This week's picks are somewhat ridiculous since 14 games received unanimous decisions, including such predictably close contests as Tennessee-Alabama, State-Virginia and Nebraska-Missouri. There must have been a leak in the soundproof isolation booth when staffers made their selections. Last week was a disaster. There were six major upsets, and Davis, Gibson, Good and George missed all six. Davis plummeted 70 percentage points. Old reliable Muskingum, a unanimous choice to lose last week, beat Wittenberg 13-7.

Tar Heels Ready For Tough Gators

North Carolina's Tar Heels staged their final practice session Thursday for Saturday's game against Florida in Kenan Stadium. The Tar Heels held a light workout without pads and reviewed their offensive and defensive game plans. Coach Bill Dooley praised the work of tailback Don McCauley of Garden City, N.Y. and linebacker Keith Hicks of Fairfax, Va. during the practice session. A crowd of better than 35,000 is expected for the 1:30 p.m. encounter.

Hamlin Defects To Football

By JOHN WESTEFELD AND MAX MAXWELL DTH Sports Writers

in high school Canadian football, however, does not enjoy the popularity of football in the United States.

"There were only 19 boys out for the freshman team and only 20 schools in Ontario had football squads. This made it necessary for me to play linebacker as well as tailback." The rules of Canadian football also differ from those of American football. The field is 110 yards long and 66 yards wide. "This makes scoring more difficult," said Hamlin. "You can run a long way and still not score."
