

Bill Richardson

'Willie Boy' Is Defensive Star

Carolina's tough defensive football team is sparked by a dynamic linebacker-guard whose battle cry could be "Tell Them Willie Boy is Here."

Willie is Bill Richardson, a senior from Annandale, Va., who ranks as one of the best players ever for Carolina at his position. He has proved to be in the class of such old-time Tar Heel stars as Chris Hanburger, Irv Holdash, Rip Hawkins and Bill Koman.

Coach Bill Dooley says that Richardson played one of the greatest games of his Carolina career in Saturday's 53-20 blitz of Maryland at College Park. Richardson's achievements in that game border on the unbelievable. He was in the game for only 41 defensive plays and yet managed to make 12 tackles, 10 of them individual tackles. Four times he threw Maryland backs for losses and two times his jarring tackles forced Terp fumbles.

In the first half alone when Carolina streaked to a 33-6 lead, Willie (he is called that by some of his Carolina teammates) made 10 tackles. It was a sensational performance before many of his hometown fans who came from nearby Annandale for the game.

When asked how he accounts for the super performance, Bill says modestly that Maryland didn't seem to pay much attention to him. "They were double teaming our tackles because they had so much respect for them," he said. "That's how I managed to break through."

Richardson made the all-Atlantic Coast Conference team last season and appears a cinch to repeat.

Sophomore tackle Richard Grissom will remember Saturday as one of the biggest days of his life. After helping to crush Maryland in the afternoon, Richard became a father in early evening.

While he traveled back to Carolina with his teammate, his wife gave birth to an eight-pound boy at Memorial Hospital.

Richard had good reasons to celebrate Saturday night.

Don McCauley, the nation's leading rusher, added 123 yards to his total at Maryland and now has a three-game total of 454 yards. That is an average of better than 151 yards a game.

The 53 points Carolina scored in Saturday's game were the most ever tallied against Maryland by an Atlantic Coast Conference team.

The Tar Heels broke their own record. In 1948 when Charlie Justice was the dashing hero, Carolina beat Maryland, also at College Park, by a score of 49-20.

Sunny Jim Tatum was the Maryland coach then.

Maryland Coach Roy Lester paid McCauley the supreme compliment.

"I don't want to get in any arguments with any old Carolina supporters who remember Charlie Justice," he said, "but McCauley may be the best back North Carolina ever has had."

Carolina will be going after its fourth straight win Saturday night when it meets Vanderbilt at Nashville. The Tar Heels haven't won the first four games of a season since 1949.

Fumbleitis Fatal To Terps, Deacs

by Mark Whicker
Sports Writer

Fumbleitis spread through the ACC like an epidemic Saturday, and for Maryland and Wake Forest the disease was fatal.

The Deacs fumbled four times in the second half to give Florida State a 19-14 victory, and five Maryland bobbles helped Carolina along to a 53-20 rout.

At Raleigh the disease proved contagious, as South Carolina and State stumbled to a 7-7 tie. Duke overcame its mistakes to defeat Virginia 17-7, and Georgia overwhelmed Clemson 38-0 at Athens.

Larry Hopkins dashed for a first-half touchdown at Tallahassee and the Wake defense held off FSU long enough to take a 14-6 halftime lead.

But the Seminoles used four field goals by barefooted booter Frank Fontes to salvage the victory. It must have been encouraging for the Deacs, however, to hold Florida State to a single touchdown.

The 17-7 score was not indicative of the way Duke handled Virginia in Durham Saturday afternoon. The Blue Devils rolled up 232 yards through the air and added 220 on the ground.

But the Devils missed four field goal attempts in the first half and Cavalier quarterback Larry Albert connected with brilliant soph receiver Dave Sullivan on a 64-yard pass play for a 7-0 Virginia lead. Dave Pugh's 39-yard field goal narrowed the margin to 7-3 at halftime.

Leo Hart, who completed 17 of 28 aeriels for 231 yards, got Duke within the ten-yard-line three times in the second half without scoring.

But soph fullback Steve Jones bulled over finally from the one, and backup QB Dennis Satyshur hit Brad Evans with a on-yard scoring pass to sew up the victory.

The Dukes displayed impressive offensive power, and their pass defense intercepted two Albert passes. Albert could only complete eight of 32 to his talented receivers.

The Gamecocks gave up four fumbles and three interceptions to State, but the Wolfpack committed five turnovers themselves.

After Pat Kenney dashed 29 yards for a State touchdown—only the Pack's second in three games—the Wolfpack drove deep into South Carolina territory again.

Dave Rodgers fumbled on the one-yard line and South Carolina's Candler Boyd pounced on it in the end zone.

The Gamecocks lost QB Tommy Suggs in the fourth quarter, but Jackie Young came in to direct them to a tie-saving TD. Doug Hamrick made the catch from two yards out.

Suggs had hit Mike Haggard and Jackie Brown for good gains before being injured, setting up the Hamrick touchdown.

It was the most unimpressive performance by an ACC contender this year, with Duke's showing against Maryland last week providing the only competition.

Heels Stomp Davidson

The North Carolina rugby team opened its season before a lively crowd of 600 Saturday afternoon with a 34-0 stomping of Davidson.

It took the Tar Heels only five minutes to run up a 15-0 lead, and the only question was how large the final margin would be.

The Carolina scoring was well-distributed, with David Paris, Colin Jeffcoat, John Parsons, and Lynch Christian providing tries for the scrum. Tommy Clay put across two from the backfield as Keith Oldham, Paul Hebert, Bam Taylor, and George Butler scored one apiece.

All of UNC's three teams face action this coming weekend. N.C. State comes into town trying to avenge a 28-11 thrashing they suffered at the hands of the Heels last spring.

UNC and the Wolfpack have traded victories for the past two years, and the Tar Heels would like to deny the visitors their turn.

The game this weekend is slated for Sunday, with the A team playing at 1:30 on Ehringhaus Field.
