interpreted as a strike.

vesterday.

quit after about 30 minutes.

There will be a compulsory neeting for all candidates for executive, legislative, and udicial offices Thursday at 5 p.m. in 202-4 of the student

Founded February 23, 1893,

Attorney, Morgan To Meet

By MIKE COZZA D'TH Staff Writer

Charlotte Attorney Adam Stein, representing the striking UNC Non-Academic Employees Union, will meet with members of the state Attorney General's office this morning in Raleigh.

Stein is a partner in the Charlotte-based law firm of Chambers, Stein, Ferguson, and Lanning, which has been retained by the workers to deal with their grievances against the University.

Stein told the DTH late Monday that the exact topics for discussion at this morning's meeting were "unclear" to him. He also said he was not sure whether he would meet with state Attorney General Robert Morgan, or with Assistant Attorney General Ralph Moody.

Information that Stein's firm had been retained by the Union was transmitted to Chancellor Sitterson in a telegram Sunday night.

The telegram, which was signed by attorney Julius L. Chambers, called to the Chancellor's attention two grievances which, in the firm's opinion, "are violations of federal law." The Chancellor referred the telegram to the Attorney General's office Monday.

The telegram charged that "the university has failed to comply with the Minimum Wage and Overtime provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1966," because "no member of the union has ever been paid the statutory minimum for overtime work."

It further charged that each worker is therefore entitled to "unpaid wages plus an equal amount as liquidated damages," or double the regular time-and-a-half, according to Title 29, U.S. Code No. 216.

The telegram further charges Trustees." that "members of the Union have been discriminated against with respect to compensation, terms, conditions and privileges of employment, and have been denied employment opportunities because of their race and color ..." This, the telegram charged, was in violation of "the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution . . . and the Civil Rights act of 1866, Title 42. United States Code, Section 1891."

Stein came to Chapel Hill Monday morning to discuss the possibility of speeding up negotiations.

He met with Assistant to the Chancellor Claiborne Jones early Monday afternoon, chairman of the temporary Results of the meeting were negotiating committee, told unavailable. Stein would say association members that the only that he had discussed with full results of action taken by Jones the possibility of setting the University would be up negotiations before those announced the first week in now scheduled for 10 a.m. April. Wednesday. Jones had no

DTH Photo by Tom Schnabel

Students Demonstrate At South Building ... In Support Of Striking Food Workers

Student Party Tabs Wilson

By MIKE COZZA DTH Staff Writer

nominated Bob Wilson for student body president and Norfleet Pruden for vice-president at its annual convention in Gerrard Hall Sunday night.

The convention chose Wilson, a junior and chairman of the student Audit Board, over Dick Levy, a senior who ran for president last year as an independent, Pruden was unopposed for the second spot after Mike Zimmerman, a senior who had hoped to run with Levy, withdrew after Levy's defeat.

Before the convention made its choice, each nominee was allowed time for a speech and a question-answer period.

Wilson, who was nominated by Student Legislator George Hearn, told the party members that "the time has come to

The Student Party 18 year olds, and that if demands. elected he would place high

> Wilson also said he was in favor of all demands made by striking cafeteria workers, with the possible exception of the $1.80 per hour base pay. He said the presence of highway patrolmen on campus increased the possibility of violence.

affairs program.

Levy, who was nominated by Patty Jenkins as "a leader who was ahead of his times" in supporting the residence college program, a student book co-op, and in urging better treatment for non-academic employees, told the convention that "The University Party had sealed its doom by nominating Alan Albright for president.

"Unless we are careful here tonight," Levy said, it may have students on the Board of well mean the death of the UP. the SP, and Student

Wilson said that Student Government." Levy said he elected. Government should play a part was "totally, 100 percent in in urging the right to vote for favor of all cafeteria workers'

After the question-answer priority on an effective state period, 70 or so party members at the convention chose Wilson by a wide margin.

> Mike Zimmerman, who was nominated for vice-president by Levy, withdrew his name from consideration saving that "Student Government had the not so novel opportunity this year to be more than a

"We could have been the whole process," Zimmerman said, "yet with thoughts so limited, we have spun out mere words while leaving actions to

After Zimmerman withdrew, Pruden charged that student legislature "for too long has been controlled by a small group of politicians with little regard for the student body." He said he would change that if

Grads Vow To Strike If Demands Not Met

By WAYNE HURDER DTH Editor

Students, a group instructors sympathetic to food service workers' demands, voted Sunday night to go on strike Wednesday if the workers' demands aren't met by then, despite a warning Sunday by University President William Friday that faculty members and graduate instructors will have their contracts terminated if they campus. strike.

Chancellor J. Carlyle heads have told their graduate 4 p.m. in Hill Hall to talk about the dispute with the Sitterson will address a general meeting of the faculty today at members that any failure to workers.

"I'm an unlikely candidate, Pruden said. "Although I served briefly in the legislature. I'm not a politician.

"When I announced my candidacy, a friend said he was surprised, because politicians are shady characters. I'm running to change that image," Pruden said.

He was proclaimed the party's choice without opposition.

Student Party Chairman Bruce Morris announced that the SP convention to nominate candidates for secretary, Chairman of the Carolina Athletic Association, NSA and student legislature, would be held Tuesday night at 7:30 in Gerrard Hall.

A special meeting of Franklin St. About 350 approximately 145 faculty persons lined the street in front members on Friday had voted of the churches in an effort to University has always tried to Concerned Graduate to reschedule their classes after attract the support of Tuesday if Sitterson, by then, churchgoers. had not given them a State Personnel Director > the dispute with the workers classification specialists began not always been the case." had not been settled and why talking with employees today the outside police forces were about the work they have to still on campus. do in an effort to find out By "reschedule," the faculty whether the workers had been had meant they planned to properly classified. either postpone classes until a One of the workers' later day or hold them off grievances had been that many of them were required to do However, some department work that should come under other job classifications with workers themselves. instructors and faculty higher pay.

Caldwell met in Gerrard Hall with about 20 workers who are meet their classes as scheduled in the proper places might be still working and then became one of the first persons in the The Concerned Graduate administration or the state Students had originally called government to pay a visit to for a "rescheduling" of classes the workers on their home but changed this to call for a ground when he went to "strike" on Sunday after many Manning to talk to officers of of them had been told by their the workers' union about the department heads that classification study.

rescheduling was the same as Caldwell told the workers Adam Stein, a Charlotte department could finish the lawver of the firm Chambers, study would be two weeks. He Stein, Ferguson and Lanning, told them he had seven of the met with Claiborne Jones, 10 job classification specialists special assistant to the in the State Personnel Chancellor, for about 30 Department working on the minutes around noon study and would work them on Saturdays and Sundays.

He also told them they Monday morning, about 9 o'clock, a group of would work directly with the approximately 50 black and workers to get the information white students disrupted they need rather than with the activities in Saunders and supervisors, as is usually the Murphy Halls as they went case with such studies, because through the buildings chanting of the hostility between the and banging on doors. They two.

Sitterson addressed the At noon about 300 students employees that came to circled South Building in a Gerrard Hall in order, he said, "to express to you my deep A vigil was also held Sunday personal concern for the from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. on well-being of every employee of the University." He told them that the treat its employees with respect and fairness, but added that "in cases brought to my satisfactory reason as to why Claude Caldwell and seven job attention I know that this has

> The resolution passed by the Concerned Graduate Students stated: "Concerned Graduate Students will be on strike Wednesday, March 12, unless the demands of the workers (Food Service employees) have been met to the workers' satisfaction as expressed by the

The grad students held a meeting late Sunday night at which they agreed to the statement. Earlier in the day 43 out of 75 grad students in the sociology department had voted to go on strike beginning vesterday with a picket line around Alumni Building.

However, when the rest of the grad students appeared reluctant to go out until that probably the soonest his students changed the date of their strike for the sake of solidarity.

Friday's statement, released Sunday evening, stated that "For instructors who are active candidates for graduate degrees, a willful and deliberate failure to meet assigned responsibilities constitutes neglect of duty and breach of the contractual relationship between the individual and the University sufficient to warrant termination of compensation.

"For all other academic ersonnel, the regulations of the Board of Trustees provide an orderly procedure for dealing with individuals who may be charged with '... misconduct of such a nature as to indicate that the faculty member is unfit to continue as a member of the faculty, incompetence, and neglect of duty.' That procedure provides for notice of the charges and a right to a full hearing before any final action concerning the status of the individual is determined."

The statement ends with a warning that "we want to make it clear that these policies will be carried out" and is signed by Friday and the four chancellors of the University.

About 20 of the faculty who were present at the Friday faculty meeting met on Sunday and drew up a list of questions they want Sitterson to answer today at his speech in Hill Hall. They also stated that "there will be a meeting to discuss the Chancellor's replies to these questions and their implications for further action in Gerrard Hall one hour after the adjournment of the general faculty meeting."

The questions center on the negotiations that are to take place between the workers and the management, on the supervisors of the Food Service, on police presence on campus, and on University News Bureau coverage of the strike.

Nineteen Law School faculty members, headed by (Continued on page 6)

Overtime Wages Only Janitor's Demand Left

By HARRY BRYAN

Association met Monday night association and the University in the Odd Fellows' Hall in is about overtime wages. Carrboro to discuss progress McCrimmon said that the made on the list of 13 association has hired a lawyer grievances and demands made in its attempt to force the to Director of Personnel Fred University to pay janitors and Haskell two weeks ago.

The University is working out plans for meeting the

DTH Staff Writer

Roscoe McCrimmon.

Orientation Interviews To Be Held Tonight

of a new orientation program for the success of the program will be held in the lobbies of individual residence college dorms beginning tonight.

Interviews begin at 7 p.m. in Ehringhaus. They will then move to Morrison at 8 p.m. and James at 9 p.m. Interviews in each dorm of Scott Residence College will begin at 10 p.m.

The schedule for Wednesday night calls for interviews in King Residence College at 7, Morehead at 8 and Granville at

According to Richie Leonard, orientation for the incoming freshmen next year will have a new approach. These will be more leeway in choosing and training the counselors and in forming groups for orientation.

Leonard said the program is being changed "rather

Interviews for coordinators A great deal of responsibility coordinators who will be selected after the interviews tonight and Wednesday night.

> Interviews for endorsement of candidates for the Men's Court and Women's Court will held Tuesday and Wednesday, March 11 and 12, in room 261B of the Carolina

There are open seats in Women's District I (off campus and sororities 2 seats), Woman's District V (East and West Cobb) and Women's District VI (Connor, Joyner, and Parker.) There are also seats in Men's Districts: 1 (outside Chapel Hill); III (West Chapel Hill-2 seats); IV (East Chapel Hill); VI (Upper Quad); VIII (Scott College); IX radically" and will employ a (Ehringhaus); XI (Morrison); and XIII (James).

demands, and some have date back to 1967. already been met.

The only disagreement that The UNC Workers' still exists between the the association.

Photo by Schnabel Scott For Two!!

... In Duke Victory

maids for overtime wages that McCrimmon also reported that the association is still trying to increase its membership. He is hopeful that the cafeteria employees, as well as hospital personnel, will join

"Instead of having to split, we need to join together," McCrimmon said.

McCrimmon stated that he thought the cafeteria workers might have encountered more success if they had joined the association before they struck. "From the reports I get, they would have been more successful," McCrimmon said. "They didn't start organizing until after they struck. "We organized before we did anything. I recruited the ianitors, the maids, the hospital

help and the cafeteria workers," The first meeting was held March 24, and a temporary negotiating committee of six members-McCrimmon, Douglas McNeil, Henry Wall, George Suggs, Hazel Holland and Mildred Carlton was appointed to submit a list of 13 grievances and demands to Haskell. The committee met with Haskell two days later, and Haskell announced last Wednesday that three of the and that all of the rest, except pay raise, which would have to be taken up with the state legislature, were in the planning stages.

met include putting employee paychecks in envelopes, recognizing the association and its committees as permanent bodies representing the janitors and maids, and that there be no efforts to punish anyone participating in the association.

The three that have been

DTH Photo by Tom Schnabel

The 1969 Atlantic Coast Conference Champions ... Carolina's Tar Heels With Tournament Victory Trophy

The real John Kelly is working with the

pictured at right. He is a candidate for the presidency of the UNC student body. ("And a serious candidate." he adds.)

On Saturday The Daily Tar Heel ran a story of Kelly's announcement for the office. demands had already been met It also included a picture of someone who isn't Kelly. The for the janitors' demand for a Tar Heel regrets its error and offers this picture of the real Kelly in today's issue.

> Beaumont, Texas. He is a student legislator from MD III and currently serves as chairman of the student legislatore Rules Committee.

> He has defined his concept of the presidency as "not so administration for students, but rather to help students do what they want, get what they want and in general provide them access to everything they need to get involved."

"I think the structure of student government is a problem," Kelly added. "A promise for new leadership is hollow. I want to change the office of the presidency. I don't think the president Kelly is a junior from should stand between the administration and the students, but on the side of the

"The president should not he the judge and jury of student needs and ideas but much a job of representing should do everything to help students, initiating change or them accomplish what they

Kelly Offers New Concept

Commenting on a recent statement by University Party candidate Alan Albright seeking the dismissal of Food Service Director George Prillaman, Kelly said,

"Although I may agree that Prillaman should be fired, I think it's useless for Albright to call for his dismissal. The administration is not going to jump at any student's word to fire one of its members, Albright is offering no solution to the problem."

Kelly also reflected on the platform of Student Party Candidate Bob Wilson: "Though I believe state affairs and public relations of the University to be very important, I don't think it should be the major concern of the president, His concern lies with student needs."

KELLY