State Edges Cold Frosh, 59-54

By CHRIS COBBS DTH Sports Writer

Raleigh-The Carolina freshmen came to Reynolds Coliseum and played before a capacity crowd of 12,400.

The raucous and partisan gathering of N.C. State fans saw the Tar Babies yield to the pedestrian but efficient effort performances from their two of the Wolflets.

yearlings lost the ragged contest, 59-54 and left the unfriendly throngs with a number of impressions they haven't left before anywhere this season. The Tar Babies were elsewhere for the 40, the two plagued by foul trouble, cold shooting (38.8% for the game), and relatively inept difference. Coach Bill Guthridge's UNC Chamberlain and Dennis able to fast break effectively, a Chamberlain hit only 6 of 20 field goals attempts and made but 14 points. Wuycik managed a paltry 4 points, so Carolina was forced to look

The showing was atypical scoring leaders, Bill also in that Carolina never was forwards were averaging in tandem. No one made up the deficiency State's possessive Paul Coder had plenty to do

Coder, the Wolflets' 6-9 center, grabbed 17 rebounds as State won the boards 46-41 and shut off Carolina's

Nor were the visitors, who absorbed their second loss in 12 games, able to force mistakes and turn them into easy layups, as they had in themselves connected on a mere 30.2% of their floor tries. He was followed by guard Ed Leftwich with 22. UNC suffered as Wuycik and center Craig Corson fouled out. Guard Steve Previs and Chamberlain were also on the verge of being asked to take

Coder, with 25 points, paced the State gunners, who previous wins.

their seats, too, for most of the second half. The Tar Babies, trailing 31-28 at the half, and lagging most of the final period, needed all-out efforts but the foul difficulties were distracting.

Saturday.

Carolina substitute Billy Chambers scored six times and his enthusiasm nearly compensated for the multitude of UNC shortcomings that appeared to Guthridge's chagrin and the sell-out crowd's delight.

By DENNIS BENFIELD

DTH Sports Writer

Earey was quick to add,

"I thought our squad did a though, that his team did as well, if not better than, good job considering the competition," said the big Irishman. "We were pleased with the medley relay and the breaststrokers particularly. The butterfliers also came along

Raleigh showdown not expecting to win, but to get some kind of estimation of the things the Dolphins need to work on for the Atlantic Coast

Conference meet at Wake strong in the backstroke and the sprints," Earey continued.

"On the strength of our relays,

I think we can go ahead and work toward short workouts

"scored as many points as expected," but they couldn't score a first place until David

Bedell captured the 200-yard

We Are Open

7 DAYS PER WEEK

9:00 a.m. till 11:30 p.m.

The Ivy Room

Against State the Dolphins and long rests."

"I think the meet showed us

Earey's squad went into the

Charlie Scott pulls in another rebound. - DTH Staff Photo by Tom Schnabel

Carolina Tracksters Top 3 Rivals In Weekend Meet, 60-40-19-13

By CHRIS COBBS DTH Sports Writer

Carolina won seven of 12 events in a quadrangular track meet in the Tin Can Saturday, and Tar Heel John Jessup added nine inches to the school shot put record he set a week

South Carolina fell short of expectations and had 40 while Duke trailed with 19 points and N.C. State finished last with 13.

Jessup's toss of 53 feet, 113/4

Tar Heels Still Safely In Second

New York (UPI)-Points

Teams 1. UCLA (35) (18-0) 2. North Carolina (17-1) 300 3. Santa Clara (20-0) 4. Kentucky (16-2) 5. Davidson (18-2) 159 6. St. John's (NY) (16-3) 129 7. LaSalle (18-1) 124 8. Purdue (13-3) 83 9. Illinois (14-2) 63 53 10. Villanova (16-3) 49 11. Tulsa (18-2) 12. Kansas (17-4) 38 13. Colorado (16-3) 14. New Mexico (13-7) 15. Duquesne (14-2) 16. (tie) Wyoming (14-5) Louisville (14-3) 18. (tie) Columbia (15-3) South Carolina (14-3)

Others receiving points: Dayton, Tennessee, Arizona, Colorado State and Marquette.

20. (tie) Notre Dame (15-4) 4

Boston College (15-3)

inches in the day's first competition got Carolina started. None of coach Joe Hilton's squad was a double winner-only South Carolina's Dave Smith took two firsts-indicating the Tar Heels relied more upon variety than versatility.

Coach Hilton, surprised at UNC totalled 60 points. the relative ease of the win, praised Carolina's team strength. "South Carolina had some injured boys which may have held them back, but so did we. I think our depth is better than last year." senior Tom Wolfe, who won the broad jump.

pleasing," the head trackster noted. "But he's going to get even better this year." Right now Jessup is like the young Hercules finding out the pillars supporting buildings are nothing for him to lean against. Jessup is finding out his own strength.

sophomore says he gets more out of his powerful anatomy He singled out Jessup and by relaxing. "It helps my form not to be tense," Jessup explained. The flaws fall away "John's progress is naturally like buildings when he is at ease, and the records come, two of them in the last two

All this winning bolsters the modest short putter's confidence which also helps him to relax. The combination of Jessup's maturing physique and composed mental attitude The soundly structured will end, he hopes, in a toss of 55 feet before the indoor season ends.

> After that he can go outside to pull up trees by the roots and throw the shot farther than anyone in Atlantic Coast Conference cares to contemplate.

The case of Wolfe, who doesn't look homeward to angels but who looks heavenly to Coach Hilton 23 feet or so out in the broad jump pit, is a case of rapid development, too.

"Tom is a junior college transfer from Brevard," Hilton said. "He worked a lot last summer, improving his strength and speed, and he's now a winner. I was prouder of Tom Saturday than anyone else on the team."

Hilton also cited Kenny Helms for winning the mile and Terry Sellers for taking the 440 and anchoring the victorious mile relay team.

Freshman Mike Canzonieri sprinted the 60 in 6.4 for another Carolina first.

A final winner in blue and white was pole vaulter Rick Wilson, who soared 14-6 to annex the top spot ahead of teammate Heith Hicks. Carolina swept all four point-making places in the butterfly in the seventh event. The Dolphins grabbed only one other first place, the "They were every bit as 400-yard freestyle relay. good as we thought they Bob Birnbrauer was the big were," said Carolina swimming scorer for the Wolfpack with coach Pat Earey of the N.C. firsts in the 200-yard freestyle State team which drowned his and the 500-yard freestyle. Dolphins, 72-41, in Raleigh

Frank McElroy, Charles Humphrey, and Bruce Wigo showed noticeable respective events.

McElroy swam his best time of the season and finished with second places in the 500-yard freestyle and the 1000-yard freestyle. Humphrey grabbed a second and a third in the diving events, while Wigo contributed heavily in the relays and

Concerning a hopeful surge by the end of the month, Earey said, "I think the

(over Sutton's Drug)

conditioning is there-it's just a question of speed." The ACC meet determines

Dolphins Aim For ACC Match

the conference champion, and Earey believes there is no doubt State will win going away. Second place, however, seems to be a logiam with South Carolina, Maryland and

The Dolphins, 5-1 in ACC improvement in their competition and 6-4 overall, do not appear to be more than dark horses for the league title. Even second place, with pressure from the Terps and Gamecocks, is by no means assured.

> The victory Saturday was State's seventh against one loss, and the Wolfpack is unbeaten in the league with a 5-0 mark. It was State's 24th in a row inside the conference.

> > You

Bought

Valentines?

Have

Your

UNC takes on East Carolina

everything we've got to beat them this year," says Earey of the ECU meet.

University's "best team in years" in the last meet before the championships on

"It'll probably take

February 27.

Our Affluent Readers Spend Up to $2.00 per Week on Books

You don't have to be a millionaire to read like a king - not when you do your browsing in The Old Book Corner.

There's a shelf on newsstand paperbacks at fifteen cents, another of hardbacked novels at nineteen cents, plus two cases of non-fiction at 58c and 97c.

The Old Book Corner

in the INTIMATE BOOKSHOP 119 East Franklin St. Open Evenings

Matmen Get Blitzed At VPI Match

... Broke School Record For Second Straight Week

Carolina Shot Putter John Jessup

By RUSTY CARTER DTH Sports Writer

It was a sad weekend in Blacksburg, Va. for Coach Sam Barnes' wrestlers.

came out on the short end each fourth out of four teams in the tournament losing to Old Dominion, Virginia Tech and Ohio State while the freshmen six points again. This time lost a close preliminary bout 29-6. 16-12 to VPI.

three more attempts. They won over UNC, Ohio State and matches and lost one and VPI beat only the Heels.

the UNC grapplers moved their record to 2-8.

"We fought furiously but we were just outhorsed again," Coach Barnes said. "We started Ohio State and his condition is off with Old Dominion, who was definitely the best team, and from there on it was downhill for us." Carver Rudolph, wrestling at 167, was the only double They fought four bouts and winner for the Heels with a win against VPI and Ohio State. Knox Tate scored the only The varsity matmen finished other win in the VPI match as the UNC matmen fell 25-6. Tom Guthrie at 130 decisioned his Ohio State foe to give UNC

Bob Hoke at 137 and Keith Old Dominion went into the Lyons at 160 each won over meet with a clean slate and did Old Dominion and Tate scored not marr their record after a draw. The Heels lost to the winning OD matmen 20-8.

The team suffered two injuries in the match that Ohio State won two might hurt them in the up coming meets.

Hoke sprained an ankle in The three quick losses for the VPI match and had to forfeit. Rich Dana, a freshman, was called from the stands to wrestle the final bout. Tate sprained a knee against

"Hoke should be back for this weekend's bouts," Barnes noted, "and if he isn't we can substitute at his weight.

the only heavyweight we have John Parsons, at 177.

so we are hoping Mr. Lacey (trainer) can pull a miracle on him," he added.

The freshmen had four winners in their narrow loss with Jim Powell winning at 130; Rick Dana, at 137; "Tate on the other hand is George Crawford, at 145; and

Try Our Hickory Smoked BEEF BARBECUE Cosmopolitan Room Chicken in the Rough Steaks - Salads DELICATESSEN F(a bite of New York)
Sandwiches — Beer 1004 W. Main St. Durahm, N. C.

menor of HAPPY HOUR

Today (Free Juke) (Today Only)

Friday 2-5 Shorts 25c

menerose.

BLAST into Spring! LIVE MUSIC EVERY NIGHT!

FRIDAY

AUGUST

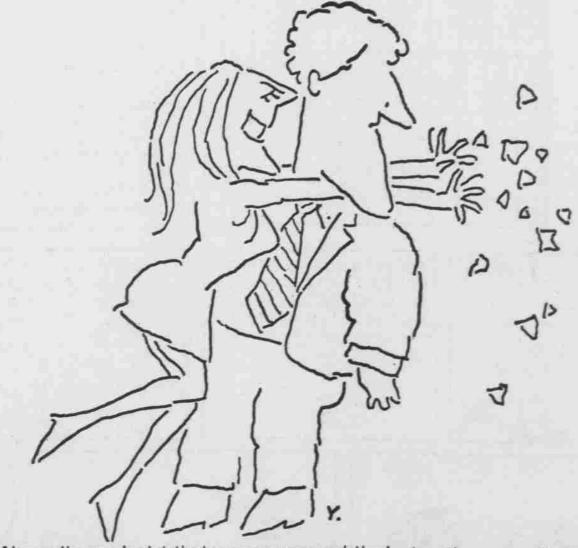

CHASE CAFETERIA

Tonight thru Thursday Night The COUNTS IV

> SLITHY TOVES SATURDAY

Rip up our instructions on self-defense. After all, it's Valentine's Day.

Normally, we insist that every man read the instructions on selfdefense that we put in every package of Hai Karate® After Shave and Cologne. But we've got a heart. So on Valentine's Day, we'd like every woman to tear our instructions to shreds. That way you can give your guy Hai Karate, with some instructions of your own.

Hai Karate-be careful how you use it.

©1969 Leeming Division, Chas. Pfizer & Co., Inc., New York, N.Y.

