

KALEIDOSCOPE CINEMA

Campus

Serpico—Al Pacino gives a superb, multi-layered performance as Frank Serpico, a New York cop who would not participate in the corruption and graft that permeated much of the police department. His life threatened, Serpico fights to stay alive and wins a few allies in his quest to expose the Establishment. With John Randolph and Tony Roberts. At 6:30 and 9 p.m. tonight in Carroll Hall. Super Friday subscription ticket or $1 admission at the door for remaining seats.

Steamboat Willie—Walt Disney's first sound cartoon and what a delight it is. With the original Mickey Mouse in glorious black-and-white. At 6:30 and 9 p.m.

Saturday in Carroll Hall. Free.

David Copperfield—W.C. Fields got a chance to really act as Dickens' Mr. Micawber, and the well-know comedian gave an outstanding performance. This M-G-M "prestige" picture preserves the eccentric charm of the original novel, and boasts an all-star cast including Freddie Bartholomew, Basil Rathbone, Maureen O'Sullivan and Lionel Barrymore. At 6:30 and 9 p.m. Saturday in Carroll Hall. Free.

Confrontation: Assassination In Davos—a powerful film about the decision of a young Jew to assassinate a high-ranking ex-Nazi official. It has won Swiss director Rolf Lyssy wide-spread acclaim. At 7 and 9:30 p.m. tonight and Saturday with a matinee at 2 in 101 Greenlaw Hall. Admission $1.50.

Wedding in White—Carol Kane, who won an Oscar nomination for last year's Hester Street, stars in this unsettling Canadian film about a working class family during World War II. Kane is a young girl raped by her brother's army buddy and then forced to marry a middle-aged man (Donald Pleasance) to preserve the family honor. A hard-edged look at a family locked together in a closed society. At 6:30 and 9 p.m. Sunday in Carroll Hall. Free.
