Cambodians Use Civilian 'Screen'

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia—Cambodian troops Tuesday used a screen of about 100 Vietnamese civilians—half of them women—to draw Viet Cong fire in the town of Saang, 20 miles south of here. At least five civilians were wounded.

Time-Life photographer Dennis Camerons, who was among several newsmen pinned down by crossfire, said he believed some of the Vietnamese were killed but was unsure since the troops pulled back.

Morning strikes at Saang by two Cambodian T28 fighter-bombers failed to draw fire from the town, occupied since Sunday by Viet Cong.

Manson Follower Gets Death Penalty

LOS ANGELES—The first member of the "Manson Family" to be tried for what the state charges was the opener of eight murders masterminded by the hippie cult leader was ordered Tuesday to die in the gas chamber.

A jury took only two hours and 45 minutes to bring in a death penalty verdict for Robert K. Beausoleil, 22, one of the weird assemblage of young men and women 35-year-old Charles Manson attracted to a sex and drugs commune at an old movie lot outside Los Angeles.

The same jury of seven women and five men Monday had found the baby-faced Beausoleil guilty of first degree murder in the torture slaying of Gary Hinman, a 34-year-old bagpipe musician who once befriended Manson.

Tension Spreads In Colombia

BOGOTA—Colombian paratroopers and anti-guerrilla units fanned out through downtown Bogota Tuesday, and tension spread to other major cities as former dictator Gustavo Rojas Pinilla challenged the presidential victory claim of the rival government candidate.

With the tense capital turned into an armed camp, near-complete official results gave the government candidate, Misael Pastrana Borrero, a 22,490-vote margin over Rojas-Pinilla. A total of nearly 4 million votes were cast.

The government candidate appeared to have won, but Rojas Pinilla refused to concede and charged there had been fraud.

UAW Bargains For Pollution Control

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J.—The 1.8 million-member United Auto Workers (UAW) declared Tuesday it will make development of a pollution-free car engine a bargaining issue in this year's contract talks with the auto industry.

Acting on the eve of Earth Day, more than 3,100 UAW convention delegates adopted a resolution making the union the first to present pollution control as an issue for collective bargaining.

UNC Golfers Stomp State

Carolina's hot golf team, hungrily anticipating a rematch with Davidson here on Thursday, whipped N.C. State 16½-4½ at Finley Monday afternoon.

It was another case of skill overcoming scholarships. Carolina is one of the three ACC teams, along with Duke and Virginia, that doesn't give golf grants, but so far this spring they have knocked off

Wake Forest, Virginia, Clemson and South Carolina—not bad for a team just making do with what shows up.

It was the same story Monday, with three par or lower rounds. Medalist was strong Jack Hooks, who went 34-34-68 for a 3-0 win over Marshall Stewart.

Marty West, the hot man for the Heels with three medals already, sank a five-foot eagle putt on the 18th hole for a 69. First man Bill Boles had a par 72 for a 2½-½ win over Dickie Brewer.

Open Hours

All coeds, including freshmen and guests, will have self-limiting hours for Jubilee, May 1 and 2, according to Stephanie Kodack of the Union Jubilee committee.

Girls coming in after closing hours will be admitted by the security guards. Student identification must be shown.

Female guests must register if they stay in University housing. To be admitted after closing hours, guests must sign in. Signatures will be compared with the register.

The all-campus self-limiting hours are in effect for Friday and Saturday nights only of Jubilee weekend.

The rest of the scores didn't quite match the performance last Friday against Wake, when the combined score of the 12 Tar Heels was two-under-par, but they were more than adequate.

Freshman Tom Byrd carded a 73, Lytton Perritt had a 74, Chip Donahue fired a 75, and John Vanderbloemen came in with 76. All but Vanderbloemen won their matches.

Everyone had bad scores in the 11½-9½ loss to Davidson earlier this month, the only cloud on UNC's record. The match was played away from home in an intermittent rain, and none of the Heels have forgotten it.

Keys Lost

Two sets of keys were lost somewhere on main campus Monday. One is a blue key ring with a University emblem and the other is on a piece of blue wire. If found call 966-2552. Reward offered.

Carolina's undefeated tennis team returned from a weekend swing northward with two more impressive victories, over Princeton and Virginia. The Heels took the Tigers 6-2 and the Cavaliers 9-0 for their 15th win and 9th shutout.

Going into Saturday's contest in Trenton, N.J. both teams were undefeated in the battle for the supremacy of eastern tennis.

Though UNC's Lee Langstroth lost the number one singles match to powerful

Bobby Goeltz 6-1, 6-4 the second through fifth positions went to the Heels. Allen Lassiter was the only other victim as he lost the sixth spot 6-3, 6-4 to Scott Rogers.

At number two fabulous Freddie McNair came back to defeat tough Bill Colson 7-5, 6-2 after being down 5-2 in the first set. Joe Dorn got back on the winning track with a three set win over Rick Weir.

Jimmy Corn and Fred Rawlings both breezed to straight set wins. Corn took Rad Wyche 6-4, 6-2 and Rawlings stormed Mike Shapiro by 6-1, 6-2 scores.

In the doubles action Dorn and McNair defeated one of the top doubles teams in the nation in Goeltz and Colson by remarkable scores of 6-1 and 6-2. The second doubles was called because of darkness after split sets and Rawlings and Corn remained unbeaten with a three set win.

Traveling to Charlottesville on Monday the Heels ran their ACC mark to 4-0 and remained odds on favorites to regain the ACC championship. At Virginia Langstroth regained his touch with a 6-3, 6-4 win over Winters. Lassiter took an extended win from Waterman

6-0, 2-6 and 9-7 at number six. McNair took another three set win as Dorn, Corn, and Rawlings all won in straight sets. Dorn and McNair took Winter and Scheinmen 4-6, 6-1 and 6-2 in the first doubles. Langstroth and Forrest Simmons won at number two 6-4 and 7-5.

Rawlings and Corn were surprisingly prolonged by Kain and Podesta before winning 6-3, 7-9 and 10-8. All conference matches are crucial in determining the seedings and the points for the ACC tournament which will be held in Chapel Hill May 7-9.
