Tar Heel tidbits

King sets school marks; will compete in AAU meet

UNC distanceman Ralph King, who set two school records last weekend at the NCAA Track and Field Championships in Champaign, Ill., will compete in the Amateur Athletic Union meet in Los Angeles.

King, a junior from Atlanta, Ga. broke his own school record in both the three-mile and 5,000 meters while finishing sixth in the 5,000 meters last Saturday. His three-mile time was 13:13.9 and his time in the 5,000 was 13:46.1.

He actually took 12 seconds off both those records in just three days. While qualifying on Thursday he had times of 13:25.8 in the three-mile and 13:56.3 in the 5,000.

Ralph has now run the fastest three-mile of any collegiate runner in the history of the state. His time in the 5,000 is the third best of any American collegiate runner this year. In the NCAAs, King was bested by three foreigners and two Americans in finishing sixth.

During the 1976-77 school year, King dropped the Carolina school record from 14:11 to 13:46.1 in the 5,000 and from 13:39.2 to 13:13.9 in the three-mile.

Joining teammate King in the NCAAs but not placing were high jumper Erwin Jones, a sophomore from Charlotte; steeplechaser Kent Taylor, a senior from Louisville, Ky.; and 5,000 meter man Gary Hofstetter, a freshman from Greensboro.

Cloaninger wins twice in AIAW consolations

Nina Cloaninger and Lisa Dodson, Carolina's two representatives in the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women Tennis Championships at Baton Rouge, La., lost all their first-round matches Monday, but Cloaninger has pulled off at least two wins in the consolation rounds which are continuing through Saturday.

Cloaninger and Dodson, who qualified for the event by finishing in the top two in the regional doubles competition, lost their first-round doubles match to Jill Tonay and Jill Schiedemann of UC-Santa Barbara, 6-2, 6-4.

They were scheduled to open consolation play Wednesday against Cindy Benzon and Ann Broyles of Southern Methodist, with another match to follow later in the day if they won.

The two were also allowed to enter the singles play, even though they had not qualified in the regionals. However, both lost in the opening round.

Dodson lost to Sylvia Noster of Stevens, 6-1, 7-6. She also lost her consolation match, falling to Trinity's Stacey Bowman, 6-1, 6-3.

Cloaninger lost to Benzon, 4-6, 6-0, 6-2. In the consolations, she defeated Schiedemann, 6-4, 6-4, and Noster, 6-2, 6-4. She was scheduled to play Pam Mason of Southwest Missouri Wednesday.

Trainer John Lacey named to Hall of Fame

Carolina trainer John Lacey has been named to the Citizen Savings (Helms) Athletic Hall of Fame. Lacey will receive a special presentation marking his selection at the 28th annual Athletic Trainers Association Awards Banquet in Dearborn, Mich. June 12-15.

Lacey was the head trainer for the United States Olympic Team during the 1972 Summer Games in Munich. He has also worked with nine football bowl teams, six of them at Carolina.

Voight signs with Bengals

UNC running back Mike Voight, carrying with him the acclaim that goes with being the ACC all-time leading rusher and Player-of-the-Year two years running, signed this week with the Cincinnati Bengals.

Voight, a third round draft choice of the Bengals, compiled three straight 1,000-yard seasons and finished his college career with 3,971 yards rushing.

With Voight leading the way this year UNC logged a 9-2 record and bid to the Peach Bowl in Atlanta. In preparation for the Peach Bowl Voight was injured and did not see action in the Peach Bowl, ending his career at UNC on a sour note.

Also signing this week were All-ACC defensive end Bill Perdue and defensive back Russ Conley both free agents. Perdue signed with the Atlanta Falcons hoping to make the team at linebacker while Conley signed with the Pittsburgh Steelers hoping to break into Pittsburgh's tough defensive secondary.
