

Joseph Califano To Speak Here On Wednesday

UNC News Bureau

Joseph Califano, former White House assistant and an authority on student-youth and establishment problems will speak in Hill Hall Wednesday at 8 p.m.

Former staff member to President Lyndon Johnson and a "trouble shooter" for ex-Defense Secretary Robert McNamara, Califano is author of "The Student Revolution—A Global Confrontation."

In a trip around the world in 1969, Califano made a study of campus unrest in Europe, Africa and Asia and he makes startling comparisons with the student dissent and protest phenomenon in the United States.

His talk here will deal with current aspects of "political party reform."

In his book Califano advocated lowering the voting age to 18 and fuller participation by students in matters governing themselves in colleges and universities and in all of society.

The political address series of the University is co-sponsored by Student Body President Tom Bello and Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences Raymond Dawson.

Other speakers to follow are pollster Louis Harris, Oct. 14; Stewart Alsop, newspaper columnist, Oct. 19; James B. Reston of the New York Times, Oct. 25; William Buckley, conservative newspaper columnist.

Califano, a native of Brooklyn, N.Y., is a graduate of Holy Cross and the Harvard Law School. After Naval service, he served in the office of the Judge Advocate General in Washington and then practiced law in New York with the firm of Dewey, Ballantine, Bushby, Palmer & Wood.

He became Special Assistant to the General Counsel of the Defense Department in 1961 and assistant to the Secretary of the Army in 1963.

Appointed special assistant to President Johnson in 1965, Califano was in charge of developing and coordinating the President's legislative program.

Currently Califano is working on a book entitled "The Presidency—Where the Action Is." The volume will be an analysis of Presidential problems and powers at home, and will be based on his personal experiences.

Girls' Service Sorority

By Jessica Hanchar
Staff Writer

All women students, including freshmen, are invited to attend fall rush of the UNC colony of Gamma Sigma Sigma, Monday and Tuesday in 213-215 Student Union at 8 p.m.

Greeks and non-Greeks are invited to rush. A 2.0 QPA is required to participate.

Coeds are urged to attend both nights if possible. Casual dress is recommended. Gamma Sigma Sigma is a national girls' service sorority founded in 1952. GSS was established at UNC as the Girls' Service Sorority in 1968.

Rushes will help make favors for a Halloween project Tuesday night, "Project Night." The favors will be given to the Chapel Hill Day Care Center.

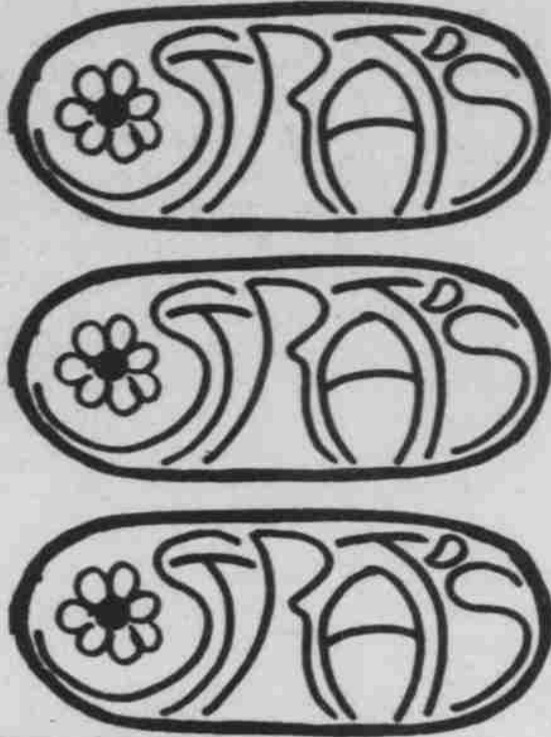

The sorority sponsored two information booths on campus during orientation. They will co-sponsor the Campus Chest auction this fall with Alpha Phi Omega service fraternity.

"This fall we will hopefully co-sponsor a Christmas House with the Junior Service League," said Stephanie Mayo, president. "We're also planning a Thanksgiving Party at the Pittsboro Orphanage."

Last year the UNC colony took part in a March Against Hunger, which collected over $5,000 for welfare programs. During the spring semester the members co-sponsored with APO the Campus Chest drive, which raised over $12,000 for local and national charities.

"We will present a program explaining our purpose, what we have done and projects we are planning for this school year," said Ross Davis, rush chairman.

One college does more than broaden horizons. It sails to them, and beyond.

Now there's a way for you to know the world around you first-hand. A way to see the things you've read about, and study as you go. The way is a college that uses the Parthenon as a classroom for a lecture on Greece, and illustrates Hong Kong's floating societies with a ride on a harbor sampan.

Chapman College's World Campus Afloat enrolls two groups of 500 students every year and opens up the world for them. Your campus is the s.s. Ryndam, equipped with modern educational facilities and a fine faculty. You have a complete study curriculum as you go. And earn a fully-accredited semester while at sea.

Chapman College is now accepting enrollments for Spring and Fall '71 semesters. Spring semesters circle the world from Los Angeles, stopping in Asia and Africa and ending in New York. Fall semesters depart New York for port stops in Europe, Africa and Latin America, ending in Los Angeles.

The world is there. The way to show it to inquiring minds is there. And financial aid programs are there, too. Send for our catalog with the coupon below. s.s. Ryndam is of Netherlands registry.

You'll be able to talk to a World Campus Afloat representative and former students:

- Sunday, November 1, 2:30 p.m.
- Statler Hilton Inn, Executive Room
- 2424 Erwin Road
- Durham, North Carolina
