KALEIDOSCOPE

CINEMA

Buffalo Bill and The Indians - Altman returns to the atmosphere that marked his McCabe and Mrs. Miller in this loose adaptation of Koppi's play Indians. Paul Newman is Buffalo Bill and a complete sham who is hoisted on a gullible and anxious public by his show-biz managers. Then Chief Sitting Bull joins the show with his own ideas and dreams. With Joel Grey, Harvey Keitel, Geraldine Chaplin, and Will Sampson. At 7 and 9:30 tonight in Carroll Hall. Admission $1. Tickets are available at the Union Desk. No money will be taken at the door.

Badlands - Martin Sheen and Sissy Spacek play two young people who suddenly go on a murder spree, while constantly running from the law. Based on an actual incident. Badlands explores the cool psyches of these two madfits and their effect on a terrified Midwest. Also the short Postal. At 7 and 9:30 p.m. Saturday in Carroll Hall. Free.

Yojimbo - Kurosawa's only full-length comedy-satire about a Samurai bodyguard (Toshiro Mifune) who turns the tables on the treacherous people he is supposed to guard. Not just an adventurous spectacle. Yojimbo has traces of what could be called a Brechtian parable. At 7 and 9:30 p.m. Sunday in Carroll Hall. Free.

Raleigh

A Luta Continua - Undoubtedly the best movie on the current African liberation struggle in Mozambique. Also Chile: With Poems and Guns, the story of Chile after the military coup in 1973. At 7 and 9:15 p.m. Saturday at the Hargraves Community Center. A donation of $1.50 is requested.

For local theatres see advertisements on p. 3.

TELEVISION

Sweet Hostage - An unusual movie in which Martin Sheen plays a fugitive mental patient who recites Coleridge and faces himself Kubla Khan, ensconced in a "stately pleasure dome" - his tumbledown New Mexican hideaway. Linda Blair is an ill-educated tomboy, his kidnapped audience, who is at first frightened, then charmed by this improbable prince and his fantasy world. At 9 tonight on Channel 5.

Chicago Soul II - A concert of soul music with Don Cornelius and the Spinners as hosts. Bill Withers, the Dramatics, Johnnie Taylor, and the Chi-Lites are some of the scheduled guests. At 1 Saturday morning on Channel 28.

Masterpiece Theatre - Georgina and some friends take Richard's car for an ill-fated joy ride in Part 13 of Upstairs, Downstairs. At 10 p.m. Saturday on Channel 4.

United Cerebral Palsy Telethon - Among the scheduled guests are actress-singer Kay Stevens, comedian Marty Allen, actor Barry Williams. The telethon runs through Sunday afternoon. At 10 p.m. Saturday on Channel 5.

Celebrity Challenge of the Sexes - Sportscasters Vin Scully and Phyllis George are the hosts as TV and motion-picture stars engage in athletic competition between the sexes. At 8 p.m. Sunday on Channel 11.

21 Hours at Munich - Dramatizes a tragic chapter from recent history when eight Arab terrorists held nine Israeli athletes hostage at the 1972 Olympics. Jim McKay narrates sequences of the drama, which was filmed on location. At 9 p.m. Sunday on Channel 5.

World of Darkness - A tale of the occult focusing on a writer who dies on an operating table, and then is revived. His short-lived contact with death, however, has its after-effects: he's called upon by supernatural voices to help a woman prove her father didn't kill himself. At 10 p.m. Sunday on Channel 11.

Pallisers - Widowed Phineas Finn returns to run again for Parliament in Part 11, but his career is threatened by his friendship with Lady Laura Kennedy. At 10 p.m. Sunday on Channel 4.

CGC seat deadline

The deadline for filing petitions for the District 19 Campus Governing Council (CGC) seat is 5 p.m. today.

Michael Hawkin, elections board chairperson, said a special election for the seat will be held Wednesday to fill the vacancy left when the write-in winner of the regular spring election declined to take office.

District 19 includes all undergraduates residing outside of Orange or Durham counties and those living in the southeastern part of Orange County not included in District 16.

No petitions had been filed as of Thursday. Petitions are available in Suite C of the Carolina Union.
