Doctors Evade Tax

WASHINGTON—The Internal Revenue Service said Monday that about half of 3,000 doctors who received $25,000 or more in government medicare or Medicaid payments in 1968 failed to report a substantial amount of their income.

Meade Whitaker, tax legislative counsel for the Treasury Department, said in some cases the "omission exceeded $100,000."

Whitaker gave the Senate Finance Committee preliminary results of audits of doctors' tax returns. The audits were ordered after the committee said there was widespread tax evasion by doctors treating medicare and Medicaid patients.

The committee turned over to the IRS names of 11,000 doctors that it said received medicare or Medicaid payments exceeding $25,000 in 1968. Whitaker reported on preliminary results of the first 3,000 audits.

"About half of the 3,000 we audited will come up with substantial deficiencies in reported income," he said.

Hussein Calls New Cease-Fire; Asks Syria To Leave Jordan

King Hussein of Jordan ordered his army in Amman Monday to cease firing in the Jordanian civil war and demanded "absolute and strict observance." The cease-fire order was issued after he accused the Syrian army of invading Jordan.

With the situation worsening by the hour the Pentagon disclosed in Washington it had alerted American armed forces in the United States and Europe for possible evacuation of American citizens from Jordan where the army and Palestinian guerrillas have fought a civil war since Thursday.

An Israeli military spokesman in Tel Aviv said 200 Syrian tanks moving under cover of an artillery barrage had seized the city of Irbid, 14 miles south of the border, in a move that outflanked the Golan Heights cease-fire line and brought Syrian armor to within 18 miles of Israel.

Hussein's cease-fire apparently applied only to the Amman area where Cairo newspapers said 6,000 persons had been killed in the civil war and where they said the bodies of thousands of persons were strewn in the streets, raising the possibility of serious epidemics.

Guerrilla radio broadcasts reported heavy fighting in the Irbid area and at Salt, 15 miles northwest of Amman, the site of a major Palestinian refugee camp.

The respected Tel Aviv newspaper Yedioth Haranah openly speculated that U.S. intervention was imminent and said Washington would send in paratroops if Hussein asked for help. But in his first broadcast since the war started Hussein announced the Syrian invasion and appealed to the Syrians not to fight Jordanians.

Fifty-four airplane hijack hostages are believed still in the Amman area although no word of their fate has been received.

US Home Troops On Alert

WASHINGTON—The 82nd Airborne Division in North Carolina and other U.S. military forces at home and in Europe were put on alert Monday for possible use in rescuing Americans in Jordan.

The White House expressed "deep concern" over the safety of about 400 Americans, plus nearly 40 hostages from airliner hijackings, in Jordan. A spokesman said the situation was "very serious, complicated and very fluid."

The Pentagon said an alert involving Army, Air Force and Navy units in Europe, the United States and the Atlantic and Mediterranean areas was ordered overnight Sunday.

The alert included movement of more warships toward the Mediterranean from the Atlantic and placing infantrymen in Europe and paratroopers at Ft. Bragg, N.C., on standby.

The action was described as part of a continuation of a series of precautionary moves on the part of the United States in event Jordanian forces, facing a new threat from Syrian armor and manpower, appear in danger, and Americans' safety were jeopardized.

At the White House, Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said the Syrian intervention, branded an invasion by Secretary of State William P. Rogers on Sunday, was "irresponsible and imprudent."

As of shortly after noon Monday, Ziegler said there were no present plans to evacuate Americans from the troubled country.

Journalist Sues Army

WASHINGTON—A Newsweek magazine correspondent who is an Army Reservist filed suit Monday charging the army is activating him and shipping him to Vietnam as punishment for uncomplimentary stories he says he wrote.

District Judge Howard F. Corcoran scheduled a hearing Tuesday on Henry P. Leiferman's motion for the Pentagon to show cause why he should not be released from duty.

Leiferman said he enlisted in the reserves in 1964 and should be released Nov. 5 after six years of reserve duty.

He reported for duty at Ft. Jackson, S. C. later last week. He is a private.

Rule Changes

BILOXI, Miss.—Deep South governors today gained a rules change that will improve by one vote their chances of pushing a strong anti-busing resolution through the southern governors conference.

Without debate, the conference voted to change its rules so that a resolution can be adopted by a two-thirds vote instead of a three-fourths vote previously required.

Gov. John Bell Williams, the Mississippi host governor and chairman of the rules committee, said the change would make a difference of just one vote required for adoption of a resolution.

General Fired

PHNOM PENH—The Cambodian high command announced Monday that the commander of the government task force encircled by Communist troops north of Phnom Penh for a week has been replaced.

The high command said Brig. Gen. Phan Moeung, commander of the Third Military Region, had replaced Brig. Gen. Neak Sam. Sam had commanded the task forces since they moved out of Skoun for Kompong Thom two weeks ago in the biggest Cambodian operation of the war.
