

LOU BELLOWS

Predictions for this week
by sportscaster Lou Bello

Editor's note: Lou closes out his weekly column with the post-season bowl predictions. His regular-season record finished at 39-17-3. So sit back and listen for a final time as Lou bellows:

I had a good season... a good season. Do I have to pick Duke again? No more Duke? Great! You know, I had one of the greatest records in the country this year. It was better than Jimmy the Greek's. If I had Duke right, if I had gotten them on opposite weekends, think of what kind of record I would've had!

Well, let's pick the bowls.

Carolina vs. Kentucky in the Peach Bowl, Dec. 31 in Atlanta: Carolina... CAROLINA! Kentucky's got a good team; they've had a good year with a 7-4 record, considering the tough Southeastern Conference, but Carolina's rolling. Bill Dooley's done the job, and I've just got a feeling they're going to end this season on high note.

Maryland vs. Houston in the Cotton Bowl, Jan. 1 in Dallas: I'm going to stick with our conference and pick Maryland. I still say that Maryland's got the greatest defense. They've shut out their last three opponents. Did you know that our conference has the top two records of anybody in wins? Maryland has 11 and Carolina's got nine. The Atlantic Coast Conference ALL THE WAY!!!

Michigan vs. Southern California in the Rose Bowl, Jan. 1 in Pasadena: Michigan's been waiting so long to go there. Now, I know Southern Cal's got a great club, but Michigan is going to make up for the Big Ten defeat last year. Michigan may be the best team in the country.

Ohio State vs. Colorado in the Orange Bowl Jan. 1 in Miami: It's Colorado. Surprised, huh? Woody Hayes. Woody chokes in the bowls. So, I'm going with Colorado. This is going to be my surprise. They're tough, and the Big Eight is something else.

Pittsburgh vs. Georgia in the Sugar Bowl Jan. 1 in New Orleans: I'm going with Pitt. They're going to go undefeated for the year—a No. 1 ranking—and they've got a Heisman award winner in Tony Dorsett. Johnny Majors is a great coach, and he's going to go to Tennessee. That's almost positive. So he wants to go out a winner. But wouldn't it be something if Georgia and Vince Dooley won? Have you read all this publicity about what a good year the Dooley boys have had? But Pitt's on a mission—a national championship. They'll deserve it if they win the Sugar Bowl.

Notre Dame vs. Penn State in the Gator Bowl Dec. 27 in Jacksonville: Does Penn State deserve to be here? No. Carolina should be in the Gator Bowl. I'm going to pick Notre Dame—big and awesome. Penn State is a year or two away. You know, television manufactured this bowl game. Get the big names.

Alabama vs. UCLA in the Liberty Bowl Dec. 20 in Memphis: GO UCLA!! Alabama just didn't have a good year. Bear Bryant's a great coach, but they're going to a bowl on their name. UCLA will get them.

Oklahoma vs. Wyoming in the Fiesta Bowl Dec. 25 in Tempe, Ariz.: Oh, this is easy. Easy. Oklahoma. They're awesome. And Wyoming's probably one of the weakest teams in the bowls. So, Oklahoma.

Nebraska vs. Texas A & M in the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl Dec. 31 in Houston: Nebraska will win this. The Big Eight's got the best football conference in the country. And Nebraska got beat in their last game, so they're going to go out with a win.

Well, it's been fun. I've really enjoyed picking the games in the DTH. I want to thank everyone.

Now, one more thing. When am I going to get paid for all of this?

Tar Babies fall

Fork Union Military Academy used some strong board play and the shooting of Bob Neely and Bill Keller to defeat the UNC junior varsity 69-56 Wednesday in Carmichael Auditorium.

After Carolina's Bill Tryon had scored three consecutive buckets late in the game to cut a nine-point deficit to a 59-56 disadvantage, Fork Union scored 10 unanswered points to secure the win.

Tryon led all scorers with 21 points. Teammates Randy Jones and George Forrest added 17 and 10 points, respectively.

Neely led Ford Union with 18. Keller added 16.

Braves offer test Heels host threesome

by Pete Mitchell
Staff Writer

After its surprising performance in the season opening Carolina Invitational Tournament, Pembroke State should be the most competitive opponent for the Carolina wrestling team when Carolina hosts a quadrangular match Saturday in Carmichael Auditorium.

Richmond and The Citadel, Carolina's other adversaries, are not likely to upset the Tar Heels when wrestling on their home blue and white mat. And even Pembroke's Braves will be hard-pressed to mount a serious challenge with UNC coming off a 53-2 win over Clemson in its season opener and its best finish ever in last week's Southern Open. "Pembroke was surprisingly good in our tournament here," Carolina Head Coach Bill Lam said. "I don't worry too much about the other teams, so I just hope we wrestle up to our capabilities."

After putting up with three knee surgeries over the summer and running into preseason injury problems, the UNC squad is close to being completely healthy. Scott Conkright, who has missed this year's action so far with broken ribs, will wrestle this weekend at 126 pounds. Jeff Reingten is still suffering from a knee injury and is an improbable starter for the Tar Heels in the 150-pound slot.

Carolina will face Richmond at 11 a.m. Saturday, The Citadel at 4 p.m. and Pembroke State at 6 p.m.

The UNC-Pembroke State contest will feature a rematch between the Braves' Dave Miller and Chris Conkright in the 134-pound bout. The UNC sophomore defeated Miller 8-3 for the Carolina Invitational Championship at that weight earlier this year.

Rocky Wing will start in the 118-pound division and Joe Galli will see action at 126 pounds. Other Tar Heel starters include Dave Juergens (142), Mike Benzel (158), Dean Brior (167) and Dave Casale (177). Pembroke's Darryl Snotherly will pose a threat in the 190-pound match, having placed second in the Carolina Invitational. In all likelihood, he'll be freshman Norm Walker's responsibility, but Lam said he might move Walker to heavyweight for one or more of the matches.

If Reingten is unavailable at 150 pounds, the Carolina entry will be freshman walk-on Carter Mario, who wrestled well during the preseason and in the Carolina Invitational.

Staff photo by David Dalton
Dave Casale will be the Tar Heels' entry at the 177-pound class when Carolina hosts Pembroke State, The Citadel and Richmond Saturday in Carmichael Auditorium.

"WHY DO THE HEATHEN RAGE?"

Psalms 2 and Acts 4:25

THE VOICE OF RETRIBUTION: "FOR I THE LORD THY GOD AM A JEALOUS GOD, VISITING THE INIQUITY OF THE FATHERS UPON THE CHILDREN UNTO THE THIRD AND FOURTH GENERATION OF THEM THAT HATE ME: AND SHOWING MERCY UNTO THOUSANDS OF THEM THAT LOVE ME, AND KEEP MY COMMANDMENTS." From the Second Commandment, Exodus 20:5, 6.

Perilous it is indeed to a man's well being in this life - to his peace, his reputation, his best interest - to do wrong. Possibly the wrong doer may not suffer himself, yet most certainly his children, and his children's children will pay the penalty of his misdeeds. Man is undoubtedly so constituted, whether regard be had to his physical, social, intellectual, and moral nature, as to make him a happy being. The right, the unperverted use of all his powers and susceptibilities would not fail to secure to him a high and continual state of earthly happiness and prosperity. And not only is the human machine itself so fitted up in beautiful harmony with the same benevolent end. Every jar of human happiness, every arrest or curtailment or extinction of it, is the fruit of transgression or perversion. The violation of a natural law is as sure to be followed by retribution as the violation of a Divine Law. The history of individuals, families, communities, nations, is full of such retributions!

The domestic peace and prosperity of the good old patriarch Jacob was sadly marred. He is compelled to become, at an early age, an exile from his father's house - to flee before the aroused wrath of his brother - to suffer a long oppression and wrong in the family of Laban, his kinsman; and no sooner is he relieved from these domestic afflictions, than suddenly he is bereaved of his favorite wife - Joseph is violently torn from his embrace by his own sons - and at length Benjamin, the only object on which the affections of the aged father seemed to repose, must be yielded up to an uncertain destiny, and his cry is heard: "All these things are against me!"

David was a good man, yet he sinned a great sin. And his sin was of a domestic character. And how grievously was he afterward afflicted in his domestic relations. His subsequent history remains the sad memorial: The Voice of God announced, "The sword shall never depart from your house!" His son Amnon raped his half-sister Tamar. Absalom, her brother, killed Amnon! Later on Absalom usurped his father's throne and drove him out, etc., etc. Yet David was a "man after God's heart" - a man after God's heart in the way he repented and accepted the severe judgment of God, reminding one of the words of Job: "Yea, though He slay me, yet will I trust Him"

Pilate, vacillating between the monitions of conscience and a miserable time serving policy, delivered up Jesus to be crucified. He believed Him to be innocent; yet that his own loyalty to Caesar might not be suspected, he did violence to his own conscience and condemned the innocent. He must secure his friendship to Caesar, though it be at the expense of the most appalling crime. But how miserably he failed! And there was in the retribution which followed a striking fitness to the punishment of the crime. He hesitated at nothing to please his imperial master at Rome. Yet but two years afterward he was banished by this same emperor into a distant province, where, in disgrace and abandonment and with a burden on his conscience, which was the burning steel, he put an end to an existence which was too wretched to be borne!

"Be sure your sin will find you out!"

He that confesseth and forsaketh his sin shall find mercy."

"BE SURE YOUR SIN WILL FIND YOU OUT!" - Numbers 32:23.

"IT SHALL NOT BE WELL WITH THE WICKED." - Ecclesiastes 8:13.

"AS I HAVE DONE, SO GOD HATH REQUIRED ME." - Judges 1:7.

"O THAT THEY WOULD CONSIDER THEIR LATTER END." Deuteronomy 32:29.

P. O. BOX 405, DECATUR, GA. 30031

Look out for the bull!

Nobody makes Malt Liqueur like Schlitz. Nobody.

Distributed locally by
DURHAM DISTRIBUTING COMPANY, INC
Phone 596-9395

© 1976 JOS. SCHLITZ BREWING CO., MILWAUKEE, WIS. AND OTHER CITIES

Before Sound Guard[®], the only way to prevent your records from wearing out was not to play them.

Magnified, you can see record vinyl wearing away.

With same magnification, record vinyl shows no wear.

The villain behind this destruction is friction. (If a diamond cuts through steel, you can imagine what a diamond stylus does to vinyl records.) Fortunately, from outer space has come a solution to record degradation. It's called Sound Guard[®].

A by-product of research into dry lubricants for aerospace applications, Sound Guard record preservative puts a microscopically-thin (less than 0.000003") dry film on records to protect the grooves from damage. Yet, remarkably, it does not degrade fidelity.

Independent tests show that Sound Guard preservative maintains full amplitude at all audible frequencies, while at the same time significantly retarding increases in surface noise and harmonic distortion.

In other words, when applied according to instructions, a new record treated with Sound Guard preservative and played 100 times sounds the same as one in "mint" condition played the first time!

Sound Guard preservative comes in a kit (complete with non-aerosol pump sprayer and velvet buffing pad). It is completely safe and effective for all discs, from precious old 78's to the newest LP's including CD-4's.

Recently introduced to audiophiles, Sound Guard preservative is now available in audio and record outlets.

For complete test results write: Sound Guard, Box 5001, Muncie, Indiana 47302.

If you've played any record often enough, you've heard the inevitable occur. It wore out.

While "pops," "hisses," and other surface noises began making their appearance on your favorite records, high frequency sounds—like violins and flutes—began disappearing.

Sound Guard[®] keeps your good sounds sounding good.

*Sound Guard is the registered trademark of Ball Corporation for its record preservative. © 1976 by Ball Corporation.

The Daily Tar Heel is published by the University of North Carolina Media Board; daily except Sunday, exam periods, vacations, and summer sessions. The following dates are to be the only Saturday issues: September 18, Oct. 16, Oct. 23, Nov. 13, Nov. 20.

Offices are at the Student Union Building, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, N.C. 27514. Telephone numbers: News, Sports—933-0245, 933-0246; Business, Circulation, Advertising—933-1163.

The Campus Governing Council shall have powers to determine the Student Activities Fee and to appropriate all revenue derived from the Student Activities Fee (1.1.1.4 of the Student Constitution).

The Daily Tar Heel reserves the right to regulate the typographical tone of all advertisements and to revise or turn away copy it considers objectionable.

The Daily Tar Heel will not consider adjustments or payments for any typographical errors or erroneous insertion unless notice is given to the Business Manager within (a) one day after the advertisement appears, within (1) day of receiving the tear sheets or subscription of the paper. The Daily Tar Heel will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion of an advertisement scheduled to run several times. Notice for such correction must be given before the next insertion.

Verna Taylor Business Mgr.

ACADEMIC RESEARCH PAPERS

THOUSANDS ON FILE

Send $1.00 for your up-to-date, 192-page, mail order catalog.

11926 Santa Monica Blvd.
Los Angeles, Ca. 90025

Original research also available.

Enclosed is $1.00. Please rush the catalog to:

Name _____
Address _____
City _____
State _____ ZIP _____