

Netters dump Deacons

by Susan Shackelford
Asst. Sports Editor

If you heard someone singing "Everybody Loves Somebody Sometime..." Wednesday afternoon on the varsity tennis courts, it was probably the Carolina tennis team.

Don Skakle's netters entertained, while they huddled in a court-side storage room, waiting to finish their final home match against Wake Forest which was interrupted early by rain and finished later on indoor courts.

Only two matches were completed before the downpour.

Senior Rich Hardaway locked up his first undefeated ACC season, beating Lou Desmarieux and insuring a first place seed in the ACC tournament next week at Clemson on court 2.

Senior Joe Garcia on court 5 rebounded from two straight losses for a shut out, 6-0, 6-0, over Wake's John Pierce, who played court 6 for the Deacs last season.

"I've tried to be more consistent this year," said the soft-spoken Hardaway as the rain pelted on the roof of the little green shelter. "I'm doing the same things I've done all along, just trying to do them better."

Garcia emphasized his concern with fundamentals. "I didn't try to do anything fancy," said the dark-featured netter, happy about wounding his thoughts of a slump before the April 26 tourney.

In first set action, Tommy Dixon on court 4 recovered from an early 3-0 deficit to win 6-4. But Dave Oberstein failed to benefit from his first set comeback, losing 6-4, after rallying from 4-1.

All-America Rich McKee displayed the versatility that has earned him the No. 1 position this year and a strong tennis reputation in his four-year stretch at Carolina. Heading indoors, he had a 6-3 first set.

Final results: UNC 8, WF 1
Singles (UNC 5, WF 1)

Heels start final series

Carolina, straight from a doubleheader sweep of Wake Forest on Tuesday, now prepares for a season ending four-game weekend series against N.C. State, Maryland and Virginia.

The Tar Heels beat the Deacons on the strength of complete game shutouts from Billy Paschal and John Danneman, and home runs from Bobby Guthrie and Dickie Witt.

Paschal hurled a five-hit 3-0 victory in the first game with 11 strikeouts in just seven innings. The win pushed his record to 3-0 and gave him 27 fans in 27 innings pitched.

Witt blasted his first homer of the season in the second inning to provide the only run that Paschal needed for the win. He also singled in the sixth inning and scored on Mike Wilkerson's single.

Danneman limited Wake Forest to just two singles in upping his record to 6-1, while Guthrie smashed his fifth homer of the year in the first to provide all the runs in the game.

Carolina's series of games this weekend begin today against State, a team that UNC defeated earlier 8-6 in Raleigh. Mike Merritt (4-0) will be on the mound for the Tar Heels while Mike Dempsey, the loser in the first meeting, will pitch for the Wolfpack. Game time is 2:30 p.m. at Boshamer Stadium.

Saturday Carolina entertains Maryland at 2 p.m. In an earlier meeting the Tar Heels won 6-2 behind the hitting of Guthrie and Dale Lydecker. Merritt got credit for the win while both of the Terrapin's runs were unearned.

Sunday afternoon at 2, the Virginia Cavaliers play a doubleheader in Chapel Hill. An earlier game in Charlottesville was cancelled due to rain and, under a new ACC ruling, makeup games are replayed as part of a doubleheader.

Lydecker at .397 and Guthrie at .364 lead the Tar Heels in most of the offensive categories while Danneman, with a 2.25 ERA and Merritt with a 2.41 ERA are the leading figures in the pitching corps.

DTH Sports Briefs

In their last match of the spring season, which concluded a successful first year on the intercollegiate level, the UNC Women's Golf Team beat Duke Tuesday by a score of 7 1/2-4 1/2.

The two-school event took place on Duke Golf Course Tuesday.

In the match play tournament, where each player can win a possible three points for her team, No. 1 Sally Austin tied her Duke opponent, 1 1/2-1 1/2.

Jean Newton lost by a tally of 3-0, Mindy

Moore beat her foe, 3-0 and Margaret Butkus won her match, 3-0.

On Friday, and Saturday, Austin, Newton and Moore travel to Greensboro to compete in the UNC-G Tournament.

Intramural goes extramural today, as Carolina sends a group of co-rec performers to compete against UNC-Charlotte, UNC-Greensboro and N.C. State in Charlotte.

This seventh annual gathering comprises seven events: golf, tennis, table tennis, volleyball, badminton, bowling and archery. Co-Rec Playday begins at 1:30 p.m.
