UNIVERSITY SQUARE, DOWNTOWN CHAPEL HILL

Few apartments remain unleased in Chapel Hill

by Chris Fuller
Staff Writer

Finding an apartment in Chapel Hill this fall is much like the proverbial search for a needle in a haystack—not impossible, but difficult.

Students arriving in Chapel Hill face a problem if they have not already made housing arrangements since available apartments are almost nonexistent.

But exceptions can be found. Old Well Apartments Manager Chuck Clayton reported last Monday 50 vacancies in the complex located on Jones Ferry Road in Carrboro. The vacancies, however, are all two-bedroom apartments costing $175 a month. A nine month lease is available at no extra charge.

Pinegate Apartments has approximately 30 available apartments. Pinegate employee Susan Horsley said. Located on Pinegate Circle, these apartments are primarily one bedroom units renting for $180. Chapel Hill buses begin stopping at Pinegate August 23 on a 90-day trial basis.

Mary Billy of the Village Apartments said there are a few one and two bedroom units unleased, but added that they will probably be filled soon. The apartments, located on Franklin Street, rent for $219 and $249 for one and two bedroom units, respectively.

Eight apartments may be available for a couple weeks at the Chateau Apartments on Weaver Road in Carrboro. Rent for these one bedroom units is $160 a month.

Chase Park Apartments and Elliot Woods Apartments, both on Elliot Road, have vacancies. Both complexes are projects of the Department of Housing and Urban Development. Chase Park and Elliot Woods are on a rent subsidy program, meaning the rent is pro-rated according to the renter's income. A steady income is necessary to rent an apartment in either of these complexes.

Managers of the Oaks Apartments and Bolinwood Apartments reported one or two vacancies, but said the openings will probably be filled by the end of the week.

Most other apartments and realtors said they have no openings and do not anticipate any in the immediate future. Merrimac Realtors suggest students file an application for apartments although there are no vacancies. This puts the prospective renter on a waiting list.

A spokesperson for Kutz Realty commented that apartment switching after the first week of school may leave some openings.

Students who come to Chapel Hill without housing arrangements can find information on housing from the University Department of Housing in the lobby of Carr Building. Because the apartments most preferred by students are all rented, the housing staff is trying to find rooms in private homes, trailers and other less demanded apartments.

One- or two-bedroom apartments that are inexpensive and on a bus route or within walking distance of the University are the most preferred by students.

Silent Sam still seeks virgin

Don't ever walk by "Silent Sam" with your mother. Silent Sam, who is the statue of the confederate soldier in McCorkle Place, supposedly fires his gun every time a virgin walks by. And, with Chapel Hill being "Little Moscow," "Whiskey Hill," and "The N.C. Zoo" rolled into one, Sam is understandably silent.

Sam is actually nothing more than a 1913 erection raised by the Daughters of the Confederacy.

You're about to take an unusual test.

The Master Charge Entrance Exam.

If you pass it, you stand a good chance of being invited to one of our offices to pick up your personal First Union Master Charge card.

From your personal banker.

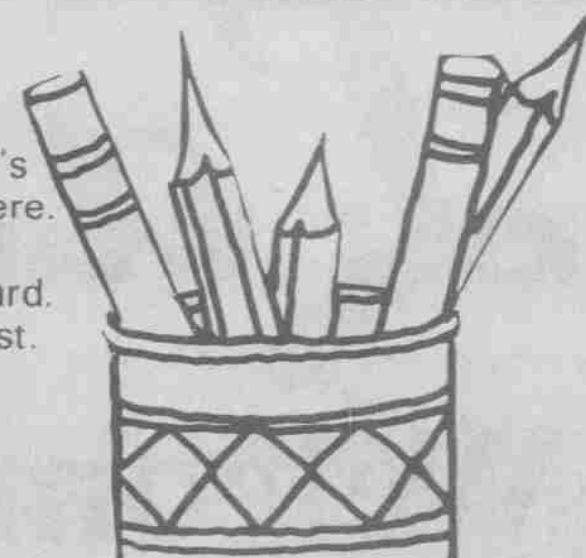

Don't look for "Credit References".

Or a place for you parent's signature. They aren't there.

You're applying for the card. So either you pass the test. Or you don't.

Fair enough?

O.K. You're on your own.
