

Tar Heels take three

by Marty Rasmak
Sports Writer

Bill Paschall hurled a one-hit shutout Sunday and reliever Bruce Arrowood pitched 10 innings of scoreless ball Saturday to lead the Tar Heels to sweep their three crucial season-ending ACC games against Virginia and Maryland.

Paschall hurled his gem before a large shirt-sleeved crowd at Boshamer Stadium in the first game of a Sunday afternoon doubleheader against the University of Virginia.

Carolina won the game 5-0, but really got all they needed in the first inning when Early Jones reached first on an error, stole second, took third on Dale Lydecker's infield single and scored on Bobby Guthrie's sacrifice fly to right.

Paschall's bid for a no-hitter was spoiled in the fourth inning when Virginia catcher Dan Bernstein singled to left. Paschall faced only 24 batters in the seven-inning game, walked three and struck out five.

The Tar Heels added a run in the second as Designated Hitter Steve Rackley walked, took second on an infield out, and scored on first baseman Chris Kupec's single up the middle. In the fourth frame, Carolina scored a pair of insurance runs. Tom Kennedy led all hitters with a perfect three for three day performance at the plate.

The fifth and final run came in the seventh when Lydecker scored on a single by Rackley.

The Heels outlasted tough Maryland Saturday afternoon 6-5 in a 14-inning marathon that started out like a circus of errors but turned into a tight struggle.

Carolina opened scoring in the second inning when Steve Rackley doubled and scored on a sharp single to left by Lindsey Ethridge, who later drove in the game winner with a towering sacrifice fly to deep left in the bottom of the 14th inning.

Maryland rallied with four runs in the top of the fourth, aided by two wild throws and three singles. But the Heels were not to be denied. They came back to tie the game 4-4 in the same inning.

The Terrapins got another run off UNC starter John Danneman in the top of the fifth and he retired to the locker room, with none out in the fifth. Arrowood came on and did a masterful relief job over the final 10 innings, allowing the Terps no runs on only five hits.

The game was sent into extra innings when Carolina tied it again at 5-5 in their half of the eighth. Rackley scored on Jimmy Baldwin's clutch two-out double down the leftfield line.

Carolina assured themselves of at least a shot at the second place seeding in the upcoming ACC tourney with their 6-5 victory in the second game of the Virginia double-header.

The Heels were down 5-4 in the bottom of the seventh but rallied on Mike Wilkerson's clutch 2-run single to right center that ended the ballgame. Guthrie had a 2-run homer, a triple, and three RBI's to lead Carolina's hitting.

North Carolina's baseball team swept a three game series played in Chapel Hill last weekend, one of those match-ups was a 14 inning affair against Maryland which Carolina won, 6-5, mainly due to pitching of relief pitcher Bruce Arrowood. (Sports photo by Gary Lobraico)

Runners snatch Big Three

by Jim Thomas
Sports Writer

Ailing Tony Waldrop ignored an ear infection Saturday night to win the half mile at the Big Three meet in Raleigh. Waldrop, the world indoor record holder in the mile, easily won the 800-yard event in 1:50.9.

Although it was a fine performance for a sick runner, Waldrop was disappointed in his last lap of 52.1. He made up for his "slow" time by running a 47.7 third leg on North Carolina's victorious mile relay team (3:19.5). The UNC star will run his first outdoor mile this year Saturday at the Penn Relays in Philadelphia.

North Carolina won the team title with 75 points while N.C. State had 58 and Duke 57. Most of Carolina's points came in bunches as the Tar Heels won three of four places in the long jump, triple jump and javelin and swept all four places in the discus.

Sam Beasley won the long jump with 23-11½ while Dennis Quick came in second with his best effort of the season, 23-5, and Monty Burlingame was fourth with 21-5.

Beasley also captured the triple jump with a 45-8½, edging teammates Clay White (45-6½) and Fred Woltz (45½).

Jeff Gorski recovered from a sore leg to win the javelin with a throw of 220-5½, Pete LaRoche was second at 207-11 and Gil Vance fourth at 191-1.

Vance also won the discus with 153-7½, followed closely by Terry Taylor (152-4), Lee McLaughlin (150-10) and Lee Califf (143-5).

Kevin McLee was an upset winner in the 3,000 meter steeplechase, nipping Duke's K.C. Hustvedt 9:06.1 to 9:06.5.

Tim Quinn and Mike Voight combined with Beasley and Quick to win the 440 relay in 42.3.

Voight was another one of several performers who competed in two events coming in third in the 120 high hurdles with 14.9 just ahead of Reid Hilton.

Hilton also finished third in the 440 intermediate hurdles with a time of 55.8 behind Bob Brown's winning 55.3.

Charles Hayes ran a 50.4 to come in third in the 440. Hayes was also part of the victorious mile relay team along with Waldrop, Winfred Falls and Mike Stratford.

In other events Pat Riley was fourth in the 220 in 22.1 and John McCabe was fourth in the high jump at 6-0.
