Women's health clinic opens

by Helen Watkins Feature Writer

What are the pros and cons of the Pill? How effective is the I.U.D.? What do other college women feel is the most natural method of birth control?

For all UNC women plagued with these or similar questions about contraception, venereal disease, abortion or human sexuality, help is in sight. The Women's Health Clinic, an extension of the Student Health Service's medical and gynecological services, begins tonight.

The new clinic is based on a

"Fantasia." Carolina Theatre. Walt Disney's setting of music to animation smacks a bit of culcha, but it is a beautiful, imaginative work all the same. 2:21, 4:30, 6:39 & 8:48. $2.

"Heavy Traffic." Varsity Theatre. Animated portrait of New York as a city of freaks. A brilliant and original cartoon, one of the best of all time. 1,3,5,7,9. $2. Ends today. Late show Friday and Saturday: "Play It Again, Sam." 11:15. $1.50.

"American Wilderness." Plaza I. The makers of this film say, "We don't have any artistic ability, and we don't need any." Enough said. 4:30, 7 & 9:15. $2. Ends

"Executive Action." Plaza II. Semi-fiction story of the John F. Kennedy assassination. It's all really terrible but the worst offender is the script, with its heavy-handed hindsight irony. 3:30, 5:25, 7:20 & 9:15. $2 Ends

"Magnum Force." Plaza III. The sequel to "Dirty Harry," which was a masterpiece of its genre. This film, however, is a pretentious revolting piece of junk. 2:30, 4:50, 7:10 & 9:30. $2. Ends Wednesday, Jan. 23.

"Ivan the Terrible, Part II." Chapel Hill Film Friends. The conclusion of the Sergei Eisenstein magnificent epic. Music by Prokofiev. Friday at 9:30, Saturday at 11:30 in Carroll Hall. $1.50.

"Such a Gorgeous Kid Like Me." Alternative Cinema. Francois Truffaut's black comedy about a female murderer. Good reviews from the New York critics. Friday at 7, Saturday at 2, 4:30, 7 & 9:30. $1.50.

Free Flicks: Friday, "The Gold Rush." Perhaps the greatest Chaplin film set in the days of the Klondike Gold Rush. Saturday, "The Girls." This Swedish import deals with actresses on a tour of "Lysistrata" who gradually discover the play working in their personal lives. Sunday, "Repulsion." Confused by her feelings for men, a girl is driven to the brink of insanity by her fears and fantasies. All flicks at 6:30 & 9 in the Great
