

SPORTS

Ruggers A and B split with Gobblers

by Michael J. Shadroui
Sports Writer

On Friday night 12 April 1974 UNC's bid for an undefeated spring season died at the hands of a strong VPI squad 20-10. Rather than any one factor a number of circumstances were involved in the team's loss. The UNC referee in an attempt to be impartial called a much more strict game on the home team than on the visiting Gobblers. VPI played flawlessly, but most important were the repeated mistakes by the Carolina players themselves.

Carolina began the game slowly and fell behind 10-0, a deficit UNC was never able to make up. Although the Tar Heels refused to give up, poor defense allowed the Gobblers to strike back after every UNC scoring drive. Carolina's scrum dominated VPI's through most of the second half but the vaunted Blue backs were never able to get untracked.

Ernie Razzano and Steve Nash scored tries for UNC while Tom Ricketts made two conversions.

From the very start UNC's seconds showed no such problems as had badgered the A's. Carolina's scrum attacked viciously and UNC's kicking kept the little Gobblers running in circles.

Midway into the first half the Blue drove to the VPI tryline where Jack Schweigle and John Kistler simultaneously jumped upon the pigskin to give the B's a 4-0 lead.

Moments later the horde was knocking at the proverbial door again. Dislodging the ball from a loose-ruck (a pile of assorted steaming bodies) UNC's dapper Scotsman Andrew Crawford dribbled the ball soccer-like to the VPI 15-yard line.

Mike Shadroui gathered in the melon, zanily dashing in for the try; "Wild Bill" Cannell converted and Carolina led 10-0 at the half.

The second period went much the same with Cannell dancing his way in for a third Blue try, just for the fun of it. "Wild Bill" converted and led by the drafty play of Tom Atkins, Gra Patterson, and Kistler UNC went on to shut out the Gobblers 16-0.

Last home ACC tennis match

Tar Heels to host Deacs today

by Susan Shackelford
Asst. Sports Editor

ACC contenders get their last chance today.

Wake Forest brings its Deacon netters to the clay sanctuary beside Cobb dormitory, hoping for a last revival of conference challenge to the tennis power of Carolina.

UNC stands undefeated in the ACC while the WFU visitors have only one conference victory over N.C. State, a team UNC defeated 8-1 last week.

Holding a 14-3 overall mark, the Heels are expected to dominate the Deacs, who lost five of their six last spring starters to graduation.

But, the overriding interest of UNC Coach Don Skakle is the importance of today's singles matches, which are the last determining factors for UNC seeds in the April 26 conference tournament.

The court one seed is Mark Meyers of Duke, who is undefeated in the conference, overcoming UNC No. 1 Richard McKee last week.

McKee needs today's win over WFU veteran Bob Koury to strengthen his chances for the second seed, also sought by John Lucas of Maryland and Jim Ratliff of Virginia.

Senior Richard Hardaway possesses the only clean ACC slate and appears to own the first seed for the tourney on court 2. He meets sophomore John Pierce from Wake as his last threat to an ACC sweep.

Sophomores Billy Brock and Tommy Dixon have more pressure. Each netter is coping with a loss, suffered Monday at Virginia in their court 3 and 4 positions, respectively. Probable Wake opponents are Chip Loury and Chris Blair.

On court 5, senior Joe Garcia also fell at Virginia (Carolina won 6-3) and adds a last week loss at Duke to his ACC record. Dave Oberstein, the only starting frosh for UNC, holds a defeat against State on court 6.

With wins today, the netters most likely will lock up top seeds.

Monday's match with the Cavaliers stood tied at 3 after the singles, with the Heels pushing in two straight sets for each of the doubles wins and the 6-3 win.

UVA's Jim Ratliff upset All-America McKee, 7-5, 3-6, 6-3, then Hardaway thumped the defending ACC No. 2 player, Frank Hatten, in two sets, 6-3, 6-4.

UNC's Brock lost 6-4, 2-6, 6-3 at No. 3, while Dixon cruised 6-3, 6-0 on 4. Garcia fell 7-6, 6-7, 6-4 on the fifth and on 6, Oberstein earned a 6-4, 6-1 win.

Women win at Duke

Netters fell Blue Devils

by Kevin Barris
Sports Writer

The UNC women's tennis team swept two of the three doubles matches to insure a 5-4 victory over Duke in Durham Tuesday.

Carolina had split the singles matches with the Blue Devils, leading to the doubles showdown. The Tar Heels' doubles teams of Beth Hamilton and Jane Preyer, and Nina Cloaninger and Jean Scott won their matches in straight sets, thus assuring Carolina of victory.

Duke proved they were ready for the Tar Heels by taking wins on the first, fifth and sixth courts in singles. All of the Blue Devils' wins in those matches came in straight sets except on court six where UNC's Lillian Murray forced Duke's Margaret Duncan to a third set before failing 6-2.

On the No. 1 court Duke's Cindy Johnson remained indomitable. The Tar Heels' Jane Preyer played well, but appeared rusty from her long absence from the courts.

Johnson took an early 3-1 lead in the first set, but Preyer came back to win the next game and gain advantage in the next three before losing them. Preyer came from a 4-0 deficit to pull within 5-4 in the second set, but lost 6-4.

In the first court doubles match, Carolina's state champion doubles team of Preyer and Hamilton defeated the same team they had beaten for the state title.

YOUTH FOR PEACE SEALS

PRESENTS

REGORANCE

Wednesday, April 17

8:00pm - Help send a Handicapped Child to Camp Town Hall

Door Prizes Will Be Given

Cruise to the Bahamas
... on a 63-foot ketch with the UNC Sailing Club

Leave: May 13 from Chapel Hill
Return: May 24 to Chapel Hill

Approximate Cost: $225
Space limited to 23 people

Meetings

Wednesday, April 17 Room 213 7:30
Thursday, April 18 Room 213 7:30

the ground round's price is down

HALF-POUND OF GROUND ROUND SPECIAL

1.88

BRING THIS COUPON Good Thru 4/21

There's something good for everybody you love at

Shoney's

132 W. Franklin Street Chapel Hill, N.C.

One-half pound of finest quality steer beef, grilled however you want it, garnished with onion rings and complemented with french fries, a tossed garden salad and a big Grecian roll.

STREAK POSTERS!

Brand new! Fun-filled streaking posters. Up-to-date subjects illustrating the latest spoof on campus! Bright and colorful. Large 22" x 28" size. Only $2.50 each (including postage and handling). Perfect for your pad. Order today!

1. STARS AND STREAKS FOREVER! Lampons famous painting "Spirit of '76"

2. SUPERSTREAKERS The ultimate pair complete with flying capes and sneakers.

3. STREAKERS SURVIVAL KIT What every potential streaker should know!

4. SIMON SAYS... Energy czar's latest scheme to conserve gas!

CLIP THIS COUPON AND MAIL YOUR ORDER TODAY!

STUDIO WEST/1005 West Franklin Ave./Minneapolis, Minn./55405

Please send _____ posters indicated below. I have enclosed $2.50 for each poster ordered, plus sales tax where applicable. (Sorry, no stamps or C.O.D.'s)

NAME _____ PLEASE TYPE OR PRINT CLEARLY

ADDRESS _____

CITY _____ STATE _____ ZIP _____

Quantity Quantity

1. STARS AND STREAKS FOREVER 2. SUPERSTREAKERS

3. STREAKERS SURVIVAL KIT 4. SIMON SAYS... 41

NORTH CAROLINA FOLKLIFE FESTIVAL

DUKE UNIVERSITY MAIN QUAD

APRIL 19-20

FEATURING NORTH CAROLINA MUSICIANS & CRAFTSMEN

FRIDAY

10:00 - 5:00 CRAFT FAIR & DEMONSTRATIONS. MUSIC WORKSHOPS

8:30 CONCERT OF TRADITIONAL MUSIC

Alan Jabbour, Master of Ceremonies

BLUE SKY BOYS JARRELL & COCKERHAM
LIBBA COTTEN BLUE GRASS EXPERIENCE
GOLDEN ECHOES WILLIE TRICE

Page Auditorium Admission $2.00
Tickets on sale at Main Quad, Page Box Office, UNC Union

SATURDAY

10:00 - 5:00 MUSIC WORKSHOPS & DEMONSTRATIONS

5:00 BARBECUE

6:00 SQUARE DANCE
FEATURING BYARD RAY

7:00 FREE OUTDOOR CONCERT

KILBY SNOW E.C. & ORNA BALL
GOSPEL JUBILATORS PEG LEG SAM
EARNEST EAST & THE PINE RIDGE BOYS

QUILTING. POTTERY. WEAVING. BLACKSMITHING. SHEEP SHEARING.
LOG CABIN BUILDING. MOONSHINING. MILKING. SOAPMAKING

Sponsored by University Union and ASHU

Crossword Puzzler

Answer to Yesterday's Puzzle

ACROSS

1 Muscular contraction

3 church parish

4 Part of "to be"

5 Resort

6 Desert dwellers

7 Royal stables in London

8 Genus of maples

9 Communist nickname

10 Man's container

11 One who sleeps outdoors

12 Vapor

13 Symbol for tellurium

14 Knocked

15 Southwestern Indian

16 Highway

17 Greek letter

18 Wiping out

19 Rocky hills

20 Weirdest

21 Equality

22 Trap

23 Scoffs

24 Tiller

25 Quadruped

26 Raged

27 Crawl

28 Distant

29 Golf cry

30 Flag

31 Declared

32 Italian seaport

33 Analyzes, as sentence

34 Girl's name

35 Male

36 Slave

37 Urge on

38 Mints

39 Number

40 Spanish for "yes"

41 Heavenly bodies

42 Babylonian deity

43 Native American

44 Sharp ript

45 Rule

46 Out of scale

47 DOWN

1 Chap (colloq.)

2 Head of

31 Motor

32 Ache

33 Scoffs

34 Horse gods

35 Green

37 Growing out of

39 Sect

40 Walk

43 Hog

44 Music: as written

47 Roman gods

49 Bone