News

On May 18, N.C. State adopted a prepaid legal insurance program for its faculty and staff. The program includes $2,200 of coverage for criminal and civil legal fees at a cost of $6 per month, paid through payroll deduction. Such a program for students was examined here last January, but Student Government voted not to purchase the plan. As a result of attempting to develop an extended program of its own in the stead of the prepaid plan, Student Legal Services is now involved in a lawsuit with the State Bar. See page 2 for details.

Features

Southern women have been pictured in various lights, both favorable and unfavorable. The current issue of Southern Exposure, entitled Generations, explores the different aspects of Southern women as seen by several talented writers. Vincent J. Kopp, a major influence on UNC's Cellar Door, reviews the magazine on page 10.

Sports

Finally, some action on the home front. Carolina's baseball team begins in summer league season here Saturday night. A season preview is on page 17.

Carolina football quarterback Matt Kupec underwent an operation recently near his New York home. Staff writer Skip Foreman spoke with Kupec by telephone Tuesday and reports on Kupec's recovery on page 19.
