

With "Best Ever" Performance

Harriers Race To 2 Wins

by Howie Carr
Sports Writer

Coach Joe Hilton's Tar Heel cross-country team recorded a double victory Saturday, defeating Clemson 20-39, and Wake Forest 17-46, in a tri-meet held at Finley Golf Course. Clemson also defeated the Deacs, 19-36.

finisher, in third place, and he was followed by Tar Heel Pat Grady and Wake Forest's John Gullede.

Another Carolina runner, Bruce Hafemeister, took sixth place, while Tigers Jim Bell and Frank Romero finished seventh and eighth, respectively. They were followed by five UNC harriers, Bill Harward, Mike Caldwell, Al Powell, Steve Grathwahl, and Zack Osborne.

Wayne Jenkins of Clemson was fourteenth, and Tar Heel Jim Sellers grabbed the number fifteen slot.

"This was out best performance by far," said Coach Hilton afterwards. "For most of the boys it was their best-ever individual performance. Our team depth showed up real well, with two of our top five boys either injured or sick."

He was referring to Grathwahl, who had a bad cold, and to Mike Garcia, a freshman who attempted to run with a leg injury, but had to drop out after two miles.

The double win enabled the harriers to raise their season record to 4-3. They had dropped below the .500 mark after losing to Maryland and William & Mary.

The cross-country team's next opponent is Duke, whom they host at Finley Golf Course on October 24 at 11:00 A.M.

Inspired Deaclets End UNC Streak

WINSTON-SALEM—A disputed pass interference call enabled Wake Forest's inspired freshmen to end the Tar Babies' winning streak at 10 Friday at Groves Stadium, 14-6.

After Carolina had taken a 6-0 lead on John Klise's two-yard run, the Baby Deacs drove to the Tar Babies 14-yard line with passes from quarterback Kit Baslar to tight end Dan Stroup and two 15-yard runs by Kevin Byrnes.

On fourth down, Baslar overthrew flanker Tim Fischer in the corner of the end zone. The officials, however, ruled that defensive back Dennis Kelly had bumped Fischer on the play.

Baslar then sneaked over for the score from one yard out.

Chuck Ramsey's kick gave the Deacs a 7-6 lead with 4:11 left in the game.

Tar Tar Babies suffered another bad bounce when Ramsey's kickoff bounded back toward on the onrushing Baby Deacs. Eric Mabry gathered in the free ball on the UNC 32.

After a personal foul penalty, Byrnes churned for another 15 yards down to the UNC one, where Baslar again scored.

An interception by Rick Sievers killed Carolina's comeback bid, dooming the Heel Freshmen to defeat for the first time since the opening game of the 1968 season.

The first two quarters were about as exciting as an insurance commercial with neither team showing much offensive power. Wake drove to the Carolina 6 in the first period but a fourth down fumble ended that threat.

Two interceptions and a fumble stalled Carolina's drives.

Russ Strait took over the quarterback job for the Tar Babies in the second quarter and almost led them to a score, the drive dying at the Wake 20 as the half ended.

After a roughen the passer penalty, Strait hit Earl Chesson for 12 yards and Pat Norton for 19, but then overthrew his receivers.

Strait came out passing again in the second half, unloading a 46-yarder to

The first annual Law School Golf Tournament, sponsored by Phi Alpha Delta law fraternity, has been held over the past three and a half weeks.

Entrants in the tournament had to turn in two 18-hole scores, which were divided into two categories: low gross, (no handicaps) and low net (handicaps).

Trophies were awarded to the top three finishers in both the low net and the low gross categories at the Law School's annual picnic, which was held Saturday at Storybrook Farm.

All the entrants played their rounds at Finley Golf Course in Chapel Hill.

A spokesman for Phi Alpha Delta said that his organization hopes to make the golf tournament an annual event for law students.

The winners in the low gross category were John Anderson (71-71-142), Danny White (75-67-142), John Dees (73-71-144), and Tom Benton (76-73-149).

The winners in the low net category were Tom Benton (140), Dave LaBarre (144), and Scott Peterson (145).

Colts Get Shot At New Yorkers

As fate would have it, the Baltimore Colts fet a chance today to erase the memory of a New York nightmare...just three days after the Orioles had avenged theirs in the World Series.

Johnny Unitas hopes to follow Brooks Robinson's example in leading a Baltimore win in the first Colt-let meeting since the 1968 Super Bowl.

The specter of the 16-7 loss to Joe Namath and the Jets has haunted the Colts ever since, as the Met victory in the 1969 Series bugged the Orioles all last season.

Given a chance to settle the score in a key American Conference contest, Baltimore is favored to atone for the previous loss.

Unfortunately, history is repeating itself for the Chicago Bears in a negative way. Halfback Gale Sayers will undergo surgery on his injured left knee next Wednesday and will be out for the season.

The twist of fortune can only hurt a club which desperately needed all the brilliance Sayers could lend it.

The San Diego Chargers, who would be favored anyway, are now accorded a definite edge in their battle today with the Bears.

The Detroit Lions, probably pro football's hottest team, faced the Cleveland Browns, over whom they hold an 11-2 margin in their series. Alex Karras is limping with a bum knee and is not expected to play, but the Lions should extend their hex over the Browns.

Another partial cripple, Kansas City quarterback Len Dawson, may return to the playing field today as the Chiefs take on Cincinnati, which is of course without its ace signal caller, Greg Cook, for the year.

The defending Super Bowl champions are expected to triumph by several touchdowns with Dawson taking an active part.

Following an upset of the talented San Francisco 49ers last week, the Los Angeles Rams set New Orleans, The Saints, with ex-San Franciscan Bill Kilmer at quarterback, can make it hard on anybody on a given Sunday.

Minnesota's high-riding Purple People Eaters could get a hardy helping of Dallas Cowboys, who are impotent at quarterback. Look for a defensive battle in this one, with the Dallas Doomsday defense holding its own.

The Denver Broncos hope to sustain their Western lead in the American Conference when meet Atlanta.

In other games Miami faces Buffalo, Pittsburgh challenges Houston, St. Louis goes against Philadelphia and New York meets Boston. It will be Oakland against the Washington Redskins in Monday night's prime time tv game.
