"WHY DO THE HEATHEN RAGE?"

Psalms 2 and Acts 4:25

Saul has just been made King of Israel. "And Saul went home to Gilbeah; and there went with him a band of men 'Whose Hearts God had Touched!' ", 1st Samuel 10:26. "Whose hearts God had touched!" Should not that statement interest if not excite everyone of the creatures of The Great Creator! The heart in our bosom is a "muffled drum" beating a march for us to the cemetery and grave, and the judgement of The Almighty. "It is appointed unto men to die, but after this the judgement. Hebrews 9:27.

Are you interested in God touching your heart? Have you ever asked Him to do so? Do you give Him the opportunity to "touch your heart" by waiting on Him in prayer and meditation upon His Word? Over and over again "the man after God's heart," King David says to us: "Wait on The Lord, and again, I say, Wait on The Lord."

In Proverbs 23:26 God asks concerning your heart: "My son, give Me thine heart!"

Doubtless one of the greatest causes of the "curse and confusion upon us and the world today is due to those who call themselves Christian but have utterly failed in making a reasonable effort to get familiar with - note, we did not say "understand every word" - the entire Bible.

"Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God" — Matthew and Luke 4:4. May we suggest that the young, middle age, and old, even if you are "seventy-eleven" and more, begin at Genesis 1:1 and read some every day, praying and looking to God to "touch your heart" and shine His Light into it by His Inspired Word; and aim at seeing how much of "every Word of God" you can get familiar with before Mr. Undertaker "calls for your carcass!" There is no telling how much sincere action like this may affect your Eternity, and that of others. Christ said: "To him that hath shall be given but to him that hath not shall be taken away that which he seemeth to have!" Lack of use in the long run results in lack of possession.

Read again Genesis 32:9 and Genesis 32:24-29, and consider the fact that it appears that God would not have blessed Jacob as He did if Jacob had quit "wrestling and holding on to the Angel, which from what we learn in 1st Cor., 10th chapter, doubtless was Christ. Hold on to Bible reading, to prayer, and faithfulness to God's Day and God's House as Jacob did to The Angel.

Read again Exodus 17:8-11, and consider God's dealing with Moses in refusing him and his people victory unless his hands were kept up steady until sundown. Don't let your hands "go down" in your Bible reading, in your prayer life, and in faithfulness in honoring God on His Day, and in His House.

1ST SAMUEL 2:30: WHEREFORE THE LORD GOD OF ISRAEL SAITH - FOR THEM THAT HONORETH ME I WILL HONOR, AND THEY THAT DESPISE ME SHALL BE LIGHTLY ESTEEMED."

SONG OF SOL. 8:6, 7: FOR LOVE IS STRONG AS DEATH; AND JEALOUSY IS CRUEL AS THE GRAVE ... MANY WATERS CANNOT QUENCH LOVE, NEITHER CAN THE FLOODS DROWN IT; IF A MAN WOULD GIVE ALL THE SUBSTANCE OF HIS HOUSE FOR LOVE IT WOULD UTTERLY BE CONTAINED."
