

Face Meredith today

Netters capture season opener

by Susan Shackelford
Sports Writer

Coming off a 9-0 opening victory over Peace College, UNC's women's tennis team, today, tangles with Meredith College at 3:00 p.m. in Raleigh.

Last Thursday the netters blanked Peace in a match that demonstrated the outstanding depth of Carolina's 73-4 squad. With three frosh performers filling the top four slots, the team maintained their aplomb in capturing wins every singles and doubles contest.

The Heels played without standouts,

Margaret Newbold, Jane Preyer, Stewart Smith, Kay Kernode and Nina Cloaninger.

Freshman Jean Scott, on court one, eased out tough Joan Johnson with a score of 6-4, 6-3. On court two, Cullowhee, N.C. native, Beth Hamilton, cruised past Sandy Gay, 6-1, 6-0, with an "almost flawless personal performance," said Coach Frances Hogan.

Another freshman, Rebecca Garcia, playing the third position, beat opponent Camille Patterson with a mark of 6-4, 6-0. On the fourth court freshman Debbie Dunitz earned a 6-1, 6-2 victory over Mary Kiffney.

Veteran performer, Lillian Murray, topped Peace's Joyce Johnson in a 6-2, 6-2 match on court five. Dana Murdock, not a power hitter, but a power thinker, according to Coach Hogan, finished strong to overcome foe, Margaret Bogle, 7-5, 6-2.

After shutting out Peace in the singles competition, the Tar Heels won all three doubles matches with identical pro match scores of 8-3.

"The team of Lillian Murray and Beth Hamilton," said Coach Hogan, "proved to be an excellent combination." They defeated Joan Johnson and Sarah Lamm on the first doubles court.

Ellen Stone and Joan Barnes pooled talents to beat the team of Joyce Johnson and Kiffney on court two. While, on court three, Bev Talbott and Dunitz claimed victory over Liz Hegele and Sandy Gay.

Today against Meredith, Carolina's netters will again be without the services of Newbold, Preyer, Smith and Cloaninger. Margaret Newbold, who suffered a chipped bone in her knee last week during a softball game, is sidelined for the remainder of the fall season. The others are recuperating from illnesses.

Meredith is very comparable in ability to Peace, said Hogan. They have outstanding players, Sarah and Dora Shell (sisters), occupying the top two places, respectively, she continued.

"I feel good about last Thursday's match," Coach Hogan said of the team's debut. "Peace was a much-improved team for last year. I think we had an excellent all-round day."

Last fall the Tar Heels beat Meredith 6-3 in Chapel Hill. Carolina won each match in the singles competition, while, dropping the three doubles contests.

Preyer overcame Sarah Shell 6-3, 6-1, and Kay Kernode took Dora Shell 6-4, 6-1. However, in doubles play, Shell and Shell stymied one of UNC's duos, 8-0.

Ruggers top W&L

Many a Carolina heart did falter as the sun slowly crept above the Sabbath horizon. Were not the gathering dark clouds but an ominous portent of disaster and destruction? Ah, in truth they were my noble readers, but not for the Carolina rugger! There were two able foes pitted against our lads on Sunday but each was stricken down in its turn.

In the first match Carolina faced an improved Washington and Lee side, but the Blue's size and speed made short work of the Virginians. Veteran Bill Cannell opened the scoring with a try and was soon followed by a host of Tar Heels including Tom Ricketts, George Crapps, Len Anderson, Tom Atkins, and Tom Maier. Yet a forty-yard scoring play by Pete Thompson and Gra Patterson was surely the finest of the game.

The second match in theory was to be rougher than the first. After last spring when the B's were unbeaten, untied and almost unscored upon (266 points to their 4), it was decided that the ruffian crew should be pitted against some nobler opposition.

The battle opened with a dazzling run by UNC's John Arzoico. Chris Bugge converted, and Carolina led 6-0. The rest of the first half was hotly contested and only a desperate tackle by Blue fullback John Kistler prevented a Louisville score.

In the second half, Carolina began to take charge. The scrum led by Tom Erige dominated Louisville's pack. Thomas added another try and the Heels would have scored again had not wing Mike Shadroun tried to run over his man, rather than around him. Nonetheless, the final score went Blues' way, 12-0.

The HP-45 Advanced Scientific Pocket Calculator

Want better grades in science, engineering or math? The HP-45 can help, because...

- It solves all types of scientific and engineering math problems! Does vector arithmetic. Calculates the mean and standard deviation, factorials, powers, square roots and reciprocals. Automatically converts U.S./metric constants, and polar/rectangular coordinates. Performs log, trig and math functions. And it does so much more!
 - It displays answers in fixed or scientific notation! Has selective round-off capability (0 to 9 places).
 - It replaces log and trig tables! They're pre-programmed in. No interpolation required.
 - Its 14 registers remember intermediate solutions! 9 of them are addressable for selective storage and retrieval of data. Register arithmetic is fast and easy... it eliminates pencil-and-paper calculations!
 - Its accuracy—up to 10 digits—surpasses that of slide rules and most other calculators! It reduces mistakes. Handles numbers as small as 10⁻⁹⁹... as large as 10⁹⁹—200 decades!
 - It offers computer-like power! At a fraction of the cost. And there's no waiting to use it.
 - It saves time! Up to 50 times faster than a slide rule. Solves complex problems in seconds.
 - It operates silently... anywhere! Perfect for classroom, library or dorm. Runs on rechargeable batteries or AC.
- It's as easy to use as an ordinary pocket calculator—but it's like having your own computer!
- Come in and try it!

Harriers win

Carolina swept five of the top seven places in a dual win over N.C. State and Virginia last Saturday in Raleigh. UNC's Dave Hamilton paced the field with a time of 26:06 over the five mile course. Tony Waldrop came in second at 26:23. Kevin McLee, Joe Garcia and Tommy Ward came in fourth, sixth and seventh respectively to fill out the rest of Carolina's scoring.

Coach Joe Hilton was generally pleased with the performance of the team, particularly Hamilton's. Hilton said "He has improved a lot in the past year. As for the rest of the team there were a lot of new guys feeling their way."

Scoring: UNC-20; NCSU-39 UNC-15; UVAA-47 NCSU-21; UVA-34.
