

Sign-up lottery slated

by Linda Livengood
Staff Writer

The order of dorm participation in the room sign-up lottery to be held this week has been announced. The lottery will take place from 12 noon through 4 p.m. Tuesday through Friday in rooms 213 and 215 of the Union.

Dorm selection was random and all residents have a fair chance to obtain low lottery numbers.

Administrative sources estimate 2,500 women and 3,700 men will take part in the lottery. Men and women drawing numbers below 200 will have a good chance of obtaining a room in the area they want.

Students planning to take part in the lottery must pay the required $25 deposit at the University Cashier's Office before choosing a number.

Persons desiring to room together next fall and who wish to take their chances with the lottery are advised to appear together. Each will be allowed to choose a number, with the lowest number being used.

Numbers chosen in the lottery are not binding. If the student feels the number he or she receives is low enough, plans should be made to sign up for a room Wednesday through Friday, April 25 through 27. This phase of the sign-up procedure will be held at the housing office in Bynum Hall.

Dorm lottery order is as follows:
Tuesday, April 3: Carr, Manly, Winston, Stacy, Whitehead, Cobb, Alderman, Parker, Spencer and Granville men.

Wednesday, April 4: Lewis, Graham, Mangum, Joyner, Granville women, and men and women in Morrison.

Thursday, April 5: Ruffin, Aycock, McIver, Kenan, Connor, Ehringhaus women, and men and women from James.

Friday, April 6: Avery, Old East, Old West, Grimes, Teague, Alexander, Everett and Ehringhaus men.

For your information

The Human Sexuality Information and Counseling Service (HSICS) is looking for students and interested townspeople to work as counselors or coordinators of service activities. There are openings for trainees for assistant directors and trainees in sex counseling.

Volunteers chosen this spring will begin training in June and take full responsibilities in August.

Applications for administrative and counseling positions will be available this week in room 255C in the Carolina Union.

FYI FYI FYI

A representative of the Case Western Reserve University School of Medicine will be on campus Tuesday, April 17, to talk with undergraduate minority students interested in medical school.

Board to discuss park plan

by Ken Allen
Staff Writer

The Chapel Hill Board of Aldermen will receive a plan for the development of Umstead Park when they meet in a joint meeting with the Planning Board, the Appearance Commission, and the Recreation Commission at 7:30 tonight in the Municipal Building.

The Comprehensive Planning Committee and the Zoning Committee

both recommend approval of the Recreation Department's plan for the development of Umstead Park, which includes the realignment of Umstead Drive at an approximate cost of $60,000.

The board will also discuss a possible reorganization of the planning process with the Planning Board, the Appearance Commission and the Recreation Commission.

The Planning Board will also request that the Board of Aldermen deny a request for a special use permit for construction of Village West Apartments and ask approval of the preliminary and final plans for Farrington Road Estates.

There will also be a status report on drainage; consideration of selection of a town auditor; the annual report of the Recreation Department; consideration of legislative bills to repeal food tax, tax property of medical services, uniformly tax bank property and tax relief for elderly land owners; and hear a request for funding for the North Carolina Botanical Garden.

You Can't Miss It
Make a turn off Franklin onto South Columbia, then a left at Cameron Avenue. Head south on campus at South Building, keep straight ahead on the red brick road until you see it. You can't miss it, Mister, you just can't miss it.
