

400 N. C. Actors To Participate Drama Festival Slated Here

More than 400 dramatists from high school, college and community theatres throughout the state will attend the 47th annual State Drama Festival Thursday-Saturday, March 19-21, at UNC.

Thirty theatre groups will present plays in the festival. These productions were selected from 65 productions in the four district festivals held in Elizabeth City, Charlotte, Buies Creek and Cullowhee.

Only productions which received a distinguished rating at the district festivals are invited to the state festival. The three ratings are "distinguished," "excellent" and "creditable."

Hosted by the Bureau of Community Drama of the UNC Extension Division and the Carolina Playmakers, the annual Carolina Dramatic Association Festival will award certificates for outstanding play productions, playwriting, acting and theatre arts and crafts.

Nineteen original plays were submitted this year, according to Clark M. Rogers, executive secretary of the Carolina Dramatic Association. A committee of reading judges selected six for presentation at the state festival.

Groups participating in this year's festival will come from Hendersonville, Greensboro, Skyland, Chapel Hill, Asheville, Durham, Washington, Cary, Kinston, Charlotte, Elizabeth City, Morehead City, Rocky Mount, Pineville, Reidsville, Murfreesboro and Raleigh.

President of the Carolina Dramatic Association is Oran K. Perry of Grainger High School in Kinston; vice president is Eleanor Ponder of T.C. Roberson High School in Skyland.

More than nine different awards will be presented at the Awards ceremony at 9:30 p.m. Saturday, March 21, in the Playmakers Theatre. Outstanding among these are the Frederick H. Koch Award and the John W. Parker Award. The Koch Award is presented to a North Carolinian who has rendered distinguished service in theatre arts of a period of years. The Parker Award goes to a current member of the Association who has given outstanding service in recent years.

The one-act plays will begin with an afternoon session at 3 p.m. Thursday, March 19. The evening program will start at 7 p.m. Friday, March 20; Saturday, March 21, plays will be presented at 9:30 a.m., 2 p.m. and 7 p.m. All plays will be presented in the Playmakers Theatre on the UNC campus. Tickets are on sale at Graham Memorial.

The Theatre Arts Exhibit and Tea will be held at 5 p.m. Saturday in the main lounge of Graham Memorial.

Police officer searches for bomb

Dey Hall Classes Halted In Monday Bomb Scare

Classes in Dey Hall were called off for one hour Monday after a bomb scare in the building.

Campus policeman William Bowden said he answered the call at around 12:45 p.m. He said the caller told him, "There is a bomb going to go off in Dey Hall."

Bowden said he tried to hold the caller on the line but couldn't.

Six campus policeman searched the building for an hour and found no traces of a bomb.

Classes were resumed at 2 p.m.

Bowden said the caller's voice sounded like that of "a young man between the ages of 18 and 20."

"We thought this sort of thing went out with panty raids," Campus Security Police Chief Arthur Beaumont said. "It's happened before here, usually when quizzes were scheduled."

Another candidate has offered Daughtry an appointed position on condition that Daughtry withdraw and endorse him.

But that's the way it's always been done. Petty isn't it?

A Statement By Steve Enfield & Dennis Benfield

Monday morning a statement of our platform and an endorsement sheet was circulated throughout campus. Several of the persons whose names were included on this list had indicated to us at one time or another that they supported our candidacy. However, we wish to make it abundantly clear that no person on the sheet actually signed it. We wish to retract fully ALL names on the list and apologize with all sincerity to any persons who may have been offended by a public endorsement of our candidacy.

We wish to offer a special apology to Miss Margot Fletcher for using her name publicly without her permission. Our use of these names was IRRESPONSIBLE JOURNALISM.

The names of the Pub Board members were not included with any intent to do harm, politically or other wise, rather to inform voters of the people responsible for endorsing DTH candidates.
