

Heels singe visitors, nets

by Mark Whicker
Sports Writer

The hotter it gets in Carmichael Auditorium, the better Coach Dean Smith likes it.

With the Tar Heels burning the nets 40 times in 55 attempts Tuesday night, and the temperature rising with each trip down the court, scrappy East Tennessee wilted and lost 109-79 after keeping the score respectable in the first half.

At intermission, it looked like an ominous replay of last year's disappointing 18-9 season. The Tar Heels had taken a 10-0 lead, but East Tennessee regrouped and took advantage of UNC turnovers.

Two straight baskets by Tom Martin cut UNC's lead to 41-37 with two minutes left. Though the Heels expanded the margin to 46-39 by halftime, there was concern among the coaches and the fans.

ETSU had outrebounded the Heels by one, even though center Phil Williford had been in foul trouble since the first five minutes.

But in the second half, Smith got his fast break working and UNC continued its amazing shooting. Guards George Karl and Steve Previs, who together had seven assists, kept feeding forwards Dave Chadwick, Dennis Wuycik and Bill Chamberlain.

The three combined for 58 points. Chamberlain got 15 although he only played 13 minutes.

Smith credited good shot selection and depth after the game.

"All we're going to try to do this year is hustle 100 per cent, and let the outcome fall where it may," said the coach. "We were in phenomenal condition tonight."

"The players give us a signal when they're not ready to give 110 per cent out there, and I substitute one of the players on the bench. The players are so close to each other in ability I have no qualms about putting in a fresh Bill Chambers, for instance, instead of a tired Dennis Wuycik."

Smith didn't want to single out any individuals, but he praised Chadwick's "aggressiveness and defensive work" and said that Chamberlain had the best defensive rebounding night of his career.

"Our guards did a great job of feeding our men up front," continued Smith. "The forwards ought to take them out to lunch every day to thank them for their performance."

Karl, who had 14 points in his first varsity game, was also praised by the coach.

"The quarterback in our offense has a lot of responsibility, and Karl handled it well," said Smith. "Tonight he repeated everything back to me that I'd told him in our meeting this afternoon."

The second-half outburst had given Smith and the players a lot of confidence. "The biggest surprise to us was the ease with which we pulled away from them," said Smith. "We were very concerned at halftime; we thought that maybe we could play a little smarter."

About the only thing Smith was displeased with was the way Carolina handled East Tennessee's press in the first half. "I thought we could have had a little more poise than we did," he commented. Chadwick, who shot nine for 10 from the floor and got seven rebounds, said that it was the best shooting game of his career.

The 6-7 senior from Orlando, Fla. won the starting job in pre-season.

"I feel my overall experience and increased maturity from last year has helped me," said Chadwick.

"I've got a lot more confidence; I played every day this summer in Orlando and went on a weight program. Right now I weigh 215 and feel much stronger."

"I also added three inches to my jump, which helps."

Chadwick was handed a telegram that read, "Good luck for a successful season." It was signed by Charlie Scott, last year's UNC All-America who is playing equally well for the ABA Virginia Squires.

Many thought that the absence of a super-star like Scott would hurt the Heels this year, but Chamberlain disagreed.

"A good team effort by five men is going to beat a great effort by just one man," he said.

"We're just concerned with playing as a team this year. We played better on the defensive boards tonight, but we have to keep up the effort."

Smith said before the game that this opener would tell him more than any debut in five years.

Soph gunners save ACC in 6 openers

by Mark Whicker

Sophomores were instrumental in pulling six ACC teams to opening victories Tuesday night.

At Greensboro, Jeff Dawson's outside shooting saved Duke from disaster, and the Blue Devils beat Princeton 79-75.

At Raleigh, Rick Holdt sank 11 of 15 shots from the floor and took six rebounds as State beat surprisingly tough Atlantic Christian 109-79.

At College Park, Jim O'Brien came through with 22 points and Maryland downed Delaware 86-73.

At Chapel Hill, George Karl fed forwards Dennis Wuycik and Dave Chadwick and got 15 points himself. Carolina whipped East Tennessee 109-79.

In other ACC openers, Wake Forest beat Appalachian 96-66 and Virginia ripped VMI 81-52 in the first round of the Big Five tournament at Hampton, Va.

Dawson hit a hot streak when the Blue Devils needed it most. Princeton, led by slick sophomore guard Brian Taylor, led by six with 12 minutes remaining.

Then Dawson started shooting well from outside and center Randy Denton pulverized the Tigers inside. Denton got 29 points and Dawson 16; sophomore Alan Shaw came in to tie Denton for rebounding honors with 11.

State only led Atlantic Christian 39-36 at halftime, but the Wolfpack got 19 points in a row midway through the second half to break the Bulldogs.

Delaware gave the Terrapins a better game than was expected. The Blue Hens drew within six points with five minutes remaining.

O'Brien and Howard White got Lefty Driesell's forces rolling again and the Terps won by 13. Still got 19 points and 17 rebounds.

Swimmers top Duke behind freshmen

by Howie Carr
Sports Writer

Coach Pat Earey's varsity swimming team opened its season with a resounding 75-37 victory over Duke. To keep the score down against the undermanned Blue Devils, Earey used freshmen in many events, while few lettermen swam in their regular events.

In the opening event, a Tar Heel team of Bob Sumner, Andy Crutchfield, Boyd Steward and Gavin Quinn lost the 400-yard medley relay to Duke, which had a 3:54.6 time.

Freshmen Pete Barnes (10:51.2) and David Walmer (11:51.3) gave Carolina an 8-7 lead by sweeping the 1000-yard freestyle. Two other frosh, Marshall Peck and David Gentry, extended the Tar Heel margin by the first two places in the 200-yard freestyle. Peck's winning time was 1:56.

With a :22.8 time, Huff of Duke won the 50-yard freestyle, but Blue Dolphins Bob Dalrymple and Bob Ruth got the next two places.

Newcomer George Schiaffino was the victor in the individual medley as he recorded a 2:09.7 time. Blue Devil McLaughlin followed in second place, while Buzzy Boehme of Carolina was third.

Team captain Chuck Humphrey paced all divers in the one-meter competition with a total of 153.35 points. Freshman John Chambers scored 139.85 to take second, and at this point Carolina led, 34-17.

Tar Heel Jim Osborne's 2:05.2 time was good enough to win the 200-yard butterfly, and teammate John Thornton finished second. The Carolina newcomers continued their fine performance as Gleen Garella (49.7) and Bob Ruth (52.7) swept the 100-yard freestyle to give the Tar Heels a 50-19 advantage.

Duke rebounded to grab first place in the 200-yard backstroke, while UNC's Gerry Chapman and Buddy Breitz were the runners-up.

Mike Southard and David Walmer clinched the meet for Carolina as they finished one-two in the 500-yard freestyle. Their times were 5:11.6 and 5:42.3, respectively.

Tar Heel George Coxhead won the 200-yard breaststroke with a 2:34.2 mark.

Humphrey (209.45) and Chambers (176.05) repeated their diving sweep in the three-meter competition, as Duke's third place finisher trailed with 113.40.

A makeshift Carolina team of David Gentry, Karl Preiss, Scott Langley, and Ruth was defeated by Duke's foursome in the 400-yard freestyle relay. The Blue Devils were clocked at 3:29.7, while the Tar Heels finished at 3:33.4.

"We didn't use many varsity people today," explained Earey after the meet, "because we wanted to get an idea of what the freshmen could do in competition."

"Some of the newcomers did real well," Earey continued. "We're delighted with Barnes' performance in the 1000-yard freestyle, and Southard's in the 500-free. Garella looked good as a sprinter. Coxhead in the breaststroke, Schiaffino in the individual medley and butterfly Osborne also did well."

"Chambers is going to have to be reckoned with in diving this year," Earey concluded. "He showed good mechanics."
