

Student Stores Open Meeting Set Thursday

by Bob Chapman
Staff Writer

The Faculty-Student Stores Committee, an advisory group to the chancellor, decided Thursday to hold an open meeting next week to hear grievances and suggestions from students next week.

The meeting will be held at 4 p.m. Thursday in the Union if there is enough interest. Anyone interested in attending is asked to contact student members Gerry Cohen at 967-4452, Steve LaTour at 933-1404, or Philip Banks at 933-4904.

Committee chairman J.A. Branch, who is also assistant vice chancellor for business affairs, suggested the open meeting.

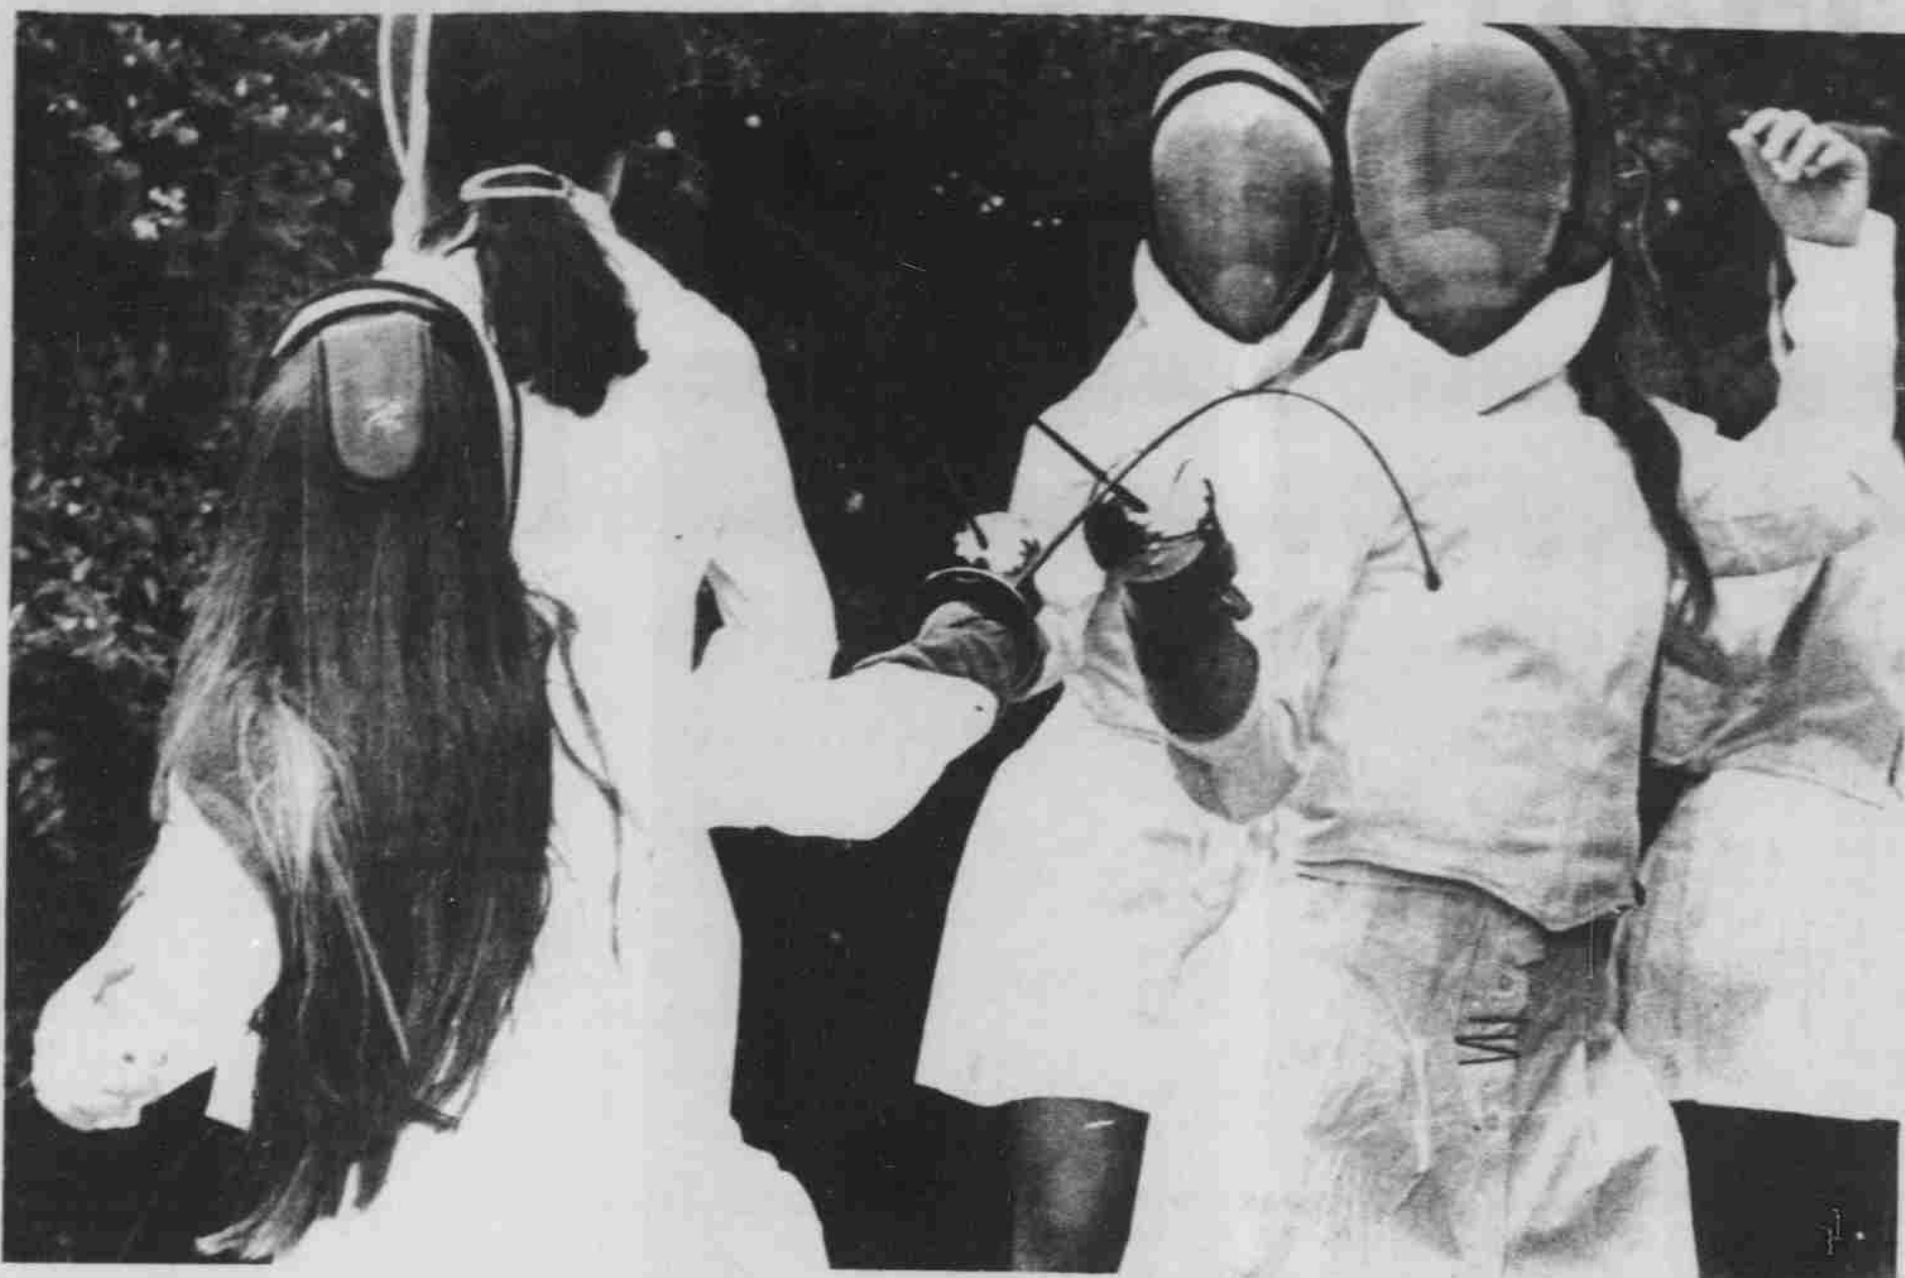

In the meeting, Tom Shetley, Student Stores general manager, told the committee scholarship payments increased last year to $220,000 over the previous year's $214,000. Shetley noted that $20,000 of the money included funds set aside for high-risk students, who have been admitted this year for the first time.

Other topics of discussion included check cashing policy, credit, snack bars, student employment, scholarships and faculty book lists.

Cohen asked what effect lowering the check-cashing limit from $50 to $25 had. Shetley said the amount of cash had not decreased and that dollar flow was up. After a suggestion to raise the limit, Shetley said he would check receipt tapes and report at the next meeting.

The general manager noted that the policy for check cashing became too expensive because of accounts receivable and cost of billing.

Responding to complaints of high prices in the snack bars operated by the Students Stores, Shetley said the price markups are competitive with the 7 a.m. to 11 p.m. stores, although costs are slightly higher because of smaller lot purchasing.

Fencing is a nice way to stab a friend and get even for something she's done that you didn't like. This fencing class went outside Thursday to get some practice in the finer art of running your best friend through. (Staff photo by Cliff Kolovson)

254 Pledge UNC Fraternities

by Jessica Hancher
Staff Writer

The number of UNC men in fraternities appears to be stabilizing.

This fall, 254 men pledged fraternities compared to last fall's figure of 236.

Assistant Dean of Men Dick Baddour said this figure did not represent a trend toward increasing numbers of pledges.

"The figure appears to be stable," he said.

The number of men pledging fraternities has risen steadily in the past five years, according to figures from the dean of men's office. The percentages of fraternity men in the male student body has also steadily risen to almost 20 per cent.

Baddour, the administrative advisor to fraternities, said rush went well this fall. "Rush system is definitely changing for the better, he said. "This time we rushed under an open system."

The open system allowed informal rush for sophomores and above. It also relaxed the former strict silence rules and limitations placed upon fraternity contact with rushees.

"I don't know how many men came through rush," he added, "but I've heard fewer men did."

"My theory is that under open rush, the boys had a better idea of which fraternities they wanted to pledge, and the fraternities had a better idea of the boys they wanted to pledge," he explained.

Housing Shortage Won't End-Lee

by Bill Pope
Staff Writer

(Editor's note: This article is the second in a series presenting the views of Chapel Hill Mayor Howard Lee on the relationship between the town and the University.)

Chapel Hill Mayor Howard Lee foresees no immediate ease in the housing shortage next semester.

"There isn't much we can offer in the way of encouragement," said Lee in an interview this week. "It's going to be a long-range thing."

Lee said his office began to keep a log of available housing at the beginning of this semester but "ran out at the end of the first day."

One of the main problems causing the housing shortage is "tight" money, he said. "We have enough projects on the drawing boards to meet the housing needs but builders can't obtain the necessary money," continued the mayor.

Another problem, Lee explained, is the "UNC is not pursuing housing for married students, therefore throwing the burden back on the town."

Lee said he is now attempting to work on a solution to alleviate the housing shortage for married students.

The mayor applied six months ago to the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) for 1,000 public housing units for married students who make between $3,000 and $4,000 per year and for low-income families.

The objectives of the public housing units, he said, are to bring poorer people in contact with individuals with a higher level of education, to achieve a racial balance and to provide inexpensive housing for married students.

Lee said the project is currently being reviewed by the Atlanta HUD office.

"I haven't heard from them yet," he said. "If it is approved it would do much to relieve the housing pressure...I would say it is at least one year away."

Lee was asked if the Chapel Hill Planning Board is partly responsible for the housing situation as suggested by several local realtors in early September.

"I think it is totally unfair for realtors to blame the Planning Board," Lee commented.

He said the Planning Board has become "tougher" on building plans because of the poor grade of housing realtors have been pawning off on students.

"Many are poorly constructed and lack any aesthetic qualities," said Lee.

The mayor said he has received "numerous" complaints from students concerning housing.

"Unfortunately, there has not been a close working relationship between the town and students over housing," Lee explained, adding that he would be in favor of the students forming a "fair housing co-op" to protect themselves.

In Raleigh Oct. 26

Rock Groups Set For Agnew Rally

by Mike Parnell
News Editor

Lead Zeppelin and Jefferson Airplane, two nationally known rock music groups, will appear outside the arena where Vice President Spiro T. Agnew will speak in Raleigh Oct. 26.

University students sponsoring a "We Love Agnew Festival of Life" said Thursday the two groups have made arrangements to appear at a rally outside Reynolds Auditorium on the N.C. State campus, where Agnew is to appear.

Dave Holzman, one of the "non-leaders" of the rally, said the groups are appearing thanks to the financial support of an anonymous New York donor.

The "We Love Agnew" festival was

IFC Chooses 8 To Judge Frat Violators

Inter Fraternity Council (IFC) elected eight members to the IFC court at a meeting Monday night.

The court handles infractions committed by fraternity members against other fraternity members, violations of IFC agreements and violations of the IFC and University Open House policy.

The eight members of the IFC court are: Tony Haynes, Kappa Sigma; John Graham, Chi Psi; Joe Tracey, Chi Phi; Bob Sherry, Phi Gamma Delta; Bob Milligan, Lambda Chi Alpha; Tommy Watkins, Sigma Nu; and Steve Hipp, Kappa Psi.

In other action, a fraternity retreat was scheduled for Nov. 13 and 14 in the Carolina Union. Three representatives from each fraternity and members of the faculty and administration will discuss fraternities on campus.

Tickets

Tickets for the Carolina-Wake Forest football game are now on sale at the ticket office in Carmichael Auditorium. Prices are $3 for UNC students, $6 for their dates.

The game will be played Saturday, Oct. 24 in Groves Stadium in Winston-Salem.

announced last week by Scott Snively, a local of the UNC Yippie organization. The festival is scheduled to begin at 4 p.m. and continue through the night. Agnew's speech will begin at 8 p.m.

Snively said the purpose of the festival is to show that "Agnew is a beautiful person, the leader of the Yippies."

Yippies from university campuses across the state will participate "to show our support for Agnew and expose our new culture to the people of the state," said Snively.

"We want to show Agnew that we love him and agree with everything he says," Snively said. "We will wildly applaud everything he says."

Though the festival will be outside, Snively said Yippies will be inside and outside the arena giving away free good flowers and money to rally-goers.

Holzman said the group anticipates no trouble from police during the rally.

"We don't want to burn buildings, kill people or anything," he said, "we're not radicals... we just love Spiro."

Snively said tickets are available from the Young Republican's Club (YRC) for the Agnew speech. He advised "freaks" who wanted to attend the Agnew speech to get their "straight" friends to get tickets from YRC members.

A new conference will be held today after the Rennie Davis speech in Political Science 95-A to discuss further plans for the festival.

Snively said the press conference will begin with a march from Memorial Hall, where Davis is speaking to the Naval ROTC building where an "exorcism" will be held.

Yippies will march around the ROTC building wearing white robes and playing kazooos and on the seventh revolution, "the walls will fall down and all the evil spirits will be lifted away," said Snively.

The Daily Tar Heel is published by the University of North Carolina Student Publication's Board, daily except Monday, examination periods and vacations and during summer periods.

Offices are at the Student Union Bldg., Univ. of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, N.C. 27514. Telephone numbers: editorial, sports, news—933-1011; business, circulation, advertising—933-1163. Address: Box 1080, Chapel Hill, N.C. 27514.

Subscription rates: $10 per year; $5 per semester. We regret that we can accept only prepaid subscriptions.

Second class postage paid at U.S. Post Office in Chapel Hill, N.C.

EAT AT JOE'S

A sampling of what you can eat at Eat at Joe's:

JOE'S BEEF

- REGULAR JOE an ordinary all-American hamburger 20¢
- REGULAR JOE W/CHEESE which makes it a cheeseburger 25¢
- STACKED JOE a double-decker version of the Regular Joe W/Cheese. 49¢
- BIG JOE for the slightly more voracious appetite and the quarter-pound weight claim doesn't even include the lettuce, tomatoes, onions and sesame seed bun. 60¢
- BIG JOE W/CHEESE as if you could ask for anything more 65¢

OTHER WEIRD JOES

- HONEST JOE a frankfurter, of course 35¢
- ACTOR JOE a ham sandwich—what else? 69¢
- SAILOR JOE would you believe, a submarine 79¢
- ETHNIC JOE knockwurst, pastrami and Swiss 89¢

TO QUAFF

- JOE'S REGULAR BREW a bit drafty 35¢
- JOE'S CANNED BREW 45¢
- OTHER ORDINARY STUFF like Cokes, coffee, and even milk, all priced within a student's means

WHAT IS EAT AT JOE'S?

Well, it's not a class joint. On the other hand, it's not a greasy spoon, either. Hopefully you won't find a one in the place. The food is good. And cheap. And fast. And nearby.

AND WE HAVE A "GRADE A" SANITATION RATING!

West Franklin Street across from University Square behind the tire rack at Obie Davis Esso