Probable comments after November's first college football weekend:

From Virginia, which beat UNC 41-6: "That was their first team? We have a tougher time running against the freshmen in practice than against those guys. In fact we thought the big game was next week. Coach 7 Blackburn said this was only a B team warmup. We used Frank Quayle only enough to get him loose. Is Carolina still in the Atlantic Coast Conference?"

Ricky Lanier, Tar Heel quarterback: "Did our pass blocking break down? I don't know, but I didn't lose 75 yards tripping over my own feet. A couple of times I went to sleep back there in passing pocket, but that was after about five Virginia linemen knocked me out. No. Lloyd's of London will not insure me."

Carolina assistant coaches: "We don't like what's been going on around here. Coach Dooley has been taking blame for the losses, and he lost that Virginia game about as much as Spiro Agnew won the election for the Republicans. What we need around here is about 40 new players. The greatest yo-yo twirler in the world can't win when the string is broken."

Duke Coach Tom Harp: "We don't lack punch in the clutch. Sure we couldn't score twice from State's one-foot line, but the Wolfpack is one of the nation's best defensive teams. And I've always said football is a game of inches. The measuring stick beat us."

Florida's Ray Graves: "Is there a Dooley jinx? 1 don't think so. Vince's Georgia team beat us 51-0 and Bill knocked us off up at North Carolina several weeks ago, but you gotta remember we also lost to Auburn and got tied by Vanderbilt. The only jinx is this damn football team of mine. By the way, when does the next bus leave town? I heard the alumni are waiting on my doorstep, and it's not my birthday."

Texas tailback Chris Gilbert, who rushed for 212 yards against Baylor for 3,086 career yards: "Who are Simpson and Keyes? They couldn't carry my suitcase."

Southern Cal's O.J. Simpson, who gained 166 yards against tough California: "I thought Chris Gilbert was a movie star. You say he plays for Texas? Well I hope he runs faster than he talks. Man the only thing that tries to tackle down there is a rattlesnake." Wake Coach Bill Tate: "Where did that Tommy Suggs come from? I know South Carolina goes in for small players, but I didn't figure on seeing a midget quarterback. Yeah we have up four touchdown passes, but our defensive backs couldn't see the ball until their receivers caught it. That Suggs throws from a hole somewhere down in the ground." Nebraska's Bob Devaney: "Get outa here. When I'm foe, the elements. going to the Orange Bowl and the Sugar Bowl, you writers never come around. You're always talking about Notre Dame or Alabama. Now when I lose to Kansas State you're asking all these questions. Yes I am aware it was the first conference win for State since 1964. I'm also aware you better leave before I bring Bob Brown in from Philly to feed you a knuckle sandwich." Bob Ward, Maryland coach: "The officials blew it. We had Clemson beat and those jailbirds on the sidelines robbed us. We would be undefeated if this league had some decent refs. So we only got six yards rushing, so what? Southern Cal beat Oregon when Simpson only gained 67." Iowa halfback Eddie Podolak: "I have to be the world's greatest runner. I gained 286 yards and only carried the ball 17 times. Besides I have the worst blocking in the country, and Northwestern's line is the best in the Big Ten. 1 broke the Big Ten rushing record you say? Clinton Jones had it huh? Well when I make the pros, I'll do better than run second string for the Minnesota Vikings. And you can quote me on this: we'll beat Ohio State next week by three touchdowns. After all we clobbered Northwestern 68-34." Tennessee Coach Doug Dickey: "Auburn has the best team in the country. Our one yard total rushing offense wasn't so bad when you consider Miami got minus 85 against them two weeks ago. We ought to be number (Continued on page 5)
