

Fall baseball season opens with split

By BILL FIELDS
Staff Writer

UNC's baseball Tar Heels opened their fall season this week, splitting doubleheaders with East Carolina and Lousburg.

Coach Mike Roberts' team began its fall slate by hosting East Carolina Monday night. Carolina lost the opener 3-0, but came back to win the nightcap 9-4 behind the pitching efforts of freshmen Charlie Beverly, Bill Musser and "Peanut" Parks.

Carolina traveled to Lousburg Junior College Tuesday, losing the first game 6-4, but the Heels used the hitting of third baseman Jim Atkinson and Roy Clark, plus the pitching performance of Clay Johnson to win the second contest, 3-2.

UNC faces East Carolina in a rematch Friday night in Greenville and the Tar Heels meet UNC-Wilmington in a home doubleheader Saturday at 6:00 p.m. Roberts said that Wilmington will have a different look from the past as it had a good recruiting year, signing 12 players.

The 24 games composing the fall schedule do not count in the NCAA standings, but Roberts sees an important benefit from the games: "The fall play gives the freshmen a chance to gain experience. These fall games should help eliminate early season mistakes in the spring," Roberts said.

How does Tar Heel Baseball look for 1978? Roberts is optimistic, saying, "We have good team speed, good hitting and pitching, which makes us a potentially fine baseball team."

Dick Drayton, a junior from Philadelphia, was the high scorer for UNC in 1974 and 1976 and scored four goals in the UNC-Wilmington game last year. UNC-W is UNC's opponent this Saturday in Wilmington.

Face UNC-W Saturday

UNC soccer slides by Belmont Abbey

By TOD HUGHES
Staff Writer

The Carolina soccer team eased past Belmont Abbey 6-1 Wednesday to notch its second consecutive victory of the young season, but the Tar Heels must tie up some loose ends to ready themselves for their game with UNC-Wilmington Saturday.

UNC scored the first two goals of the Belmont Abbey contest, padded its lead to 4-1 at the half and tallied twice more in the second period. Freshman scholarship player John Fernandez of Orlando, Fla. scored two goals from his right-wing position on bullets into the lower corners of the net, winning the praise of coach Anson Dorrance.

Other scorers for Carolina were Butch Bernard, Peter Griffin, sophomore Billy Propster and junior Rick Eaton. Dorrance also said sophomore right back David Blum, Sean Naber and senior goalie Lee Horton played good games. Horton started and played the whole game in the net, giving Martin Trimble a rest.

"They're not as strong as I thought they'd be," Dorrance said of Belmont Abbey. "The score doesn't indicate the chances we had. We could have easily scored more."

"Basically we were beating them one-on-one, dribbling around them at will. This had a tendency to hurt us, because it led to overdrizzling. Peter Griffin went on a dribbling spree, beating men very artistically, which impressed the other coach very much."

Despite playing before an away crowd, Dorrance felt his team had the advantage because of Belmont Abbey's wider field. Carolina's ball-possession skills can manifest themselves better on larger fields. "We'll always play better on Fetzer," Dorrance said, "but away games are good for us, because many fields are larger than ours. We have an edge when we can spread it out."

Another bright spot for the Heels was the return to limited action of Roy Baroff and Olaf Kampfschmidt, both of whom had been injured. Dorrance said Baroff played at about 90 per cent Wednesday, but feels he should be 100 per cent on Saturday when the Heels take on UNC-W at Wilmington.

Dorrance believes the team must tighten up its defensive play, especially in the midfield, and must take better advantage of its scoring opportunities in order to be prepared tomorrow.

"I'd like the midfielders to be doing more scoring," he said. "I'd like one goal scored a game from one of our three middles."

UNC-W will provide the stiffest challenge of the young season. The Seahawks are only three spaces behind the Tar Heels in the southern soccer rankings. UNC being seventh and UNC-W tenth.

"We know they're strong," Dorrance said. "They lost 5-4 to Maryland and beat small-college power Campbell 4-0. Judging from the scores, UNC-W must have an attack. We have to be concerned about their scoring."

Last year the Heels blanked the Seahawks 5-0, but Dorrance feels that was not a good indication of the relative strengths of the two teams.

"Last season's score was deceptive, because it was probably our best shooting day of the year. Dick Drayton scored four goals, and he only had nine for the season. It's hard to judge (how good the other team is) when one of your players has such an exceptional day."

"If we play at our peak, we'll beat them," Dorrance said. "Anything less than our best and we'll put ourselves in a position to be upset. If they have a narrow field and a large partisan crowd supporting them, the odds against us will be tougher. "The way to beat them is for our defense to stop their strikers. It's possible to score on them, but it sounds like it will be a slugfest. It'll be the kind of game where you just hope you score one more than they do."

David Blum (left), a Greensboro sophomore, had one of the better games against Belmont Abbey, UNC coach Anson Dorrance said.

No big coolers in Kenan

Spectators at Saturday's Carolina-Richmond football game will not be permitted to bring coolers larger than one cubic foot in size into Kenan Stadium. The cooler policy is the same one that was in effect last year, and only those containers that will fit under a seat without protruding will be allowed through the gate.

Big 4 on WRDU ACC football standings

WRDU-TV Channel 28 is broadcasting the "Big Four Game of the Week" feature this fall, with films of selected games involving Big Four Schools.

The show will be aired from 6 to 7 p.m. Mondays with Woody Durham acting as host. Every play from the selected game will be shown, with interviews and various features planned for future shows.

The Carolina-Kentucky game was shown last week, and the Duke-Michigan game will be shown this week. The next week will feature N.C. State-Wake Forest.

Team	W	L	T
Maryland	1	0	0
N.C. State	1	0	0
Wake Forest	0	0	0
Duke	0	0	0
North Carolina	0	0	0
Clemson	0	1	0
Virginia	0	1	0

This week's schedule

- Clemson at Georgia
- Duke at Michigan
- West Virginia at Maryland
- Richmond at North Carolina
- N.C. State at Syracuse
- Virginia at Texas
- Vanderbilt at Wake Forest

Smart Readers See & Clip Coupons From the Tar Heel

IM entries high

Intramural racquetball entries hit an all-time high at Carolina this semester, according to Assistant Intramural Director Marty Pomerantz.

Seventy-six men are entered in men's singles, while 18 women and 11 doubles teams have entered. Glenn Shefter, last year's winner, is returning to defend his title.

James Dorm still needs intramural managers. Those interested should check by the intramural office.

Win a Weekend in New York

Courtesy of Columbia Records & Record Bar

Fill out the coupon in this ad and bring it to your nearest Record Bar. If your name is drawn as the winning entry, you'll receive airfare to New York, hotel accommodations for three days and two nights and $100.00 spending money for yourself and a guest.

While you're in the Record Bar, take advantage of the sale prices on the entire stock of Columbia Records classical releases.

On Sale September 9-29

All $7.98 list price Columbia Masterworks: $4.99/disc

All $8.98 list price Columbia Masterworks: $5.99/disc

All Odyssey Classics: $2.49/disc

Win a Weekend in New York

Name _____
 Address _____
 City _____ State _____ Zip Code _____
 Phone Number _____

No Purchase Necessary • Entrant need not be present to win.

THE Daily Crossword by Jay Scott

- |                      |                           |                         |                         |                              |
|----------------------|---------------------------|-------------------------|-------------------------|------------------------------|
| ACROSS        | 22 Pistol                 | 36 Caffeine-bearing nut | 2 Salute                | 32 - mater                   |
| 1 " - above all ..." | 24 Distress               | 40 Toadies              | 3 Not at all energetic  | 33 Specialized aviator       |
| 5 Do a take-off      | 26 Sculptured masterpiece | 42 Melodious            | 4 By law                | 35 Applications              |
| 13 Kind of ad        | 28 "Unto us - is given"   | 43 Links grp.           | 5 Binge                 | 37 Handel's "Messiah" is one |
| 14 Priority          | 30 Small ones: suff.      | 46 Shakespear-ean king  | 6 Tumultuous            | 38 - Abner                   |
| 17 Verdi opera       | 31 Whether -              | 47 Marsh                | 7 Shamuses              | 39 Sleeve card               |
| 18 Nadir             | 32 Neck scarfs            | 48 Decks out            | 8 Unappealing           | 41 Culbertson                |
| 19 Las Vegas opening | 34 Father: comb. form     | 50 Say suddenly         | 9 Johnny -              | 42 Baton Rouge campus        |
| 20 Street or chair   | 35 Of a forearm bone      | 52 High schooler        | 10 Alter statement      | 43 Beaten and garden         |
| 21 Lily plant        |                           | 53 Roman 902            | 11 Gr. letters          | 44 Hall-of-famer             |
|                      |                           | 55 Hawkeyes' home       | 12 Dinner course        | 45 Sports centers            |
|                      |                           | 58 Together             | 15 Ashe's milieu        | 49 Mr. Previn                |
|                      |                           | 61 British vehicle      | 16 Show-biz awards      | 50 IQ test name              |
|                      |                           | 62 Visionary            | 23 Mobster's weapon     | 51 Watergate name            |
|                      |                           | 63 Leprechaun land      | 24 Peaty and sedgy land | 53 Chastity's mother         |
|                      |                           | 64 Degree of difficulty | 25 Passbook abbr.       | 54 Query in child's game     |
|                      |                           | 65 Rogers and Clark     | 26 Cork sound           | 56 Cautious                  |
|                      |                           |                         | 27 Author Levin         | 57 Iowa State U. site        |
|                      |                           |                         | 28 Actor Edward         | 59 Mr. Berlin, for short     |
|                      |                           |                         | 29 Look over            | 60 Comedian Louis            |
|                      |                           |                         |                         |                              |

© 1977 by Chicago Tribune-N.Y. News Synd. Inc. All Rights Reserved

Record Bar

131 Franklin Street • University Mall