Late Rally Gives English 11-4 Win

By BOB COLEMAN
DTH Sports Writer

The English Bards banged out eleven of their 16 hits in the last two innings to turn a 4-1 deficit into an 11-4 rout of the Law Red Sox in Monday's grad softball semis.

Larry Early collected a single and a pair of doubles to help keep star hurler Bill Doxey (six strikeouts in five innings) undefeated and advance the winners to night's championship match with the Law Golden Wheels at 7 p.m. Bob Bonczek bopped a triple and a homer for Law.

The Aycock Aardwolves rallied in the residence hall loop to down the Everett Rogah, 5-3. Jerry Worsley stopped Rogah after trailing 3-0 for half the game.

The Mangum Mugs came up to with six runs on consecutive blasts by Conner, Hobgood (his second homer) Sutton (a triple—he also homered) and Miller but fell to the Ruffin Sluggers in a real slugfest, 11-9. Carhart and Hughes connected for the winners.

The Avery Bottom Ends upended the Teague Tigers, 8-4, while the Ehringhaus Super Sonics got two singles, a double and a fourbagger from White in beating the Sluggers, 12-4.

Granville C trailed 6-0 in the top of the first and led 11-6 after batting but had to choke off a Granville D uprising to edge D, 13-12. The winners' first six men walked as C sent Lap 15 batters in the initial frame.

R. Lefler hit a homer and two singles, S. Miller singled and homered and Cline Corner collected two triples as Old West outscored Craigie B Danned 9-7. The losers trailed 8-1 before circuit clouds by Larry Cooke and Tom Dillon made it close.

Lewis allowed only a Phil Beauchemin single in pitching the Morrison G Grits over Morrison C, 9-1. Hicks and Rodgers blasted roundtrippers. The Morrison Dryrots broke open a tight game and ripped the Morrison Good Guys, 11-6.

MBA White ousted Peacocks Blue in Monday's closet tennis match—all other bouts being shutouts. Winning by 3-0 were Beta Blue over Pi Lamb Blue, Phi Game Blue against Sig Ep Blue and the English Bards versus Peacocks White.
