

Iceicle creations

With temperature hovering about the freezing point Thursday afternoon, the icy fingers of icicle stalactites hung from the edges of the roofs of shops along Franklin Street. (Staff Photo by George Brown)

News in brief

Fountain backs war powers bill

Second District U.S. Rep. L.H. Fountain announced this week that he has co-sponsored the introduction of a joint Congressional resolution designed to restore to the Congress the initiative to make decisions in regard to American involvement in war.

"This resolution would require the President to report to the Congress within 72 hours at the latest whenever American troops are deployed or dispatched under the President's existing emergency powers," Rep. Fountain stated.

"The Congress would then have 30 days in which to act, either approving or disapproving the President's action."

Under the resolution, any troops committed would have to be withdrawn unless the Congress specifically approves the Presidential move.

"I strongly feel that we must never let ourselves become involved in another war without appropriate affirmative action by the Congress," Rep. Fountain said. "This resolution, if finally enacted into law, would serve as a tangible reminder to the Congress of its rightful Constitutional powers and responsibilities."

"America must profit by the sorrowful lessons learned on the shores of Asia during the course of the past three decades and passage of this resolution, or one of similar intent, would go a long way toward insuring that the will of the American people is expressed on the crucial questions of war and peace," Rep. Fountain said.

filing a Parents' Confidential Statement.

> be recommended by the Dean of the School of Education;

> show willingness to teach in North Carolina one year for each year an award is accepted.

All applications and other forms needed to apply for the awards are available at the Student Aid Office, 300 Vance Hall, or the School of Education, 103 Peabody Hall. Interested students are urged to apply as soon as possible.

Memorial slated

A public commemoration march and memorial service to honor the birthday of Martin Luther King will be held in Chapel Hill this Sunday. Slated to begin 12:30 p.m., the marches will walk from St. Joseph CME Church, on the corner of Roberson and W. Rosemary Streets, to Memorial Hall by way of Franklin Street.

Dr. Marion Phillips, Minister of the Presbyterian Church of Reconciliation, will be the principal speaker at the memorial service to be held in Memorial Hall immediately following the march. Other invited speakers include: Rev. Robert Seymour, Chancellor N. Ferebee Taylor, Student Body President Richard Epps, and Mayor Howard Lee.

The Chapel Hill Board of Aldermen have also honored Dr. King by declaring Monday, January 15, Martin Luther King Day, and encouraging the observance of a moment of silence at noon on that date.

In the same resolution, the Aldermen resolved that all citizens "return to the ideals and great principles which Dr. King espoused and that we continue to work for liberation and freedom of mankind."

More information concerning the march and memorial service can be obtained from Rev. Charles L. Helton, 942-1290.

Aid for teachers

The Student Aid Office has announced that again this year awards are available through the North Carolina Prospective Teacher Scholarship Loan Program. This program is administered by the State Department of Public Instruction.

To qualify for the program a student must:

- > be a North Carolina resident student;
- > plan to teach in either the field of Early Childhood Education or Special Education;
- > have a cumulative GPA of 3.00 or above;
- > demonstrate financial need through

Last big rush

Spring rush this year appears to have generated about the same amount of participation as last year's spring rush, but this could be the last year the rush group is so large, according to Julie Jones, assistant dean of student life.

As of late Thursday afternoon, around 150 girls had signed up for rush. This figure is close to last year's number, but less than fall rush last semester. About two-thirds of the rushees are freshmen, as usual. However, next year, freshman women will be eligible for fall rush for the first time, making spring rush smaller.

Any UNC coed with a 2.0 average or better who is interested in signing up for rush should go by Julie Jones' office in OL Steele by noon today. There is a $1 registration fee.

Scotland grant

Grandfather Mountain Highland Games is offering a one-year graduate scholarship in an approved university in Scotland to a senior male of Scottish descent.

The scholarship recipient is generally from the Southern Appalachian area and is hosted at the Grandfather Mountain Highland Games held in Linville, N.C., July 13-15.

Deadline for applications is April 15. Applications can be obtained by writing H. Graham Morison, Grandfather Mountain Highland Games, 1776 K Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20006.

Student killed

Flinn Louis Harrington of 1309 Granville West was killed in an automobile accident on Jan. 2. The son of A.F. Harrington of Rt. 1, Elon College, Harrington was a graduate student in speech.

Adult study
YMCA schedules variety of courses

Registration for a series of eighteen adult study courses is currently being offered by the Chapel Hill-Carrboro YMCA to a limited number of participants. Classes include:

- English for foreigners: Monday and Wednesday mornings, 10-11:30, beginning Jan. 15.
- Guitar: Monday, 8-9 p.m., beginning Jan. 15.
- History via music: Tuesday, 8-9 p.m., beginning Jan. 16.
- Judo: Monday and Thursday, 7:30-9:30 p.m., beginning Jan. 15.
- Oil painting: Wednesday, 10 a.m. to

- 12 noon, beginning Jan. 17.
- Painting: Wednesday, 7:30-9:30 p.m., beginning Jan. 17.
- Painting: Tuesday, 10 a.m.-12 noon, beginning Jan. 16.
- Ladies physical fitness: Tuesday and Thursday, 9:30-11 a.m., beginning Jan. 16.
- Ladies physical fitness: Wednesday and Friday, 9:30-11 a.m., beginning Jan. 17.
- Ladies physical fitness: Tuesday and Thursday, 7:30-9 p.m., beginning Jan. 16.
- Pottery: Four series of classes, on Monday, 7:30-9:30 p.m., beginning Jan. 15; Tuesday, 7:30-9:30 p.m., beginning Jan. 16; Wednesday, 9:30-11:30 a.m., beginning Jan. 17; and Thursday, 7:30-9:30 p.m., beginning Jan. 18.
- Intermediate pottery: Wednesday, 7:30-9:30 p.m., beginning Jan. 17.
- Weaving: Tuesday, 10 a.m.-12 noon, beginning Jan. 16.
- Beginning yoga I: Monday, 9:30-11 a.m., beginning Jan. 15.
- Beginning yoga II: Monday, 11 a.m.-12:30 p.m., beginning Jan. 15.

Interested persons should contact the YMCA office immediately for registration or further information by calling 929-3788 or 929-8104 or visiting the office on Spring Lane.

Campus Calendar

The Campus Calendar is starting from scratch this semester. All organizations must resubmit announcements for publication.

Today's activities

Shabbat Communal Dinners continue in 1973. If you would like to join in this spirited affair tonight, call the Bayit, 967-6117.

Interested in Kibbutz? A national representative from Israel's Kibbutz Aliyah department, Mr. Maoz Haviv, will be on campus tonight at 9 p.m. to speak to students. Come to the Hillside House, 210 W. Cameron.

Interviews for Summer Camp Work: Mr. Keith Glover will interview applicants for Methodist summer camp jobs today from 2:30 to 5:30 at the Wesley Foundation. For appointments, call 942-2152.

Sorority Rush—All interested women students sign up now in O1 Steele Building. Deadline is today at noon.

Coming activities

U.N.C. Outing Club will have an informal meeting at the Bacchae at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday. Beer, talk and a good time. Rain, sleet or snow.

There will be a meeting of the complete Black Ink staff, editors and staff writers, on Sunday, Jan. 14 at 7:30 p.m. Please be on time. All people interested in working on the staff this semester are welcome.

There will be an Intramural Managers' meeting on Monday night, Jan. 15, at 7 in 304 Woolen. All managers must attend.

There will be a meeting of Washington Witness at 7:30 on Monday, Jan. 15, upstairs in the YMCA-YWCA on campus. All persons interested in ending the Vietnam war are cordially invited and needed.

Alice S. Rossi, sociologist from Goucher College, will lead a seminar on "A Sociographic Approach to Teaching and Scholarship on Women's History" in Hamilton Hall 351 on Tuesday, Jan. 16. On Wednesday, Jan. 17, she will discuss "Academic Women in 1973: Progress and Prospects" at 8 p.m. in the Newman Center.

Yackety Yack Staff Meeting—Required of all staff secretaries on Sunday, Jan. 14, at 7:30 in Room 213 of the Carolina Union. Anyone wishing to join the staff is also urged to attend.

Meeting of the UNC Rugby team at 8 p.m. Monday in Room 217 of the Union.

UNC Karate Club: Practice in the Tin Can, 5:30 on Monday and Thursday. There are openings for new members, both advance and beginning. For information call Jim White, 933-3041, 309 Hamilton Hall.

Meeting of the Carolina Union Films Committee on Tuesday, Jan. 16, in Room 206 of the Union.

The Thursday Experience of Worship resumes at Battle House January 18 at 6:30 p.m.

The Baptist Student Union will hold an open house for all interested persons on Sunday, Jan. 14, at 4 p.m. at the Battle House.

P.R.C. '73

"Eye See the Light Show Co."

with

MOREHEAD PLANETARIUM

Advance Tickets Available at Student Union and Planetarium Box Office

The Morehead Planetarium gratefully acknowledges sponsorship of this ad by Quality Cleaners, Town and Country Shopping Center

$2.00
8 & 10 p.m.
Jan.
12, 13, 14
19, 20, 21
26, 27, 28

TEXT BOOK BUY BACK!!!

Got Some Old Texts
That Ya'd like to turn into CASH...

Barnes and Noble Book Stores will be buying Texts at the Student Stores Thursday - Friday -
Saturday - Monday - Tuesday
Hours: 9-5 daily

STUDENT STORES
UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA

SERVING YOU THE STUDENTS!