Thursday, January 24, 1974 The Dally Tar Heel

Discrimination top issue UNC students to lobby

by Henry Farber Staff Writer

A lobby assembled by the Student Government State Affairs Committee will act on age discrimination in auto insurance rates, the sale of beer on campus, out-ofstate tuition and other issues at the 1974 session of the N.C. General Assembly, said committee co-chairman Gary Thomas.

The committee is working with a similar group representing N.C. State University's issue and the beer proposal.

The main issue being pushed by the committee is "an end to age discrimination in auto insurance rates," said Thomas.

Thomas explained that drivers from ages 16-25 pay higher set rates than drivers over 25. "A driver under 25-years-old with a clean record pays a higher rate than a driver over 25 with a drunk driving conviction," said Thomas.

The committee will also lobby to eliminate student government on the insurance rates sex and marital status as criteria for insurance rates. Thomas said.

Thomas said his immediate concern is a bill that would allow State universities to sell beer in student unions, or in campus cafeterias. Thomas will meet with Sen. Eddie Knox (D-Mecklenburg) tomorrow to consider drafting the bill.

Two years ago the Assembly decided to allow private schools to sell beer and wine on campus, said Associate Dean James O. Cansler of Student Affairs. But the legislators refused to allow State university campuses to do so, he said.

Thomas said he has received "favorable indications" from some University administration officials and Student Union Director Howard Henry concerning their support of the proposed bill.

He said the Student Government committee will also support proposed legislation which could lower or eliminate non-resident tuition.

The committee will also lobby for bills dealing with the management of the N.C. Coastal and mountain areas, Thomas said. Thomas, a freshman from Fuduay-Varina, presides over the State Affairs Committee jointly with Larry McMahon, a junior from Morganton.

CGC will consider judicial reform bill

by David Ennis Staff Writer

The Campus Governing Council will rule tonight on the Judicial Reform document which was approved Monday by the CGC Judicial Committee.

Bill Snodgrass, council member, tried unsuccessfully to have the document amended in two Judicial Committee meetings held earlier this week.

He had proposed the inclusion of a student bill of rights and other changes in the document. One of the major changes proposed would remove illegal drug offenses from the jurisdiction of student honor courts.

UNC student named to county grand jury

A UNC student has been named to the Orange County Grand Jury.

Thomas Vass, 23, a graduate student in the Department of City and Regional Planning, will serve a six-month term ending July 1, 1974. Courthouse sources indicate he is the first student to serve on the panel. bring in felony cases.

Snodgrass said that he would continue his efforts to have the document amended when it goes before the CGC tonight for approval.

"How far I push will depend on how the other members feel about the document," he said. "I'm not an abrasive person, but I cannot support the document as it is presently written," he said.

Snodgrass said he will concentrate on the student rights aspect of his proposals rather than the drug offense sections.

"The general tone of the document is negative," he said. "It doesn't safeguard the rights of students, in my mind."

Snodgrass said that he still thinks the document should include a student bill of rights. He also hopes to tighten restrictions on the availability of student records.

Snodgrass said that fear of a veto by the administration should not prevent the CGC from changing the document.

"If this is the guiding argument or rationale against changing the document," he said, "student government is not serving the students."

The council is also expected to consider and vote on the nomination of Richard Letchworth as chairman of the Board of Elections at the 7:30 meeting. Depending on the amount of time taken The 18-member grand jury which meets for consideration of Judicial Reform, the CGC might also consider a resolution on only).

227-3011.

Today's Activities

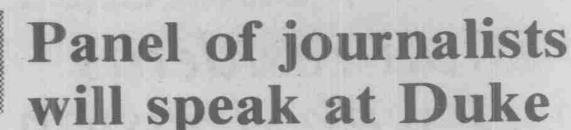

Interviews for staff positions on SHE, the Association of Women Students' monthly publication, will be held from 2 to 4 p.m. today. Those interested should come by the AWS office in Suite A, Student Union.

Six to eight men and women are needed to improvise a play on a theme, directed by Harry Shitman. Auditions will be held today at 8 p.m. in Graham Memorial.

The Undergraduate Political Science Association will meet today at 8 p.m. in third floor Hamilton Lounge.

The Roe Chapter of Alpha Phi Omega will hold rush on today and tomorrow from 7 to 9 p.m. in the basement of Smith Building. All interested people are invited to come by and talk to the brothers.

ice manager for SCAU. Typing required; an Suite C of the Union, today and tomorrow 1 to 5 p.m.

Riders and carpoolers are wanted in the Mann's Chapel Road area. Call John Goldrosen at 968-9140 (during the day The Duke Fellows in Communications, a panel of journalists headed by former NBC If interested in carpooling from the University Drive Ares in newsman Sander Vanocur, will speak in an informal question-and-answer session at 4:30 p.m. Friday in Page Auditorium at Duke.

It's ice cream weather in North Carolina again

If interested in a car pool from Raleigh to Chapel Hill, Monday through Friday, call Elaine at 942-5456 between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. or 787-4518 after 6 p.m. and on weekends. The 16 journalists include Harry Ashmore, president of the Center for the Persons interested in starting a car pool from the Burlington-Graham area to UNC with schedules similar to 8 a.m.-1 p.m. on Monday-Friday should contact Tony Foriest at Study of Democratic Institutions; David Broder, Washington Post columnist and political reporter; Jules Witcover, The Washington Post and Ben Bagdikian, Persons wanting to start a car pool from Parkwood to UNC.

8 s.m.-5 p.m. on Monday through Friday should call 966

Columbia Journalism Review.

Also, Tom Wicker, associate editor of The New York Times and author of the recent best seller Facing The Lions; George Will, the National Review; James Perry. The National Observer and Haynes Johnson. associate editor of The Washington Post. Also, Vermont Royster, UNC Kenan Professor of Journalism and former editor of The Wall Street Journal; Wallace Westfeldt, producer of NBC News; George Reedy, dean of the Marquette School of Journalism and Edwin Yoder, associate the of the lot of the TAXABLE PARTY AND ADDRESS.

Staff photo by Bill Wrenn

Rush for Delta Theta Phi and Phi Delta Phi law fratemities will be held from 7-9 p.m. today in rooms 202 and 204 of the Persons wanting to start a car pool from Parkwood to the UNC Evening College, 7-10 p.m. on Monday and Wednesday,

Carpool Information

Durham, call Frank after 4 p.m. at 493-2171. He is loca within one mile of the Yorktowne Theater

Board to elect Union president

The Carolina Union Board of Directors will meet today at 5:30 p.m. to elect a new president of the Carolina Union. Betty George and Harry Simmons, both juniors, have applied for the office, according to Gary Phillips, the present

George is a double major in psychology and political science from Charlotte. She served as chairman of the Carolina Forum during the past year.

Simmons headed the Union Music Committee this year.

editor of The Greenshoro Daily News.

Also, Suzanne Lessard, The Washington Monthly: Wallace Carroll, editor and publisher of The Winston-Salem Journal and Eugene Patterson, editor of The St. Petersburg Times.

The colloquium is sponsored by the Duke Institute of Policy Sciences and Public Affairs, and is open to the public.

Balloon sale on Sat.

The North Carolina-Society for Autistic Children will hold its first January Balloon Sale in Chapel Hill on Saturday, Jan. 26.

Volunteers will be selling balloons and asking for donations in the downtown area and in shopping centers. All proceeds will be used to finance a free summer camp for the autistic children summer. Tom Buckingham. Chapel Hill co-chairman for the sale, said.

There is still a world left that cares.

The Loom Press. 500 West Rosemary Street, Chapel Hill. 942-6582. All your communication and printing needs.

> If you're pregnant and scared, we can help.

There is an alternative to abortion

BIRTHCHOICE. Birthchoice can help you from the moment you think you're pregnant until well after the birth of your child. We're here to give you confidential help. Cell us today.

BIRTHCHOICE 942-3030 (from Durham WX 3030 toll free) 7 P.M.-10 P.M. Monday-Friday

The Daily Tar Mael is published by the University of North Carelina Student P. blications Board, daily except Sunday, exam periods, vacation, and summer periods. No Sunday issue. The following September 15, 22, & 29, October 27, and November 10 & 17. Chapel His, N.C. 27516. Telephone aumbers: News, Sports - 933-1011. 933-1012; Business, Circulation, Advartising - 933-1163. Subscription rates: $16.00 per year: $8.00 per semester.

revenue derived from the Student Activities Fee (1.1.1.4 of the Student assasion).

Second class postage paid at U.S. Post Office in Chapel Hill, N.C.

The Campus Governing Council shall have powers to determine the Student Activities Fee and to appropriate all

