

Dave Oberstein

Heels fall in NCAA tennis

Carolina came close, but not close enough and fell just short of an upset of Southern California in the first round of the NCAA Tennis Tournament Monday at Athens, Ga. The Trojans won, 5-4.

The teams split the singles, with Dave Oberstein (in his last UNC match), Cliff Skakle and Gary Taxman winning for the

UNC golfers journey to Athens

by WILL WILSON
Sports Editor

This may be the off-season for most Carolina athletes, but for the men golfers, the next two weeks will conclude one of the busiest months of the year.

Today and Friday, Carolina is completing play in the Southern Intercollegiate Golf Tournament in Athens, Ga., facing many of the teams it will go up against in the NCAA Tournament June 8-11. The Tar Heels received their NCAA bid last week.

Besides these two tournaments, several UNC golfers have been competing on an individual basis in various events, which has kept them in good practice for the upcoming tourneys.

"They're all really playing well," Coach Mike McLeod said before leaving for Athens. "We have as good a chance as anybody of winning the NCAA, as well as the Southern."

Carolina's five-man roster at Athens includes senior Scott Humrickhouse, juniors Bill Buttner and Bill Sibbick and sophomores Kevin King and John McGough. McLeod plans to enter the same five in the NCAA Tournament.

All except Humrickhouse played in the Southern last year, when Carolina finished third behind champion Georgia and runnerup Houston. Both teams return to the 54-hole event this year, played on the Athens Country Club course, home of Georgia.

In other action for UNC players,

McGough, Sibbick, Humrickhouse and Freddie Palmer all competed in the North-South Amateur, a match-play event held last week in Pinehurst. All four lost out in the round of 32, after winning two matches each. McLeod said that the losses were all "real tight matches." He was especially happy about McGough's seven-under-par score over the entire tournament.

Just prior to going to Athens, Buttner, King and McGough went through sectional qualifying at Pinehurst for the U.S. Open, with King joining former teammate Mark Andrew in advancing to the regionals in June.

Tar Heels. Only Taxman and Jon Kraut won in doubles, however, leaving UNC one match short of moving into the quarterfinals.

The loss ended Carolina's season with a 22-2 record. Their only other loss was also 5-4, to Miami, Fla., a first-round victor in the NCAA.

USED FURNITURE

Lamps, Bookcases
Beds

Hundreds of odd items that might just fit that spot of yours.

Unfinished—Ready to paint or stain furniture, including desks & bookcases.

New mattresses at the lowest prices in town.

The TradingPost

104 S. Greensboro St. Carrboro, N.C. 942-2017

THE COMPLETE STUDENT SHOPS AT STUDENT STORES

There's More at Your

STUDENT STORE

"ON CAMPUS"

High Fidelity

...without the high price

Who says Hi-Fi has to be expensive? Woofer & Tweeter Hi-Fi has been providing to Chapel Hill and the entire Triangle area that it's possible to have good hi-fi without the high prices. And unlike those "catalogue showrooms" and audio warehouses, Woofer & Tweeter not only offers you low price, but they also back up your purchase with their own in-store service department. Shop around, then come to Woofer & Tweeter for the best deal in town. Use their Revolving Charge Plan.

Complete System

Charge It!

Save 179.95

List Price 679.90

Epicure Model 10

10-Year Warranty
Top Rated in a leading consumer magazine

Sansui 551 AM-FM Receiver

Technics SL-23 Semi-Automatic Turntable

WELCOME BACK STUDENTS!

Woofer & Tweeter

967-2462

West End of Franklin St. at
The Carrboro City Limits

Free Delivery and Set-up