

Both Lose Two Starters

Injuries Cost UNC, State

Both State and Carolina have two starters who will sit out Saturday's game in Kenan Stadium with injuries.

Split end Peter Davis and fullback Tommy Dempsey are definitely counted out of action for the Tar Heels. Both were leaders of the 1967 UNC offense.

Davis, a 6-3, 178 senior from Clarksville, Va., was the top Carolina receiver last year with 30 catches for 338 yards.

Dempsey, also a senior, was the second-leading Tar Heel rusher in 1967 with 501 yards, 130 carries.

Davis is suffering from a separated shoulder while

Dempsey is recovering from a wrenched knee.

Junior Bill Dodson will replace Davis at end. Dodson was ineligible last season but was the Tar Heels' placement kicker in 1966.

The loss of Dempsey has caused a fluid situation in the backfield.

Either reserve Ken Borries or regular starting wingback

Dick Wesolowski will open at fullback Saturday. If Wesolowski switches to fullback, Bucky Perry will start at wingback.

Two other starters for UNC have slight injuries but will be at full-speed for State.

They are quarterback Gayle Bomar with a pulled muscle and defensive tackle Mike Smith with a bruised hand.

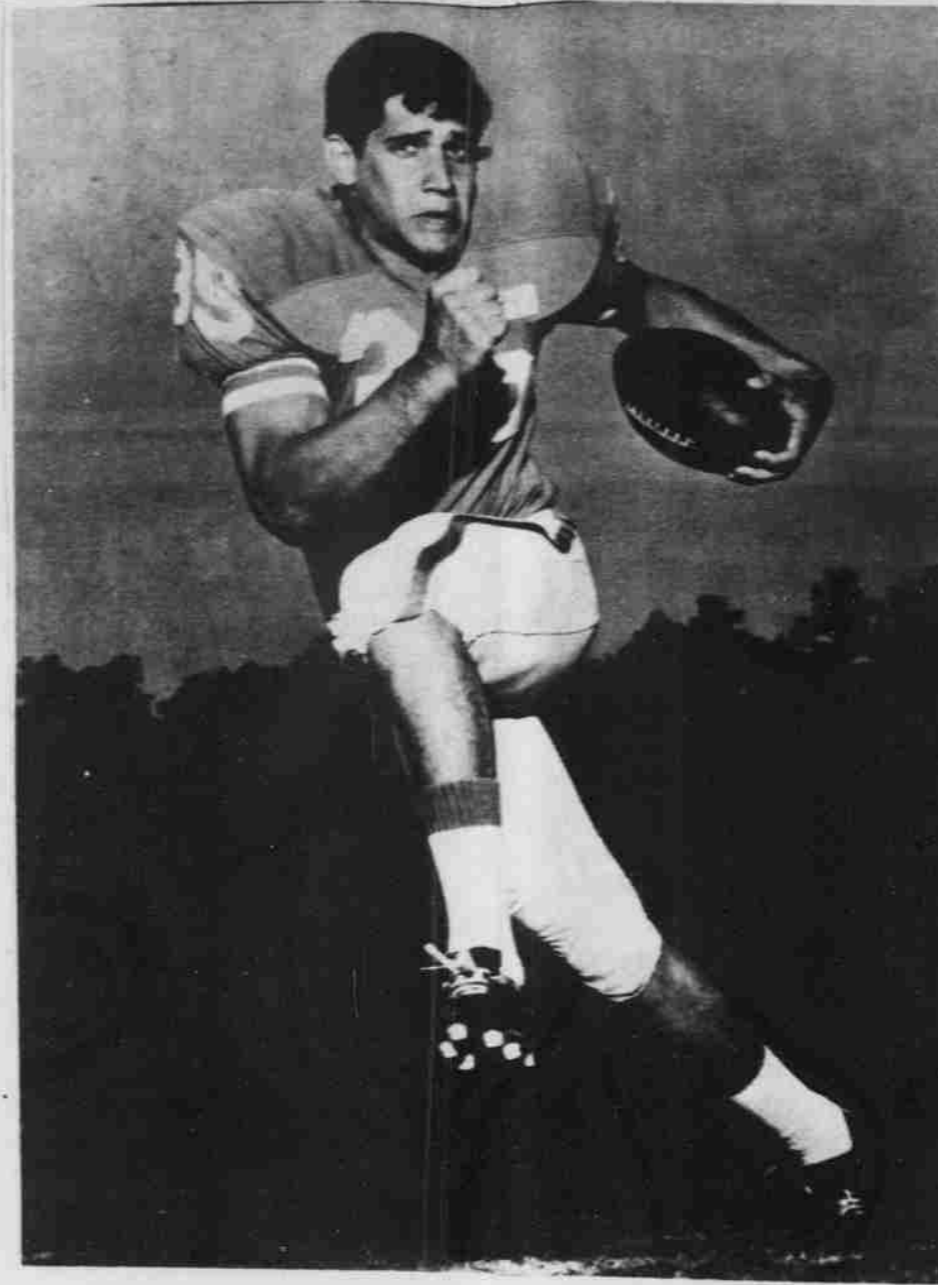

State halfback Leon Mason will be on the bench with a sprained ankle. Junior Charlie Bowers from Thomasville will start in his place.

Offensive end Wayne Lewis is also not expected to see any action. He is listed as a doubtful starter with an injured knee.

Sophomore George Botsko will replace him.

Mason was the third-leading ground gainer for the Liberty Bowl champs last season. He rushed for 299 yards.

Lewis caught four passes for 65 yards in 1967.

Baseball

All persons interested in going out for varsity or freshman baseball should attend the baseball meeting Monday night at 7:30 in 304 Woolen Gymnasium.

McClain Gets His 31st By Beating Yanks, 6-2

DETROIT (UPI)—Denny McLain won his 31st game of the season and Norm Cash slammed his 23rd and 24th homers Thursday as the Detroit Tigers made Willie Horton's managerial debut a success with a 6-2 victory over the New York Yankees.

McLain allowed eight hits, including Mickey Mantle's 535th lifetime homer, which moves him into sole possession of third place on the all time list. Only Babe Ruth and Willie Mays have hit more.

With the pennant already clinched, Detroit manager Mayo Smith turned the reins over to Horton and Cash made the job look easy with a solo homer in the fourth and a two-run blast in the sixth, both off starter and loser Mel Stottlemyre, now 20-12.

Stottlemyre allowed another run in the sixth on Jim Northrup's double and Eddie Mathews' run-scoring single.

McLain, who walked three and fanned seven pitched the 12th straight complete game by a Detroit pitcher and it was the Tigers' ninth consecutive victory.

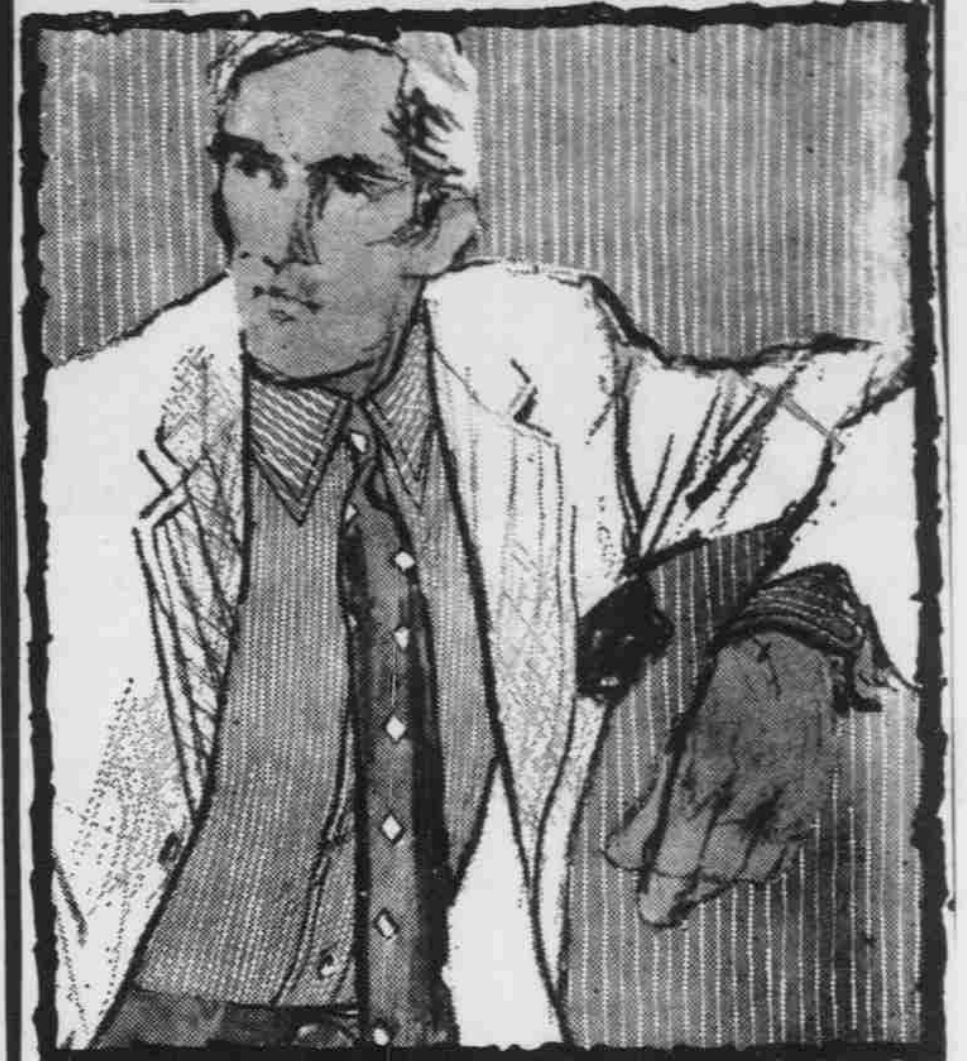

McLain walked Tom Tresh with the bases loaded for the first Yankee run before Mantle added his 17th homer of the year in the eighth inning.

Wayne Comer's two run single off Dooley Womack accounted for the final two Detroit runs in the seventh.

Peace is not a matter of standing idle. It is an ideal to be fought for with all the wisdom and all the experience of the past.

THE HUB PRESENTS a new twist to THE BUTTON-DOWN COLLAR

The BUTTON-DOWN-LESS COLLAR

We call it the Button-Down-Less Collar because it has all the fine features of your perennial favorite—like a full roll, barrel cuffs, slight taper—but less those two little buttons... Designed to be worn with a pin or without, according to your taste—in a colorful splash of the season's handsome hues, stripes, and checks... And we still do have lots of brand-new button-downs... at the most reasonable prices!
