ECOS battles Corps' efforts

Jane Sharp, president of the Conservation Council of North Carolina, described Tuesday legal attempts to halt efforts by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers to impound water in the B. Everett Jordan Reservoir.

Sharp spoke to the UNC ECOS group, which is aiding the council in its legal battle with the Corps. The towns of Chapel Hill and Durham are also seeking to prevent the Corps from filling the proposed 32,000-acre reservoir.

A 1974 consent judgment issued by U.S. Middle District Court Judge Eugene Gordon upheld conservationists' objections and prohibited the Corps from filling the lake.

Also contained in the judgment was a guideline for future court proceedings on the matter. "If the Corps decided to fill the lake at any time, it had to give notification to the litigants," Sharp explained. The Conservation Council would then have 30 days to respond, and a court hearing would ensue.

The Corps filed another notice of intent to impound Sept. 11, 1976 and Gordon again heard arguments on the case last December. Gordon gave both opponents and proponents until March 1 to file final statements on the matter. He will review the statements and issue his order.

Sharp said the Corps' own reports show a reservoir behind Jordan Dam would produce the most polluted lake in North Carolina. Parts of the lake would be only a foot deep and would contain so much algae and aquatic plants that they would have no practical use.

The entire lake would also contain a level of mercury concentration far exceeding the level considered safe to humans and fish by the Environmental Protection Agency, Sharp said. Only about 25 per cent of the lake would even be considered fit for recreational purposes.

"WHY DO THE HEATHEN RAGE?"

Psalms 2 and Acts 4:25

The Church Official Board has just come to order. The Moderator stated that Mr. Smith was present and wished to make application for baptism and membership. "Mr. Smith will you please give us a statement and testimony of your spiritual experience leading you to make this request." Mr. Smith spoke about as follows: Friends, you all know me, and you know where I live. My home is several hundred yards off the main road, and is connected by a lane that has a heavy growth of trees on both sides. Recently walking home late at night, suddenly I heard the leaves rattle in a tree above my head — the night was calm and no wind was stirring. It frightened me. I stopped a moment, and then they rattled again. It caused me to quicken my rate of travel no little, and I got home and in the house as quickly as possible. The more I think of this experience the more I am convinced that it was a warning for me to "Get right with God!"

The Moderator then asked the Board if they thought this experience entitled the man to be accepted for baptism and membership.

One brother got up quickly and said: "I move we take him in. It appears to me that we got a lot of members in this Church, in this Deacon Board, and maybe the preacher himself, 'WHO AIN'T NEVER HEARD THE 'LEAVES RATTLE!'"

There was one member of this Board — call him Brother Jones — in whom all the people in the Church and community had great confidence on account of his character, integrity, sincerity and faithfulness of his church vows and all causes of righteousness. Some one asked Mr. Jones his opinion as to whether Mr. Smith's experience of hearing the "leaves rattle" was ground enough for accepting him.

Brother Jones got up and made a talk about as follows — we will not try to quote him. Two things he had in mind, First, impress his hearers that The Bible revealed there are great, powerful, even terrible "UNSEEN POWERS" both good and evil unseen powers all about us. Second, seek to tell them things to do in order to come in contact with the "GOOD AND HOLY UNSEEN POWERS" and be blessed with a true and right experience of "hearing the leaves rattle." "The angel of The Lord encampeth round about them who fear Him, and delivereth them" — Psalm 34:7. The Bible also tells us of "evil angels!"

Brother Jones then related to them the experience of King David just after he had been anointed King over all Israel. The Philistines made war on him. There is no telling how many times David had already whipped them in battle — including the giant Goliath — yet it seems that David was afraid to fight until he had inquired of God. He got this answer: "Thou shalt not go up; but fetch a compass behind them, and come upon them over against the mulberry trees, and let it be, WHEN THOU HEAREST THE SOUND OF A GOING IN THE TOPS OF THE MULBERRY TREES, THAT THEN THOU SHALT BESTIR THYSELF: FOR THEN SHALL THE LORD GO OUT BEFORE THEE, TO SMITE THE HOST OF THE PHILISTINES!" After "hearing the leaves rattle" David won a great victory! 2nd Samuel 5:23, etc.

The King of Syria made war against the King of Israel. The King of Syria thought he had a traitor in his camp that told the King of Israel his strategy. However, one of his soldiers told him it was that Prophet over in Israel who could tell what words he spoke in his own headquarters. The Syrian King went and surrounded the Prophet with his army. Next morning when the Prophet's servant saw the army that surrounded them he was greatly frightened, but Elisha said to him: "Fear not: for they that be with us are more than they that be with them." Doubtless for a moment the servant thought his master had gone crazy, but Elisha prayed to The Lord to open the eyes of his servant so he could see: "And The Lord opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw; and behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha." — 2nd Kings 6:8-23. It appears there was plenty of cause for the "leaves to rattle" in this instance.

Consider what Moses saw at the Burning Bush, the leaves afire but not consumed! Consider how the "unseen power" struck down the Apostle Paul on the road to Damascus, and how he got up and went about to "turn the world up-side-down!" I think they tell us there are about one hundred and fifty-five million people, more or less, who make some claim of being Christian in this great land. It is to be feared that most of us have never heard "the leaves rattle." Go to reading your Bible and let nothing hinder you!
