TELEVISION

The Lindbergh Kidnapping Case—Cliff De Young stars as Charles Lindbergh in this three-hour dramatization. Anthony Hopkins co-stars as Bruno Richard Hauptmann, who was convicted of the 1932 kidnaping and slaying of the 20-month-old-son of the famed aviator. At 8:30 tonight on Channel 28.

ABC News Closeup—"Madness and Medicine" examines three key modes of treatment of the mentally ill: drugs, in which the side effects are often serious and sometimes deadly; electric shock, in which the most consistent complaint is loss of memory; and psychosurgery, today's answer to the frontal lobotomy of the 1930s. At 10 tonight on Channel 5.

Conversations with Eric Severeid—Anne Morrow Lindbergh, the best-selling author and widow of one of America's greatest heroes, talks for the first time on television about the loves, losses, triumphs and tragedies of her life. A rare glimpse at an intensely private woman. At 8 p.m. Friday on Channel 11.

THEATRE

Duke Summer Theatre—presents Loot, a madcap comedy recommended for mature audiences who would rather laugh than be shocked. Featuring raunchy bedroom farce and totally irreverent, brilliantly witty language. Performances will be in the East Duke Music Room on June 3-5 and 10-12 at 8:30 p.m. Tickets are $3.50 and are on sale at Page Box Office in Durham and at A Southern Season here in Chapel Hill.

DAYLIGHT. LOW LIGHT. FAST ACTION.

Whenever the time is right, new KODACOLOR 400 Film lets you capture the fun. With its ASA 400 speed, it helps you take pictures in daylight and low light, outdoors and indoors. It's particularly good with existing light and when high shutter speeds are required to stop motion. It's now available in 20- and 36-exposure 135 magazines.
