Registration

Bicycles may be registered from noon to 5 p.m. on Friday at the Pit.

Chapel Hill police advise students to register their bicycles early to prevent the inconvenience of waiting in line, the probability of which will increase as the Dec. 1 deadline approaches, Lt. Arnold Gold said Wednesday.

"Anybody who resides in Chapel Hill must have their bike registered—penalties for not doing so will be as much as a $10 fine plus court costs," Gold said.

Gold also warned students that the police are strictly enforcing North Carolina state motor vehicle laws, which state that bike riders must obey traffic signals and laws.

Man sought for stabbing

A Chapel Hill man is being sought by police for the stabbing of his wife late Saturday night, Chapel Hill police Lt. Arnold Gold said Wednesday.

Nathaniel Brown, 511 Craig Street, has been charged with felonious assault for allegedly stabbing Parenthia Brown, 223 N. Graham St., in the right lung with a butcher knife.

The stabbing reportedly occurred at their Craig Street residence after an argument between the two concerning with whom their child would stay, Gold said.

Parenthia Brown was admitted to the emergency room of N.C. Memorial Hospital at 10:30 p.m. Saturday and immediately underwent surgery. She was unable to describe to police what had happened until Tuesday. Her condition was listed as good Wednesday afternoon.
