Wake Forest coach Carl Tacy says it was almost as if a different team came back on the floor to face Virginia after halftime Saturday night. And it wasn't an on the floor to face Virginia after halftime Saturday night. And it wasn't an improvement, "We didn't look like the same ball club the second half," said Tacy after his "Wrovem Deacons, who rolled up a $52-37$ halftime advantage, fell to the Cavaliers $86-83$ in overtime.
Tacy conceded that Virginia's rebounding and shooting picked up, "But we made an awful lot of bad mistakes. I don't think it was what Virginia did, I think it was Virginia coach Bill Gibson, whose

Carolina came out stingin of play. Enjoying the best defense they have played all year, the Heels treaked to a $26-8$ lead around the mythical first quarter mark.
The Tar Heels were penetrating the Paladin defense and were capitalizing on Furman mistakes, turning slight-of-hand thefts into fast break buckets Carolina was not without their share of turnovers
