ATTENTION! MAY WE HAVE YOUR ATTENTION PLEASE

(ESPECIALLY NEW SUMMER SCHOOLERS)!

From what you have seen of quaint l'il ole Chapel Hill, have you grown tired of:

- Pretentious surroundings?
- Colonial architecture everywhere
you sit?
- Genteel respectability?
- Radar hot-dogs?
- Hamburgers more aptly described by our docile graffitti?
- Cute little waiters in blushing red jackets?
- Go-Go girls with knock knees?
- Clean restrooms?
- Clean cut, all-American, hair-parted-the-same-way clientele?
- Ralph, Percy, Clarence, Duke, Paul, Pete . . . ?
IF SO, then descend, come down, way down, low down,
down-down, below the gutter to that infamous underground lair of lizards, statesmen, poets, frat rats, birds, bums, and a host of happy regulars, including some of UNC's loveliest co-eds (you know who you are).

YES, THE TEMPO ROOM, regardless of what you hear (it's probably true) is the home of the biggest, bestest roast beef and Spartan sandwiches and beer, where you will be entertained by the best juke-box and pinball machines in town, open to men and women of all types, sizes, colors. . . .

Bring your frame of mind, your money, credit cards (coeds, you might get by with good looks) — whoop and holler, dance, stand on your head, shout.
And have Faith . . . that Pete and Tracy will run
the show and keep everybody safe and happy —

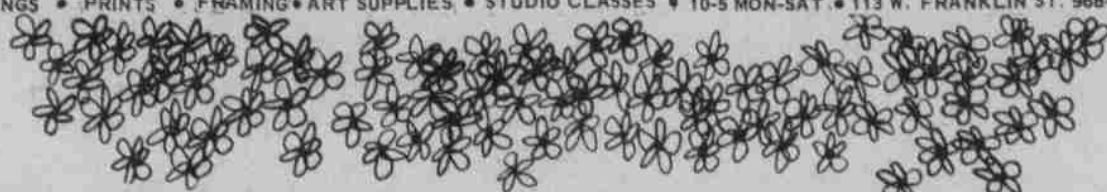

Thanks for reading and come on down.
If you're a new student we'll treat you to a beer.
