

Nixon Blasts Radicals After Stoning Incident

San Clemente, Calif. — President Nixon Friday called on the nation to cleanse its political process of "violence and terrorism by the radical, anti-democratic elements in our society."

The President, who was the target of a barrage of rocks, bottles and eggs thrown by demonstrators Thursday night in San Jose, promised to deliver, at an evening Republican rally, a "gloves off" talk about political terrorism.

"Freedom of speech and freedom of assembly cannot exist when people who are peacefully attend rallies are attacked with flying rocks," the President said in a statement read to newsmen by White House staff members.

"The time has come to take the gloves off and speak to this kind of behavior in a forthright way," he said.

The crowd that cursed and attempted to stone Nixon in San Jose was the noisiest and most violent he has faced since he has been in the White House. A long time staff member compared it to the communist mob which attacked Nixon in Caracas, when the then Vice-President visited the Venezuelan capital in 1958.

White House press secretary Ronald Ziegler told newsmen that intelligence officers of the Secret Service remained in San Jose to help local police investigate the incident.

When Ziegler was asked if the violent demonstrations would help Republican candidates at the polls Tuesday, he replied, "I won't respond to that." He also declined to comment when asked if the President considers Democrats responsible for the incident.

Nixon spent most of the day Friday meeting with aides at the Western White House. The President is scheduled to continue campaigning Saturday.

Generals Accessible

MOSCOW—The Soviet Union said Friday two American consular officials may pay a second visit to the three American and one Turkish officer held since their plane from Turkey landed in Russia on Oct. 21.

The Russians had earlier this week refused a request for a second meeting. The reversal of the Soviet position encouraged many diplomats here to believe the officers will be released with another note of protest to the United States and Turkey.

Mitchell Wants Law

WASHINGTON—Attorney General John M. Mitchell, condemning the "anarchistic" California protestors who pelted President Nixon's limousine with eggs and rocks, Friday announced he will recommend legislation to cope with the bombers and the attackers of police.

Mitchell, speaking at a news conference following a four-hour meeting with top police authorities from 13 cities and states, said his recommendations would call for "a larger involvement" of federal agencies and intelligence-gathering facilities.

He said the law he would propose would pull together and make use "of all intelligence available to the federal government in the Department of Justice and outside it." He opposed the idea of a federal police force, but did not rule out use of military intelligence gathering skills or the Secret Service.
