CINEMA

Campus

Law and Order—A powerful documentary that follows a group of policemen as they go about their duty, which not only includes their usual cases, but also their violent tactics for getting information. The frankness of these men is both amazing and sometimes frightening. At 7 and 9:30 tonight in 100 Murphey. Free with a student ID.

Hearts of the West—Jeff Bridges is a naive young man in the 1930's who wants to write a Western novel and winds up in Hollywood becoming a star in B Westerns. A charming, wisecracking comedy with Andy Griffith, Blythe Danner and Alan Arkin as a manic director. Also the Short, Blaze Glory. At 7 and 9:30 p.m. Saturday in 100 Murphey. Free.

The Clowns—Fellini's flamboyant exploration of the circus clown as a source of images, passion, melodrama, comedy and pathos. For a finale, Fellini stages his own surrealistic circus, and it's a wonder to behold. At 7 and 9:30 p.m. Sunday in Carroll Hall. Free.

Chapel Hill

For local theatres see advertisements on this page.

Gold Rush—A Charlie Chaplin classic. At 8 p.m. Sunday at the Art School in Carrboro (150 E. Main). Free.

TELEVISION

The 81st Blow—This documentary tells of the slaughter of European Jews by the Nazis. Shown with English subtitles, the movie weaves the testimony of survivors into newsreel footage of Nazi atrocities. At 9:30 tonight on Channel 4.

Midnight Special—George Carlin, Natalie Cole, the Electric Light Orchestra, Jose Feliciano, Stephen Bishop, Chick Corea and Stanley Clark, comedy group Travis Shook and the Club Wow. Also: a film clip from Rocky. At 1 a.m. tonight on Channel 28.

Baseball—The New York Yankees play the Tar Heels in an exhibition game at Boshamer Stadium. Jim Thacker and Clyde King report. At 2 p.m. Saturday on Channel 4.

The Outfit—Robert Duvall heads a strong cast in this pulp thriller about an ex-con's violent vendetta against the mobster who murdered his brother. At 9 p.m. Saturday on Channel 28.

The Best of Burnett—Carol closes her 10th season by showing clips from more than 250 of her past programs. The selections go back to 1967, when Burnett is seen fielding her first questions from the audience.

nervously. Guest stars include Ken Berry, John Davidson, Rock Hudson and Jim Nabors. At 9:30 p.m. Saturday on Channel 11.

Masterpiece Theatre—Georgina gets a chance to appear in a movie in Part 11 of "Upstairs, Downstairs," while Frederick receives a romantic offer from one of her friends. At 10 p.m. Saturday on Channel 4.

Jesus of Nazareth, Part I—The life of Christ is chronicled in this drama. Basing the film on the Gospels, director Franco Zeffirelli brings sensitivity and reverence to this version of Christ's life and teachings. The film concludes next week. At 8 p.m. Sunday on Channel 28.

You Only Live Twice—James Bond (Sean Connery) is in Japan and SPECTER is up to old tricks. The international crime ring is intercepting and stealing U.S. and Soviet space capsules, hoping to trigger a nuclear confrontation between the two powers. At 9 p.m. Sunday on Channel 5.
