

Riots May Make Anarchy Imminent, Says Commission

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A narrow majority of the National Violence Commission declared today the United States faces anarchy if civil disobedience continues on the scale practiced by the civil rights movement in the 1960s.

The all-white, seven member majority urged that laws be tested only small symbolic groups or individuals and that all others abide by them until they are declared unconstitutional. They were represented by a Houston lawyer, Leon Jaworski, as spokesman at a news conference.

The six-member minority, including the only two Negroes on the presidential panel, disagreed that nonviolent, noncoercive disobedience to law should not be used to test the laws or to dramatize individual conscientious objection.

U.S. District Court Judge A. Higginbotham, a Philadelphia Negro speaking for the minority, said, "I do not believe the Voting Rights Act of 1965 would ever have been passed if we had gone on a test case basis."

Higginbotham, vice chairman of the commission, was joined in the minority by Chairman Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower, Negro lawyer Patricia Harris, Cardinal Terence Cooke of New York, Dr. W. Walter Menniger of the Topeka, Kan., clinic, and Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., whose wife recently was arrested for a Pentagon demonstration.

The majority suggested: "That when in good faith the constitutionality of a statute, ordinance or a court decree is to be challenged, it can be done effectively by one individual or a small group. While the judicial test is in progress, all other dissenters should abide by the law involved until it is declared unconstitutional."

The majority asserted: "If personal or group selectivity of laws to be obeyed is to be the yardstick, we shall face nationwide disobedience of many laws and thus anarchy."

Joining Jaworski in the majority report were Sen. Roman Hruska, R-Neb., Rep. Hale Boggs, D-La., Rep. William M. McCulloch, R-Ohio, longshoreman-philosopher Eric Hoffer of San Francisco, Chicago lawyer Albert E. Janner Jr., and Judge Ernest W. McFarland of Arizona.

Higginbotham contended in a minority statement that recent advances in civil rights "have not come about—and could never have come about—solely through judicial tests made by 'one individual' while all others in the silent black majority waited for the ultimate constitutional determination."

Jailed Sirhan Says He's Hunger-Striking

SAN QUENTIN, Calif. (UPI)—Sirhan B. Sirhan, condemned assassin of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, is on a hunger strike in his death row cell at San Quentin State Prison.

Prison officials announced the development today as Sirhan completed more than 6 months awaiting the outcome of appeals on his conviction and sentencing last May 21.

Sirhan has spent the time in lonely isolation in cell 33, a stark concrete and steel enclosure on the prison's sixth floor, between two empty cells. Two mesh steel screens barricade the cell block corridor 15 feet away.

Sirhan was found guilty of first-degree murder in the shooting of Kennedy June 5, 1968, at the Ambassador Hotel in Los Angeles.

No execution date has been set, pending automatic review and appeal procedures which are expected to take at least another six months.

Warden Louis Nelson said Sirhan began refusing his food Friday after sending him a note saying, "This place is worse than a concentration camp. I'm going on a hunger strike."

Black Gets Ga. Post From Maddox

ATLANTA (UPI)—Gov. Lester Maddox made the first appointment of a Negro to a major state board in Georgia history Monday by naming entertainer Graham Jackson of Atlanta to the Board of Corrections.

Jackson, 66, who played "command" musical performances for several presidents and was a favorite of the late President F. Delano Roosevelt, replaces Stetson Bennett of Jessup on the board for the coming five years.

Maddox described his appointee who will be sworn in to office Wednesday as "a man of compassion and a man who because of his prominence in the entertainment world has contributed greatly to the uplifting of the morals of all people."

Maddox noted that "even though 60 per cent of all the people concerned in the state penal institutions are Negroes, there has never been a Negro appointed to this important board."

"I believe that Mr. Jackson will help the board and the department of corrections to continue the prison reform that has been so prominent in the Maddox Administration."

Maddox said he had known Jackson for many years as a "person concerned about his fellow man."

Appropriations Studied By DTH Finance Group

Student Legislator Bill Blue, chairman of the legislature's special committee looking into the financing of the Daily Tar Heel, has announced that his committee has begun its investigation.

"We're looking at the appropriations over the past years," said Blue, "and how they've been used, and we're checking the overall financial records of the Tar Heel."

"We're not out to get the Tar Heel, though," he added.

The investigation arose from student complaints that the Tar Heel should finance itself instead of having its funds taken from student fees.

"The students went to the legislature, the source of the funds," Blue said, "rather than going to civil authorities."

The committee will give its opinion to the legislature as to whether the paper should receive its funds from the students or from subscriptions made on a voluntary basis.

Blue also said, "We'll see, too, whether Student Legislature should give any money at all to a newspaper that takes an editorial position."

"Some students feel that they should not be forced to support the Tar Heel if they do not agree with its views."

The committee will present its report before Feb. 5, the date of the first legislative session of the second semester.
