

The Baily Car Teel World News BRIEFS

By United Press International

Amendment To Seat Cambodia Pullout

WASHINGTON-The Senate Foreign Relations Committee Monday approved a toughened amendment to hold President Nixon to his promise of withdrawing U.S. troops from Cambodia by June 30.

Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho, announced the action. He said professor heading the the amendment to the Foreign Military Sales Bill sponsored by himself and Sen. John Sherman Cooper, R-Ky., was changed by the committee in one important respect.

Instead of cutting off funds for keeping U.S. ground troops in Cambodia, the measure now prohibits the retention of any kind of U.S. forces in the country. Church said the change was made to take account of U.S. advisers participating in Naval engagements up the Mekong River.

Young Charges Firing Order Given

WASHINGTON-Sen. Stephen M. Young, D-Ohio, told the Senate Monday that some Kent State University students told him they saw a National Guard lieutenant give an arm command to his men to fire on demonstrating Kent students on May 4.

Young said he planned to turn over signed statements from the students, taken at his home and in his office during the weekend, to federal authorities.

Young said students told him they saw a lieutenant raise his hand above his head, then snap it down sharply as he stood beside a rank of kneeling guardsmen, with their rifles pointed at demonstrators.

National Guard officials in Ohio said they had no indication guardsmen were given any order to fire and indicated they acted spontaneously in self defense.

Vietnamese Boats Land In Cambodia

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia-Elements of a South Vietnamese armada docked at Phnom Penh Monday after a 60-mile trip up the Mekong River which lifted a Communist hold on the waterway. It was the deepest penetration the allies have made into Cambodia from neighboring Vietnam.

Official communiques said four Americans were killed in supporting the thrust by water up the Mekong. The South Vietnamese command said 179 north Vietnamese and Viet Cong were slain in clearing operations along the riverbanks at a cost of 15 South Vietnamese killed and 31 wounded.

Augusta Blacks Riot

AUGUSTA, GA.-Negroes ripped down the Georgia state flag in front of the municipal building, burned it and went on a rampage through parts of the city Monday, overturning cars and tossing bricks and rocks through store windows.

Sporadic gunfire was reported in a Negro section of the city, the war in Southeast Asia" where most of the trouble was apparently centered.

The Negroes were apparently angered by the fatal beating of a pressing hard at home. black youth in the Richmond County jail during the weekend.

Law Resources Go To Strike

For Discussions of Implications of War

By Terry Cheek Staff Writer

The UNC Law School faculty voted Friday to use its resources in the efforts of the student strike.

Dr. Barry Nakell, the law operations, said the move will undergraduates for a professional discussion of legal and related implications of the war, the deaths at Kent State: the limits of dissent and the disruption policy.

"Hopefully," said Nakell, "we will be able to implement!

Continued from page 1

we're going to find COSVN (the North Vietnamese command batallion), what we'll do if we find COSVN, how we will know if we find COSVN or if we'll know if we find COSVN.

"I seriously doubt this move will speed up withdrawal," he continued. "The military already believes that the pullouts are going too Military moves like Cambodia decision, he concluded, "are rather like lighting a match in a house filled with gas. You improve illuminiation considerably, but you soon have other problems.

Dr. Samuel Wells of the history department, a specialist in diplomatic history, said he felt the decision to send troops into Cambodia was a reaction to "the feeling that opponents the administration both at home and abroad have questioned the willingness of the President to use his power" and to the presence of Soviet pilots in the Mideast.

Dr. David Lapkin of the "totally irrational and unjust to spend the money and resources we are allocating to when domestic problems are

Student Body President Tom Bello told students the reason for the strike is "to bring change in America's political system."

"We need as students," hesaid, "the educational input the faculty can provide. We need to keep our protest responsible and non-violent. And we need to go beyond the political demonstrations and proceed now to effective political organization."

As the strike completed its first week on the UNC campus. class attendance stood at about 50 per cent.

The University News Bureau reported attendance to be at 75 percent, but an informal poll by reporters and Strike Steering Committee members showed that attendance, at least in the social science. departments, was well below

ID Policy Set For Opener

Students currently enrolled who will return to Carolina in the fall can use their permanent student economics department said it is identification cards to gain admittance to the Tar Heel football opener with Kentucky here Sept. 12.

Officials of the Athletic Ticket Office have said this plan is necessary because the game will be played before fall make faculty resources the program by Wednesday. We check with their professors to available to law students and hope to be able to continue it make arrangements for strike McLean said many of the as long as possible."

> Anyone who has a topic he would like to see discussed should call the Law School at 933-5106.

Nakell said the law faculty also passed a resolution in full support of the general faculty resolution giving students freedom to miss classes and exams to participate in strike

Reports ranging from "no comment" to "full amnesty" came from various academic departments questioned by the DTH Friday.

Students are urged by all faculty and departments to

The business administration and chemistry departments had "no comment" when called

Classics and geography spokesmen said they support the resolution passed by the general faculty.

The botany department said it supports the resolution-"it's the student's choice."

Anthropology said it supports the resolution and it is up to the instructor to make his own arrangements. The department spokesman stressed there would be no penalization of striking students.

English instructor Andrew teaching assistants are now on strike. "Most are not carrying on 'business as usual'," he said.

McLean also stressed that all students "must" see their instructors for amnesty.

The faculty of the sociology department is in "full support" of the strike and are providing "full amnesty" for students participating in it. A spokesman there said the faculty wants to "rap with students" about recent events and to participate in the liberation classes of the "free comfort, top-sider safety! Men & women's $23.95

IT'S TIME FOR THE RECORD BAR'S 99c BUDGET MONO CLASSIC SALE!!

This Sale Includes These Labels:

allegro	crossroads	music guild
artia	desto	nonsuch
audio-fidelity	dover	parliament
baroque	everest	pirouette
belcanto	everyman	turnabout
cambridge	hadyn society	urania
candide	helidore	vox
concert disc	mace	westminster
counterpoint	MK	wings
	monitor

Carolina Lacrosse Team Downs Richmond, 14-8

the end of the initial period.

After having built a virtually insurmountable lead, Coach

Fred Mueller's stickmen

relaxed in the second quarter, and Richmond cut its deficit to goal of the third period, but

Peterson got it back on a Seipp

pass. However, Richmond

followed with two successive scores to cut the Heels to 9-7.

beautiful goal, and Jake

Russell's unassisted shot stretched Carolina's lead to 11-7. After Richmond

threatened with its eighth goal,

Seipp fed Heard for a

Richmond recorded the first

By Howie Carr Sports Writer

The Carolina lacrosse team rolled to an easy 14-8 victory over the Richmond Lacrosse Club, Saturday on Navy Field.

The Tar Heels jumped out to a 3-0 lead with only 1:24 gone in the first quarter. Pete 8-4. Aitkins started the scoring, while All-American attackman Harper Peterson got the second goal with an assist from Ray Seipp. Seipp followed by slamming home a pass from defenseman John Hamachek.

Carolina continued its barrage of first period goals, with Mike Tiernan, Tom Heard, Aitkins, and John Iason all scoring before Richmond finally got on the scoreboard

Sc to 2c COPY-QUICK 133 1/2 €. Franklin Above N. C. Cafeteria

Russell scored on a pass from arolina TODAY 1:45-4:05-6:30 8:55 Franco Zeffirelli

Chapel Vil's Leading Clathiers

to make the score 7-1. Aitkin's Heard, Seipp tallied with an third goal of the quarter gave assist from Peterson, and Bob the Heels an 8-1 advantage at Lassiter recorded his first score of the season to give Carolina a 14-8 victory.

truly fashion winner our Schizophrenia Shop is our extensive collectors group of Alvin Duskin-go-everywhere dress as sketched, knit swim suits naxi beach cover-upsall happy holidays and exuberant occasion Soucle knit of acrilan empletely washable cream and navy -$32.50 SCHIZOPHRENIA

AT MILTON'S

SCHIZOPHRENIA-

Leave a little something with us.

When you leave Chapel Hill for summer vacation, why not leave the balance in your CCB checking account? There's no service charge on your account while it's inactive during the summer. And in case you need your money, it's easily available.

Then next fall your account will be ready for you. You can use your same checks too. So when you leave town this summer, don't forget your Egat Dook sticker, your Jubilee button and back copies of the Radish. But leave a little something behind at Central Carolina Bank. And give yourself a little something to look forward to next fall.

Milton's Screaming Yellow Zonker Ends Saturday!

TECHNICOLOR®

NOW PLAYING

Shows 2:15-5:09-8:00

FROM WARNER BROS.

Buy Now or Forever Hold Your Coins, No Kidding—the Buys Are Great and the Zonker is a Blast. Y'all Come While We Have Lots of Things Worth Having At Less Gold!

Milton's Clothing Cuphoard