Campus Calendar

Today's Activities

The CGC will meet at 7 p.m. to consider revisions in the election laws.

Congressman L. H. Fountain, Secretary of State Thad Eure and Lillian Woo, Democratic candidate for State Auditor, will speak at the UNC Democrats meeting at 7:30 p.m. in Room 202-204 of the Union.

Upcoming Events

There will be a presentation on employment opportunities in Math, Computer Science and related fields by Mrs. Corie McCauley (Career Planning and Placement) at 7:15 p.m. Wednesday in 332 Phillips. All math majors and potential math majors are cordially invited to attend.

The UNC Outing Club will hold its last meeting of the semester, a picnic-style dinner at 5:30 p.m. Wednesday in Battleground Park. Officers for next year will be elected and future plans for the club will be discussed. The cost is $1.00. All interested persons are urged to attend.

A spring water balloon loss will be sponsored by the Union Activities Board Recreation Committee from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Wednesday in the Pit; cost is five cents per balloon. Dinner for two at the Red Bull and two passes to the Plaza Theatre will be presented to the winners.

Everyone interested in sailing in the Bahamas is invited to the Sailing Club's pre-cruise meeting at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in Room 205 of the Union. Film and details on the May cruise will be included.

Traveling abroad? Come learn the best way to pack for that trip, at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in the Union second floor lounge. An Eastern Airlines expert will reveal all.

Applications for Chairman of the Media Board and for one seat on the Media Board are available today at the Union Desk. Interested persons should complete an application, return it to the Desk and come to the Media Board meeting in the Union Thursday at 3:30 for a short interview.

Also, anyone interested in editing the summer Tar Heel should bring a brief resume to the meeting Thursday.

KALEIDOSCOPE

Cinema

On Campus

SPIRITS OF THE DEAD—Federico Fellini, Louis Malle, and Roger Vadim tackle three tales by Edgar Allan Poe, with the help of Jane Fonda, Brigitte Bardot, Peter Fonda, and Terence Stamp. The results are mixed, but the Fellini episode is beautifully eerie. (Alternative Cinema. Shows at 7 and 9:30 p.m. today in 101 Greenlaw. Admission: $1.25.)

BORN YESTERDAY—Judy Holliday is the definitive dumb blonde in this priceless comedy of an ex-moll who is laught culture by William Holden and surprises everyone. Holiday copied an Oscar for her performance.

LACOMBE, LUCIEN—Louis Malle's superb film about a young man who sells his soul to the Nazis during the French Occupation, only to fall in love with a beautiful Jewish girl. A knockout of a film. (Union Free Flick. Show at 8:00 p.m. Wednesday in Great Hall.)

Chapel Hill

SAME AS FRIDAY EXCEPT

THE DUCHESS AND THE DIRTY WATER FOX—(Carolina Blue. Shows at 7:05 and 9:05 p.m. Admission: $2.25.)

WALDEN TWO

with a bold new introduction

Twenty-eight years after its original publication, Walden Two remains a prophetic, stunning work that offers real alternatives to modern society. This classic novel now includes Walden Two Revisited, a bold new introduction written by B. F. Skinner that examines the novel's continuing relevance and points the way to a world free of pollution...overpopulation...resource shortages...nuclear war...economic distress.
