Cinema

"Fantasia." Carolina Theatre. Walt Disney's setting of music to animation smacks a bit of cultcha, but it is a beautiful, imaginative work all the same. 2:21, 4:30, 6:39 & 8:48. $2.

"Heavy Traffic." Varsity Theatre. Animated portrait of New York as a city of freeps. A brilliant and original cartoon, one of the best of all time. 1,3,5,7,9. $2. Ends Tuesday. Late show Friday and Saturday: "Play It Again, Sam." 11:15. $1.50.

"American Wilderness." Plaza I. The makers of this film say, "We don't have any artistic ability, and we don't need any." Enough said. 4:30, 7 & 9:15. $2. Ends Thursday.

"Executive Action." Plaza II. Semi-fiction story of the John F. Kennedy assassination. It's all really terrible but the worst offender is the script, with its heavy-handed hindsight irony. 3:30, 5:25, 7:20 & 9:15. $2. Ends Thursday.

"Magnum Force." Plaza III. The sequel to "Dirty Harry," which was a masterpiece of its genre. This film, however, is a pretentious revolting piece of junk. 2:30, 4:50, 7:10 & 9:30. $2. Ends Wednesday, Jan. 23.

"Ivan the Terrible, Part II." Chapel Hill Film Friends. The conclusion of the Sergei Eisenstein magnificent epic. Music by Prokofiev. Friday at 9:30, Saturday at 11:30 in Carroll Hall. $1.50.

Free Flicks: Friday, "The Gold Rush." Perhaps the greatest Chaplin film set in the days of the Klondike Gold Rush. Saturday, "The Girls." This Swedish import deals with actresses on a tour of "Lysistrata" who gradually discover the play working in their personal lives. Sunday, "Repulsion." Confused by her feelings for men, a girl is driven to the brink of insanity by her fears and fantasies. All flicks at 6:30 & 9 in the Great Hall.

Wednesday at 8, which is sold out.

Mac Frampton Trio

Frampton tickets available

The Mac Frampton Triumvirate will perform at 8 p.m. Sunday, Jan. 20 in Memorial Hall as the third presentation of the 1973-74 Carolina Union Series. Tickets, $2, are available at the Union desk.

Since their premiere performance at the National Entertainment Conference convention last February, the trio has been an overwhelming success, playing to full houses across the United States and Canada.

Pianist Mac Frampton, a Bronze Medal winner in the 1969 Van Cliburn International Piano Competition, heads the talented ensemble. After his competition success, he made his orchestral debut as soloist with the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra, receiving rave notices.

Numerous solo and guest appearances with national orchestras and a six-month tour as musical director of the road company of "I Do! I Do!" led, finally, to the formation of his own group.

The Triumvirate's concerts reveal that it's really Frampton's show, but his sidemen never go unnoticed. Phil Perkins, a graduate of the Cincinnati Conservatory and former percussionist with the Cincinnati Symphony, provides sensational backup on drums. Doug Smith, a concert pianist-turned-bassist and transcendental meditation devotee, is the group's bass player.

Germany during the rise of Nazi power. This film won eight Academy awards, one each to Minelli and Joel Grey.

The Go-Between, scheduled for April 7, deals with a young boy's vacation at the turn of the century and his role as "postman" carrying notes between a farmer and an aristocratic woman. This Cannes-award winning film stars Julie Christie, Alan Bates and Margaret Leighton.

The final Super Sunday offering, Sleuth, is set for April 21. It is a great, romping mystery featuring stellar performances by Michael Caine and Lawrence Olivier.

Ken Russell Festival

Tickets, 50 cents per flick, for the Ken Russell Film Festival are now on sale at the Carolina Union desk. The three films are scheduled for 8 p.m. Jan. 21-23 in the Great Hall.

The Russell films are Women In Love, starring Glenda Jackson and Alan Bates; The Music Lovers, starring Glenda Jackson and Richard Chamberlain and Savage Messiah, the life story of sculptor Henri Gaudier.

Super Sunday

Tickets, $3, for the Carolina Union's Super Sunday film series are on sale at the Carolina Union desk. All Super Sunday flicks will be shown at 6:30 & 9 in the Great Hall. Tickets will go off sale Sunday, Jan. 27.

Sounder, to be shown Jan. 27, heads off the Super Sunday list. Cicely Tyson and Paul Winfield star in the story of a black family in Louisiana in the 1930's. A poignant film that will not be easily forgotten.

The Effect of Gamma Rays on Man-In-The-Moon Marigolds, Feb. 10, stars Joanne Woodward as Betty the Loon who finds her life falling away and her daughters abandoning her. A powerful and moving film.

Cries And Whispers, Feb. 24, is Bergman's film of four women haunted by their pasts in an atmosphere of waiting and death. This flick stars Liv Ullman and Ingrid Thulin.

Cabaret, scheduled for March 24, stars Liza Minelli as a nightclub singer in
