The Wait For Tom Tests Suitors, Fans

VW SERVICE SPECIAL

$9.95

adjust valves

test compression

lubricate chassis

change oil & clean filter

clean & replace spark plugs clean & replace the points

cleon air filter

adjust timing & carburetor

road test and report any additional repair

consider the possibilities

ROBERT CULP

NATALIE WOOD

concerning his future are four or five other teams still growing as lengthy-and as reportedly in the running, pregnant with possibilities-as hastened to McMillen's side Tom McMillen's highly coveted Wednesday, presumbably to six-foot, eleven-inch body.

Amid speculation that his mind. traditional basketball powers McMillen postponed a press conference scheduled for Wednesday night in Elmira, N.Y.

This marked the second occasion on which the Mansfield, Pa., high shooler had put off the announcement of his choice of colleges. Carolina Coach Dean Smith, pertaining to his decision.

The deliberations along with representatives of remain there until he makes up Front page accounts of the Kentucky and UCLA had come wheeling and dealing appeared into contention for his services, in North Carolina dailies as reader interest intensified. No player had entered the college game with so much fanfare since Lew Alcindor, four years

> McMillen had the small consolation, as the pressure mounted, of not having to listen to all the rumors

Dorn returns shot in match

Tiger Express Slowed As Heels Begin Climb

By Bruce Gurganus Sports Writer

Two college tennis teams demolishing his number six met Wednesday on the Varsity Courts in Chapel Hill. According to the monograms represented "Carolina Tennis."

ATTED & APPENDING

LETED & APPENDING

LETED & APPENDING

LETED & APPENDING

CAROL & TED & APPENDING

CAROL & TED & was over, the Tar Heels of North Carolina had handed the

ICE BOB & CAROL & TED & TO OVER Weissen

Weisser.

South Carolina's 5-4 win over the Heels in 1968 is the only home loss in the last three years for the UNC netters.

The four seniors on the Carolina team played in that loss so the revenge was sweet indeed.

At the number two position freshman Freddy McNair got off to one of his poorest starts of the season as he struggled to a 7-5 win in the first set over Kevin McCarthy. McNair regained his usual composure with a 6-0 win in the second set.

Playing on the third court Joe Dorn fell into a two game

Joe Dorn fell into a two game losing streak as he was upset by Bill Austin by 6-4 and 7-5 scores. Austin beat Dorn at his own game, which is consistency, a thing few of Dorn's opponents have been Lassiter who took a 6-3, 6-1 victory over Barry Altman. Lassiter has been completely opponents all year. The doubles action went according to Tar Heel plans as on their shirts both teams Dorn and McNair are continuing to prove their supremecy among ACC But before the afternoon competition. They teamed for an easy win over Weisser and Austin 6-2, 6-1.

The convincing win was the thirteenth of the season for the undefeated netters of Coached by former ACC singles coached by former ACC singles champion Bobby Hezld.

As usual, senior captain Lee Langstroth began the grudge-match with a 6-4, 6-2 over a much improved.

Weisser.

In the number three a action Corn and Rawling still looking for some ware competition as they ead disposed of McCarthy and Kamm 6-1 and 6-0. Langstroth and freshman Forrest Simmons were extended to three sets in their number two win over Hansen and Ray Cowan.

The Heels to the number three a action Corn and Rawling still looking for some ware competition as they ead disposed of McCarthy and Kamm 6-1 and 6-0. Langstroth and freshman Forrest Simmons were extended to three sets in their number two win over Hansen and Ray Cowan.

The Heels to the number three a action Corn and Rawling still looking for some ware competition as they ead disposed of McCarthy and the grade provided to three sets in their number two win over Hansen and Ray Cowan.

The Heels to the number three a action Corn and Rawling still looking for some ware competition as they ead disposed of McCarthy and the grade provided to three sets in their number two win over Hansen and Ray Cowan.

The Heels to the form of the season for the thirteenth of the season for th

Finley For Showdown

By Mark Whicker Sports Writer

The charging Carolina golfers, treating unfamiliar golf courses like old friends, beat Clemson 11-10 and Wofford 141/2-61/2 Monday and South Carolina 141/2-91/2 to remain undefeated in the conference and 5-1 overall.

Now Coach Ed Kenney.s Heels prepare for the showdown with Wake Forest at 1:00 Friday afternoon at

Cock Netters Fall

Heels Expose USC Misnomer

By Ken Tilley Sports Writer

Clemson appeared to be staff among the league's best running away with the Atlantic Coast Conference baseball race until arch-rival South Carolina came to town.

The Gamecocks spoiled Clemson's perfect 6-0 record by splitting a doubleheader with the Tigers. Second place Marvland, 3-0 through Monday's games, now moves up on the Clemson team, and will face the Tigers in a crucial match Saturday afternoon.

The rest of the conference teams are no doubt breathing sighs of relief from the knowledge that Coach Bill Wilhelm's Tigers are not invincible.

North Carolina's hopes to move into the first division among conference teams were greatly improved by a 2-1 victory over fourth place Duke. The Tar Heels have risen to sixth place with a 2-3 conference mark.

Carolina versatile first baseman-pitcher Eddie Hill stands high in both conference batting and pitching. The senior co-captain ranks second among ACC batters with a .458 average. Maryland's Dave Sauve, with a .463 average, leads the league and is the only other conference player hitting over the .400 figure.

Hill also leads the league in home runs with four. The Tar Heels' Pres Ruddell, batting .370, was ranked seventh in confernce play, while his three triples tie him for the third Pitching finds Clemson once again in the lead. Dave Van Volkenburg, with a 4-0 record, and Alan Demarest, 3-0, hold the two top spots in the ACC for the Tigers. Three other Clemson hurlers are among the top 20 mound performers.

Ruddell, Tommy Donaldson, be expected to develop and Ron Cox have been the only other Tar Heels to provide including his victory over Duke Tuesday) is fifth in ACC standings. His 1.12 ERA is also fifth in the league.

Carolina could place only one member of its pitching

Nobody should have to think twice about who that player is.

Eddie Hill's 2-0 record (not

A night doubleheader with Wake Forest Saturday could give the Tar Heels a chance to climb higher in the ACC and, depending upon the outcome of the Clemson-Maryland contest, might send Coach Walter Rabb's team back into the race for its second straight conference crown.

But in order to be a threat more than a single win. Larry to the league leaders, someone Kiser (1-3), Greg Pavlick (1-2), must give support to Hill, and Jim Dunlap (1-2) will all stability on the mound if the any consistent offense, while Tar Heels are to fashion no other pitcher has managed winning conference season.

> Designed and made to your order engagement rings wedding bands

137 E. Rosemary St. Next to Old Book Corner

PLEASE PLEASE

WE ARE TRYING TO GET OUR PAST 10 YEARS OF COPY MICROFILMED. IF YOU KNOW WHERE THE 1968-69 BOUND COPIES OF THE DTH ARE-PLEASE DROP THEM BY THE TAR HEEL OFFICE. NO QUESTIONS ASKED.

HELP THE DTH

