

Chance for revenge: Heels host Wake

by Elliott Warnock
Sports Editor

Staff photo by Bill Wren

Wake's Carl Stamp...

Last time I told you Wake Forest was for real, it was about the old Deacon football machine which fell apart in front of Carolina to the tune of 42-0.

Look, as Rocky the Flying Squirrel would say to Bullwinkle, "this time for sure."

Yea . . . after all, the Deacs have only dropped three straight Atlantic Coast Conference games heading into tonight's 8 p. m. league match-up in Carmichael Auditorium. Things had been looking up for Wake Forest, right up to the finals of the Big Four Tournament held in Greensboro over the holidays. The Deacs had been 6-1, losing only to Florida State before heading into the tournament.

After beating Duke 64-61 in the semi-finals, the Deacs had to take their lumps the next night as State ho-hummed its way to a 91-73 victory following some early-game scares when Wake took the initial lead.

Virginia was next to beat Wake Forest, 91-84 in Charlottesville, then Maryland grabbed a 72-59 win from the faltering Deacs in Winston-Salem.

Now before you think the Deacons are going to come into Carmichael and play dead, remember the 54-52 slowdown upset Wake Forest handed to Carolina in the first round of last year's ACC tournament.

The Deacons, under Head Coach Carl Tacy, have amassed wins against teams like Duke, Penn, Rice and West Virginia. This year's edition of Wake Forest should be tougher than last year's batch.

Foremost among the Deacons is Tony Byers, Wake's All-ACC candidate at guard, who leads the team in scoring, pumping in an average 20 points a game with a 50.3 percentage.

Byers was the key factor in last year's upset, controlling the tempo of the slowdown game.

Even though Wake succeeded with the slowdown in last year's match up in Greensboro, Carolina head coach Dean Smith doubts the Deacons will try it again in Carmichael, especially with the addition of 6-8 Carl Stamp, a junior college transfer.

"Stamp gives them the big man they needed to go with the team's outstanding quickness," says Smith. "The best indication I know of Wake's quickness is the fact that Duke chose to hold the ball in the game with Wake. I think Wake Forest now thinks it has the personnel to play with anyone on its schedule."

Rounding out Wake's front line personnel are Mike Parrish and Lee Foye, both 6-6, while at the other guard spot along with Byers is 6-0 freshman Skip Brown, who has been averaging 11.4 points a game for the Deacons.

Carolina is currently ranked fifth in the nation, now holding a record of 10 wins against only one defeat, that being to third-ranked North Carolina State, and Smith is worried about possible Tar Heel complacency.

"Sometimes when you play on the road then come home, you have a tendency to relax," says Smith. "We can't afford that against a team as good as Wake Forest."

...and Tony Byers

Tony Byers, Wake Forest's stellar performer, found John O'Donnell to be quite a pest last season. Byers and company will be in Carmichael Auditorium tonight to test O'Donnell and his Tar Heel teammates in an 8 p. m. ACC shootout.

Moe Rivers booked

RALEIGH (UPI)—North Carolina State guard Moe Rivers has been charged with shoplifting a 35-cent aspirin bottle and released on bond pending a trial.

State Coach Norman Sloan said the 20-year-old guard had been suspended from the team for one game.

According to Richard E. Elsener, head of the Merchants Detective Agency, Rivers was stopped after he left the Mission Valley Convenience Store Monday night.

Rivers was charged with larceny of property under $200, a misdemeanor.

His trial was set for Feb. 14 in Wake County District Court.

The UNC wrestling team will grapple N.C.

State this Saturday at 8 p. m. in Carmichael Auditorium.

The Wolfpack will provide the toughest opposition of the season for Bill Lam's young mat men who have already won more matches than last year. The Tar Heels defeated Furman and Western Carolina last weekend to run their record to 3-0.

Carolina's women's basketball team opens its home season this Friday in a 7:30 p. m. contest with East Carolina in Carmichael Auditorium.

UNC stands 1-0, having defeated North Carolina State last week, 59-46, in Raleigh. The Heels were led by Marsha Mann with 19 points and 22 rebounds. Freshman Dawn Allred scored 18.

LEARN to FLY!

Begin today with the
CHAPEL HILL FLYING CLUB

- Co-op, Non-profit
- Four Airplanes
- No Minimum Rental
- Full-Time Instructor

- Training Curriculum Oriented To University Community

For information and demo ride call:
968-9386 or 967-6339 or visit Horace Williams Airport

Come grow with our bank!

We're C&S, the second fastest growing major bank in the country. And we plan to quadruple in size during this decade. We're the kind of bank that early overcame the stuffy, conservative image held by banks in general. The reason for the difference is the kind of people who've built C&S: a new breed of bankers who had the imagination to think of new things to do, new ways to do the old things, and the courage to try them.

But what does all of this have to do with you? Perhaps a lot—if you choose to join Banking's New Breed and come grow with us! Stop by your school placement office. We will be on your campus soon.

C&S

The Citizens and Southern National Bank
Management Recruiting
99 Annex
Atlanta, Georgia 30399

carolina union presents

MAC FRAMPTON TRIUMVIRATE

Sunday, January 20
8:00 pm Memorial Hall

Reserved Seats $2.00      Tickets at Union Desk      At The Door

Spare an hour
twice a week...

TUTOR

Elementary, Junior or Senior
High School Students

Contact Room 102 UNC Y-Building for further information.

Crossword Puzzler

Answer to Yesterday's Puzzle

- ACROSS
- 1 African antelope
  - 4 Note of scale
  - 6 Overseas message
  - 11 Mend
  - 13 Foragers
  - 15 Suffix occurring in names of diseases
  - 16 Wall border
  - 18 New Deal agency (abbr.)
  - 21 Girl's name
  - 22 Printer's measure
  - 23 Callings
  - 28 Siltch
  - 29 Maltred
  - 31 Prepare for print
  - 33 Note of scale
  - 34 Negative prefix
  - 35 Demon
  - 36 Nahoor sheep
  - 39 Exists
  - 40 Note of scale
  - 41 Sailors (colloq.)
  - 43 Lease
  - 45 Female sheep
  - 47 Holds back
  - 50 Gram (abbr.)
  - 52 Young salmon
  - 53 The urial
  - 56 Danish island
  - 55 Tapestry
  - 60 Preposition
  - 61 Earthquake
  - 63 Indolent
  - 65 Cubic meter
  - 66 Pronoun
  - 67 indefinite number
- DOWN
- 1 Facial expression
  - 2 Approach

3 Above
4 Striped animal
5 Turkish decree
6 Absurd reports
7 Man's nickname
8 Terry
9 Inclines
10 Finish
12 Cooled lava
14 Conjunction
17 Arrow poison
19 High card
24 Mine entrance
25 Transgress
27 Ireland
28 Direction
29 Assistant
32 Mountain lake
36 Inname
37 Make ready
42 Heavenly body
44 Worm
46 Long-legged bird
48 Dart
49 Angry
51 European capital
54 Stockings
55 Again
56 Hair
57 Bitter vetch
59 Spanish for "yes"
62 Conjunction
64 Preposition

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20
19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28
29	30	31	32	33	34	35	36	37	38
39	40	41	42	43	44	45	46	47	48
49	50	51	52	53	54	55	56	57	58
59	60	61	62	63	64	65	66	67	68
69	70	71	72	73	74	75	76	77	78
79	80	81	82	83	84	85	86	87	88
89	90	91	92	93	94	95	96	97	98
99	100	101	102	103	104	105	106	107	108

Distr. by United Feature Syndicate, Inc. 74