

Carolina Frosh Battle Duke Booters

State, Virginia Test Tar Heel Soccer Team

After two easy wins over outside opponents, Carolina's soccer team receives ACC challenges from State today and Virginia next Tuesday. Both games begin at 3 p.m. on Fetzer Field.

Apparently Coach Marvin Allen has fulfilled his goal of improving Carolina's offense.

But ace forward Louis Bush may not play today after hurting an ankle in the Tar Heels' 10-1 conquest of Appalachian.

Before getting even with the Mountaineers, who upset UNC last fall, Allen's booters topped Belmont Abbey 4-0.

"We've been moving a lot better on offense so far," says Allen, "but we'll get a stern test from State and Virginia."

Reserve inside Carl Muster leads the team so far with three goals. Bush had two scores, both on penalty kicks, before he was injured.

The Virginia game next Tuesday will be pivotal for the booters, since the Cavaliers won the ACC last season and appear to be just as strong this time around.

Virginia defeated Carolina 1-0 last season and won the title by virtue of the Tar Heels' unprecedented upset of Maryland.

Steve Jones scored the only Blue Devil

The North Carolina freshman soccer team lost its opening game of the season Thursday to the Duke frosh, 1-0.

The Blue Devils' only goal came in the second quarter, in a mix-up around the Carolina goal. The score was credited to Duke's right inside.

"It was impressed with the three fullbacks," said UNC Coach Dennis Hoagland after the game. "Mark Baldwin played an outstanding game at center fullback. I hate to think what the score might have been without him."

Baldwin injured his ankle with seven minutes left in the fourth period. He later returned to the contest, limping.

Coach Hoagland singled out three other players for special praise; Bill Brenizer, the left fullback, right halfback Gerald Bush, who is the younger brother of Tar Heel varsity star Louis Bush, and goalie Win Bennett.

"It was a defensive game," commented Hoagland. Duke had some very good fullbacks. There were a lot of scoring mistakes. At the beginning of the game there were big gaps between our fullbacks and line."

The Tar Babies took thirteen shots on the Blue Devil goalie, but the closest they could come to scoring was in the fourth quarter when forward Dave Herschler's shot hit the top of the goal, but bounced over.

The starting line-up for the frosh consisted of Bennett in the goal, fullbacks Brenizer, Baldwin, and Craig More, halfbacks Bush and Ed Smyge, and Barry Perez, Jim East, David Patterson, Tim O'Connor, and Christ Plummer.

The remainder of the freshmen's schedule includes Brevard Junior College (October 21), Wilmington New Hanover High (October 26), a rematch with Duke, (October 29 in Durham), Wingate College (November 3, away), North Carolina State (November 10) and the University of North Carolina-Greensboro (November 17).

Hoagland, who coached last year at Windham High School in Windham, New York, proved to be remarkably accurate in his pre-game prediction of the contest.

"Our backs are our strength," he stated. "While our scoring punch worries me."

Outlook For ACC Team Brightens

Hiding in the shadow of the UNC-USC brawl this weekend are six interconference games. ACC schools should win at least three of them.

Mountaineer Field in Morgantown, W.

Va., a notoriously hostile setting for visiting foes, has been taking a pounding from a fierce group of running backs. Duke ventures into WVU's home grounds Saturday and should have no more success than it did against Ohio State last weekend.

Although the Mountaineers struggled in last week's 16-10 win over Indiana, they amassed an average of 602 yards rushing in their first three wins.

Pete Wood is the ninth leading ground gainer in the country, right behind Don McCauley, and Jim Gresham is the leading runner last season.

Coach Bobby Bowden moved Jim Braxton to tight end, and Braxton scored all 16 points against the Hoosiers, snaring two touchdown passes from Mike Sherwood and booting a field goal and an extra point.

Duke's previous showings against nationally ranked opponents have been impressive.

The Blue Devils lost narrowly to Florida 21-19 in the opener and outlasted Ohio State in the first half last Saturday. The Bucks rolled to a 34-10 victory in the last 30 minutes.

Leo Hart was held under 100 yards passing, second lowest total of his career. Coach Tom Harp enjoyed watching the defensive films in the first half, when end Bob Shinn harassed Buckeye QB Rex Kern.

According to East Carolina coach Mike McGee, the Pirates will soon change the Big Four to the Big Five.

But the Bucs have yet to win under McGee and should fare no better Saturday night against State.

The Wolfpack outgained Florida on the ground last weekend, but couldn't stop John Reages' passing and lost 14-6.

Sophomore halfback Pat Kenney totaled 103 yards returning punts and kickoffs. Although the State secondary was burned for 218 yards in the air, it intercepted Reaves seven times to tie an ACC record.

East Carolina finally showed some offense against West Texas State, but lost 42-30. Until then the Pirates had scored only two points in three games.

According to East Carolina coach Mike McGee, the Pirates will soon change the Big Four to the Big Five.

Wake Forest hopes to put together a two-game winning streak Saturday in Groves Stadium against winless Virginia Tech.

Larry Russell ran for two touchdowns and 123 yards in Wake's 31-21 win over Virginia.

Ken Garrett and Larry Hopkins added 121 more rushing yards, while the defensive line allowed the Cavaliers only 57 on the ground in the first half.

Pat McHenry contributed two interceptions in the Deacs' best game of the year—the first one Wake was given an even chance to win.

South Carolina topped VPI 24-7, but the Gobblers had a 7-7 intermission tie after John Dobbins broke loose for a 56-yard TD run.

The Deacs upset VPI 16-10 last year, but this time it won't be a surprise.

Virginia should have it easy this week against VMI, with Bill Troup replacing injured quarterback Larry Albert.

Dave Sullivan caught four passes for 36 yards and returned punts and kickoffs

Syracuse hosts Maryland this weekend and should pick up its first win of the year. Beset with racial troubles, the Orangemen have lost to Houston, Kansas and Illinois, but the Terps' last win over Syracuse was nine years ago.
