

Director set for UNC tour

UNC News Bureau

Robert T. Allen of Boone will direct the North Carolina Chamber Singers on a concert-study tour of Europe Sept. 7-Dec. 22.

The UNC student musicians from both the Chapel Hill and Greensboro campuses will perform over 50 concerts in England, Sweden, Denmark, Holland, West Germany, Czechoslovakia, Austria, Italy and Switzerland.

Allen, formerly of Charlotte, is associated with both campuses as director of the University Chorus at Chapel Hill and as instructor in English at Greensboro. In Chapel Hill he has initiated a series of evensongs featuring the cantatas of J.S. Bach, and has completed studies for the M.M. degree in Choral Art under Dr. Lara Hoggard, Kenan professor in the UNC Department of Music.

Allen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R.T. Allen Jr. of Boone. Allen is assistant to the president of Appalachian State University.

Allen has also served for three years as choirmaster at the Westminster Presbyterian Church in Greensboro.

In addition to their concert engagements, Allen and the Carolina Chamber Singers will participate in North Carolina at Blowing Rock, Charlotte, Winston-Salem, Greensboro and Chapel Hill.

UNC's Department of Music at Chapel Hill and the Extension Division are sponsoring the tour.

Allen is vigorously conducting a campaign to raise funds in the state for the European tour and is receiving cooperation from several private sources, corporations, Jaycees and other civic groups.

Tuesday Evening Series

Piano trio to perform here

The North Carolina Piano Trio of North Carolina Central University (Durham) will perform at the University Tuesday Evening Series August 10, at 8 p.m. in Hill Hall.

Lilian Pruett, piano, Earl Sanders, violin, and Mary Gray White, cello, all members of NCCU's music faculty, comprise the trio which was formed in 1967 and performs regularly in the Triangle area.

As a special service to public schools in the area, the group frequently gives lecture-performances during the academic year.

A native of Yugoslavia, Lilian Pruett received her Ph.D. in musicology and has studied at the Mozarteum Academy, Salzburg, Austria, and at Vassar College.

Mary Gray White of Rochester, N.Y., also holds the Ph.D. in musicology from UNC, and has studied at Manhattan School of Music.

Earl Sanders of Chicago, Ill., a graduate of Roosevelt University, is a candidate for the Ph.D. degree in musicology at Indiana University.

The trio will perform Mozart's Trio II, in B-flat Major; Haydn's Trio III, in C Major; and Brahms' Trio in C Major, Op. 87.

The Series concerts are open to the public without charge and are made possible through the cooperation of UNC's Summer Activities Council.
