

East Carolina cops mat honors

by David Zucchini
Sports Writer

East Carolina wrestlers swept five of the ten weight classifications in Saturday's second annual North Carolina Collegiate Wrestling Championships at the Armichael Auditorium to lead the Tar Heels to the strongest over-all team

Dooley rewarded with new 4-year pact

by Mark Whicker
Sports Writer

Duke and State, both ranked in the top 20 in pre-season polls, ran into roadblocks at Charlottesville and Auburn Saturday and lost their first games of the year.

Wake Forest topped Temple 71-55, South Carolina edged Notre Dame 85-82, Clemson whipped Mercer 61-46 and Maryland topped Buffalo in other ACC games.

Virginia, behind the strong rebounding of Bill Gerry and the clutch shooting of substitute Chip Miller, beat Duke in Charlottesville for the third straight year.

What galled Coach Bucky Waters the most was the way the Devils lost it. Duke missed 22 of its 24 field goal attempts in the final 11 minutes, blowing a 13-point lead.

Center Randy Denton, with 25 points, and sharpshooting sophs Rich O'Connor and Jeff Dawson built the Blue Devil lead.

But Gerry, who had 22 points and 11 rebounds, went to the foul line regularly in the late drive and sank eight shots.

Miller's 20-footer broke a 68-68 tie and gave the Cavaliers a lead which they never relinquished.

Auburn's John Mengelt, who tried his best to knock off South Carolina showing of the meet, which was organized and directed by Carolina Coach Sam Barnes.

Paving the way for ECU were division champions Ron Williams (118), Steve Morgan (134), Mike Spohn (150), Bill Hill (177) and Tim Gay (190).

Williams defeated Mike Paynter of Appalachian, 6-3, Morgan shaded Fred

Bauer, also of Appalachian, 3-2 in over-time, Spohn trounced ECU's Bruce Hall, 8-1, Hill flattened Paul Pratt of N.C. State, 7-2, while Gay surprised defending division champ Connie Hicks of State.

Appalachian followed ECU with three divisional winners, as Herb Singerman (126) decisioned ECU's Dan Monroe, 4-2, Alan Thompson (158) flattened Jack Jacobs of Davidson, 6-1, and heavyweight Bruce Schlogel downed defending champion Ed Newman of Duke, 4-2.

Rhode, who was voted the Outstanding Wrestler in last year's ACC tournament, was awarded the Joe Murnick Trophy as the top wrestler in Friday and Saturday's meet which attracted over 250 wrestlers from 16 North Carolina colleges and universities.

Carolina's most impressive showings came in the 142-lb, 150-lb and heavyweight divisions.

In the 142-lb class, Tar Heel junior Dicky Rumley reached the quarter-finals before falling with 2:30 elapsed in his bout to ECU's Robert Corbo, who eventually finished second in the division.

Carolina team captain Luther Gartrell rose to the semi-finals in the 150-lb class by virtue of his decisions over Frank Thompson of Appalachian and Elon's David Tew, but he was stopped 4-1 by eventual division winner Mike Spohn of ECU.

UNC heavyweights Charley Sara and Craig Schinaman mounted serious challenges in their divisions before succumbing in the semi-finals.

UNC coach Sam Barnes described the tournament as a sort of proving-grounds for his wrestlers, who were participating in their first meet of the year.

As a result Barnes was not overly distressed by his squad's failure to capture a division championship, but instead seemed confident and optimistic.

"I think we did pretty well," he stated, "considering the fact that we're so tournament green. Of the 16 boys that participated in the tournament, only three wrestled in last year's meet. We won 17 bouts and lost 21, and that's nearly 500."

The tournament, which is the first of its kind in the nation, left Barnes more than satisfied.

"The meet this year was even bigger and better than last year's," he claimed. "We had 50 more entries and four more schools and sold quite a few more tickets. It was a great success."

The Tar Heels entertain tournament "winner" East Carolina next Saturday in their next meet and then travel to Williamsburg, Va. the following Wednesday to meet Southern Conference powerhouse William and Mary.

Swimmers top USC for 3rd win in row

by Howie Carr
Sports Writer

The Carolina swimming team defeated South Carolina 59-54 Saturday, to record its third straight victory of the season.

The Tar Heels jumped off to a quick 7-0 lead by winning the 400-yard medley relay with a team of Butch Bristow, Rich Williams, Jim Osborne, and Mike Rawleigh.

Mike Southard won the 1000-yard freestyle as he turned in a 10:36.6 time, and Pete Barnes took second to stretch Carolina's lead to 15-1.

Gamecock Glenn Spears outdistanced Bob Nagle to win the 200-yard freestyle with a 1:51 time. Poole of South Carolina was third. USC also took first and third in the 50-yard freestyle, as Trond Williams finished ahead of Tar Heel Bruce Wigo to trim UNC's lead to 21-13.

Sophomore Gerry Chapman and freshman George Schiaffino gave Carolina a more comfortable 29-14 advantage as they swept the 200-yard medley with times of 2:06.3 and 2:07.2, respectively.

The one-meter diving was won by South Carolina Bob Mayfield, who finished with 248.95 points. Carolina captain Chuck Humphrey was a close second with 241.75, while Gamecock Moffat trailed with 227.5.

Tar Heels Dave Bedell and Osborne finished eight-tenths of a second apart as they swept the 200-yard butterfly. At this point Carolina held a commanding 40-21 lead.

With a 48.7 time, USC's Williams won his second event of the afternoon, the 100-yard freestyle. Wigo and Glenn Garella took the next two places.

Warner of South Carolina outswam Phil McMunigal and Bristow to finish first in the 200-yard backstroke. His time was 2:09. In the 500-yard freestyle, Spears' 5:04.1 time was enough to assure him of his second victory of the day, over Tar Heels Chapman and Southard.

Although the 200 yard breaststroke was won by Weinzeile of USC, the second- and third-place finishes of Williams and Mike Eddy moved Carolina to within one point of victory at 56-41.

The three-meter diving results were identical to the one-meter scores: Mayfield, Humphrey and Moffat in the top three slots. Humphrey's second place gave UNC an insurmountable 59-47 lead with one event left.

Duke, State suffer year's first upsets

Head football coach Bill Dooley was given a new four-year contract Saturday by recommendation of athletic director Homer Rice.

Dooley's old pact had one year to go, but Rice recommended the new pact after Carolina's 8-3 season and 59-34 triumph over Duke in the last game of the year.

The recommendation received the support and approval of the University Athletic Council and Chancellor J. Carlyle Sitterson.

Terms were not disclosed for the new contract, which runs through 1974.

The rebuilding job Dooley had before him in 1967 was unbelievable. The Tar Heels went 2-8 that year, beating Maryland and Duke, and 3-7 in 1968, upsetting Florida, Duke and Vanderbilt.

The first signs of a powerhouse came in '69, when the Tar Heels won four of their last five games to finish 5-5.

Then came this year's 8-3 season, with four straight wins at the beginning and the end. The Peach Bowl invited the Tar Heels to play in Atlanta Dec. 30 against Arizona State, after Carolina humiliated Duke Nov. 21.

Highlights of Dooley's career so far include three wins in four tries over Duke and a 5-3 record against the Southeastern conference.

After making All-SEC as a guard at Mississippi State, Dooley served as an assistant at his alma mater.

He travelled on to George Washington and Georgia, where he was the head offensive coach under his brother Vince.

THE FIRST MAN TO BECOME A WOMAN

EDWARD SMALL "THE" presents THE Christine JORGENSEN STORY

COLOR by DeLuxe United Artists

PHONE 942-3651

Varsity

121 E. FRANKLIN ST.

SUN THRU TUES. SHOWS

1:00 - 3:00 - 5:00

7:00 - 9:00

Crossword Puzzle

Answer to Saturday's Puzzle

ACROSS

1 Greek letter

4 Pronoun

6 Rent

11 Clever

13 Clothesmaker

15 Member of Parliament (abbr.)

16 Let go

18 Parent (colloq.)

19 Supporting that

21 Narrow, flat board

22 Chair

24 Courage

26 Mix

28 Devoured

29 Eagle's nest

31 Dinner course

33 Hypothetical force

34 Great Lake

36 Want

38 Compass point

40 Gaelic

42 Waste matter

45 Collection of facts

47 Girl's name

49 Small children

50 Part of harness

52 One opposed

54 Sun god

55 Prefix not

56 Holds back

59 Preposition

61 Conduct oneself properly

63 Chief

65 Tibetan priests

66 Symbol for tellurium

67 Fruit drink

DOWN

1 Scottish cap

2 Desire with eagerness

3 Guido's low note

4 Southwestern Indians

5 Trades for money

6 Post

7 Dance step

8 Falsehoods

9 Prefix not

10 Fruit

12 Chaldean city (abbr.)

14 Evaluated

17 Dines

20 Conflagration

23 Babylonian deity

24 A state (abbr.)

25 Weary

27 Regretted

30 Ireland

32 Saucy

35 Landed property (pl.)

37 Entrance

38 In India, master

39 Glossy paint

41 Sicilian volcano

43 Declared

44 Steamship (abbr.)

46 Part of "to be"

48 Tilted, as a cask

51 Kind of cheese

53 Arrow poison

57 Girl's name

58 A continent (abbr.)

60 Native metal

62 Exclamation

64 District Attorney (abbr.)

Luxurious Carolina

NOW PLAYING

1:15-3:45-6:20-9:00

BARBARA STREISAND

OMAR SHARIF

in

"FUNNY GIRL"

FOR YOUR CHRISTMAS LIST

- Scarce old books about the American West
- Scarce old books about North Carolina
- Scarce old books about the South
- Scarce Southern Fiction
- Scarce literary first editions
- Scarce old maps - from 100 to 300 years old
- Scarce old prints - etchings, engravings and hand colored prints

PLUS

Quite a lot of old books that look expensive and aren't

The Old Book Corner

137 A E. Rosemary St.

Opposite NCNB Drive-In Window

Open 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

ALPHA EPSILON DELTA INITIATION

MONDAY 7:00 226 Med. School

Christmas SAVINGS FOR YOU. SHOP US AND SAVE

ROSES

SAVE 40c

7 Ft. Scotch Pine Tree

SAVE $5.88

5 Roll Xmas Paper by Marcel

Reg. 54c

2/$1.00

Marry Xmas

Xmas Wreaths All Styles For Your Door

One $4.32 up

Reg. 1.99

SAVE 74c

Merry Midg Lite Set

Reg. $1.25

Children's Record Player

Plays 45 RPM

$15.94

MATTEL-O-PHONE

Reg. 7.96

Save 1.19

$6.77

VELVET CRISSY Save 1.69

DOLL with Hair $8.28

that grows Reg. 9.97

PESTONE ANTI-FREEZE

SAVE 33c

$1.66

Save 1.00

Clairol Instant Hair Setter

Reg. 16.87

$15.87

Mattel's (Save 66c) No. 1 TD DOLL

BABY GO BYE-BYE $12.28

Mattel's (Save 66c) No. 2 DOLL

BABY TENDER LOVE $8.28

GRR! GRR! GRR!

TCH! TCH! TCH! YOU PROMISED ME YOU'D DISCUSS THINGS AMICABLY IN FUTURE!

WE ARE, VICAR

THEN YOU DON'T NEED THAT POKER, FLO

TRUE - BUT I WOULD IF I WASN'T HOLDIN' IT!

© 1970 Daily Mirror Newspapers Ltd

T.M. & Publishers Hall Syndicate

12-7

PEANUTS

BONK!

THEN AGAIN THERE'S ALWAYS THE CHANCE THAT WE MIGHT NOT EVEN GET INVITED TO THE ROSE BOWL